1 - The pilot's arrival

We begin as an american boy is being flown over to japan along with unit 04. Justin: Hmph. So i got chosen to be a pilot of this machine. It's interesting knowing that they dont know who i really am. Who i really am will be revealed as soon as the angels are beaten and the human instrumentality almost begins. For i am the 19th angel known as raliel, the angel of destruction. They wont know what hit them, He, he, he. The plane continues to japan.

Meanwhile at the tokyo 3 airport, a beautiful, dark haired woman in a black dress with a cross around her neck is holding a sign with the name Justin on it. Misato: When the hell is that plane with that boy gonna arrive. My arms are getting tired from holding this damn sign. Pilot: Passengers. We will be arriving at the tokyo 3 airport in just a few moments. Please get your belongings together and prepare to exit the plane. And remember to put your seats in the upright position. Thank you. Justin: Finally. We've arrived at last. The plane then descends down towards the city known as tokyo 3 and lands at the airport. Airport announcer: Flight 030 has arrived. Repeat. Flight 030 has arrived. Misato: It's about damn time. She then sees a boy coming from the exit wing from the plane. The boy has blondish hair. Green eyes. And smooth skin. Justin sees a woman holding a sign with his name on it and goes over. Justin: So, you must be ms katsuragi i take it. Misato: Yes. You must be Justin. Justin: Yes. Misato: Good. Now let's go. I came to pick you up and to take you to NERV. Justin: Fine with me. Misato: (Thinks to herself) I didn't expect this boy to be cute. But i have a job to do. They then leave the airport.

At NERV HQ. Fuyutsuki: Gendo. The zero child has been picked up and being brought here as we speak. Gendo: Good. Now we need the third child to be picked up as well.

In a blue car, Misato tells Justin that they need to pick up another boy while she is driving. Justin: Why do we need to? You have me dont you. Im sure there is no need to get him. Misato: But there is. You see. You are the zero child. And this boy is the third child. We need both of you to do something. If we didnt need you both, we would not of have you flown out here and would not of had this boy come here. Do you understand? Justin: Yes. (thinks to himself) You fools dont know who i really am. By the time you realize who i am. It'll be to late. The blue car then continues on the highway towards downtown tokyo 3. To be continued.

2 - The angel attacks

Now we begin as Misato and Justin are going to NERV central in her blue car of course. All of a sudden Justin says something. Justin (Looks back at batteries in back seat): Why do you have batteries back there? Misato: Oh, um there for the car in case it breaks down. Justin: Sure they are. (Thinks to himself) Who she trying to kidd? Misato: Really. They are for the car. Justin: (Being sarcastic) How can a beautiful women like you lie like that. Misato: I'm not lying, wait. Did you say i'm beautiful. And were you being sarcastic. Justin: About you being beautiful, no. The rest. Yes. Misato kisses Justin on the cheek. Justin: What was that for. Misato: You called me beautiful. Justin: Ohh. Cant forget to pick up the third child either. Misato: I wont, but i'm dropping you off at NERV first.

Now downtown Tokyo 3, a boy is using the payphone to try and call but it doesnt work because of the emergency. Shinji: Huh, this one dont work either. Sighs. Guess i wont be meeting Misato here. I better go find a shelter. Starts to walk away when an earthquake is heard. Shinji looks and see's the angel coming. Shinji: What the hell is that?

At NERV HQ. Fuyutsuki: Ikari: An angel has appeared. How will we fight it. Gendo: As soon as the zero child has arrived. Then we will activate unit 01, unit 04 is still being prepared. Fuyutsuki: Unit 01? I thought the third child was to pilot it. Gendo: He will. But since the zero child is being brought here first and unit 04 aint ready, he'll pilot unit 01 for the time being. Now. Tell the techs to get unit 01 ready for when the zero child arrives. I'm going down to the cage to see how unit 04 is coming. Fuyutsuki: Yes sir. Gendo then goes down to the cage where unit 04 is. Fuyutsuki: I wonder what you are thinking.

3 - Eva pilot of unit 1?

Now arriving at the train that goes to NERV, Misato gives Justin a map. Misato: Now you get on this train and it'll get you to NERV central. I'm going back to pick up Shinji. Justin: So, that's his name huh. Misato: Yes. Now get on. My friend Ritsuko Akagi, will meet you at the station to take you in NERV. Justin: Then why do I need a map? Misato: Good point. Takes the map from Justin. Misato: Now hurry and get on. I'll see you later. Justin: Ok. Justin gets on the train and the train pulls from the station. Misato gets in her car and drives back to Tokyo 3 to pick up Shinji.

At NERV HQ. In the Eva cage. Gendo: Is unit 4 ready. NERV tech: No. Not yet. Eva unit 4 wasn't built here. So it'll take awhile. Gendo: I see. How about unit 1. NERV tech: Unit 1 is ready. Gendo: Good. You can proceed. He then leaves the cage.

On the train. Justin: Hmm. How long is this gonna take. I'm bored. Train driver: We are now arriving at the Geo Front. Repeat. Now arriving at the Geo Front. Justin: The Geo Front huh. That must be NERV central. The train then arrives at the station. Justin gets off and sees a woman with blonde hair, in a white coat and a mole on her face. Ritsuko: Are you Justin. Justin: Yes. Ritsuko: Good. It's nice to meet you. Justin: Likewise. (Thinks to himself) Misato didn't say Ritsuko was beautiful. Ritsuko: Now, please follow me. Justin: Alright. Justin then follows Ritsuko inside.

Now downtown Tokyo 3, Misato looks for Shinji. Misato: Damn it. I can't find him. She then looks out the window to see Shinji on the ground. Misato: Found him. She then drives over and stops the car. Shinji looks at the blue car. The door then opens and he sees Misato. Misato: Come on. Get in. Shinji gets in and Misato drives back to avoid the Angels' foot and goes forward.

Now having arrived at the Eva cage. Ritsuko: Justin. You will pilot unit 1. Justin: Unit 1? I'm supposed to pilot unit 4. Ritsuko: You will. But it's not ready yet, so you will pilot unit 1. Justin: What? To be continued.

4 - Showdown between angel and eva part 1

Now continuing from chapter 3. Ritsuko: You will be piloting Eva unit 1. Justin: No I won't. Gendo: (Standing from behind a glass window) You will pilot unit 1 for the time being. Justin: But what about Shinji? What's he gonna pilot when he gets here. Gendo: Nothing. Until unit 4 is ready for you, you will pilot unit 1. Don't worry. You'll pilot unit 4 soon. Justin: But what if I can't pilot it. What if it won't let me? Gendo: Don't worry. We will reconfigure it for you to pilot it. You should be able to. Justin: Fine. I'll pilot it. Ritsuko: Good. Now follow me. Ritsuko leaves and Justin follows. Gendo: Reconfigure unit 1 for Justin for right now. NERV tech: Yes sir.

Now on their way to NERV. Shinji: Umm, what are those batteries back there for? Misato: Hmm. What. Oh, those. Justin asked me the same thing. I told him there for the car in case it breaks down. Don't worry. I'm with the Government. It's alright. Shinji: I don't know how you got him to believe that but I don't. And I'm sure no one else will either. Misato: You know. You're less fun than Justin was. And you're not that cute either. Shinji: Oh really. Misato: What's the matter. Mad. I'm sorry. Ha, ha, ha. You are just a boy after all. Shinji: Well, at least I'm mature. Misato: You saying I'm not mature. Shinji: You're immature for sure. Misato: (Mad) Then the car then swerves back and forth with Shinji scared.

Ritsuko: Insert the entry plug. Makato: Entry plug being inserted. Then we see the entry plug being inserted in back of the Eva. Maya: Entry plug inserted. Ritsuko: Now start up the interface. Maya: Interface starting up. In the entry plug, we see a liquid coming up. Justin: What is this? The liquid then goes over his face making him hold his breath. Ritsuko: It's alright. It's LCL. It'll allow your lungs to be oxygenated directly. Justin: It makes me sick. Ritsuko: You'll get used to it. Then the LCL disappears and color comes flashing by. Justin just sits there in amazement. Justin: Does this happen all the time. Ritsuko: Yes. Now have the interface configured for English. Maya: Interface now in English. Ritsuko: Now release the first locked bolts. Makato: Locked bolts released. Ritsuko: Release the secondary and third locked bolts. Maya: Locked bolts released. Ritsuko: Move unit 1 to the launch pad and get ready for launch. Maya: Now moving unit 1 to launch pad. We see unit 1 being moved to the launch pad. Maya: Unit 1 on launch pad. Ritsuko: Should we launch unit 1 now. Gendo: Yes. Misato isn't here so we will launch it now. Ritsuko: I understand. Justin. Are you ready. Justin: Yes. Ritsuko: Good. Launch unit 1. Unit 1 is then launched through a hole above. In the city, the angel is moving through like it's looking for something then it looks down a street it's passing and sees the ground opening. The Eva then comes out. The angel just stares at it. Ritsuko: Now just concentrate on walking till you get it. Justin: Sure. (Walk) The Eva then takes a foot forward. Justin: (Walk) The Eva takes another foot forward but falls on its face. The angel then comes over and lifts unit 1 off the ground with its left hand. Ritsuko: Justin. You have to break free. Justin: I'll try. (Break free) The Eva doesn't do it. Justin: (Break free please). Again the Eva doesn't do it. Maya: Something is happening in the Eva. The pilot's blood type is blue. Ritsuko: What? That blood type is the type of an angel. He can't be an angel. He's human. There is no way. But before anyone could say more, the angel attacks with a spear from its arm and shoots through the Eva's head. It does it again and again and again. Then it does it once more and shoots it far back making it hit a building. To be continued in part 2.

Continuing from the last chapter. We see the last second of the angel attacking unit 1. Then we see it use the spear in its arm one more time and it pins unit 1 up against a building and lets go. Maya: The head has been severely damaged. Pilot's life is unknown. Ritsuko: Alright. Eject the entry plug. Get the pilot out of there. Maybe we can find out why the pilot's blood type is blue. Maya: Understood. Sending signal now. The signal isn't being accepted. Ritsuko: WHAT? Shigeru: Something is happening in the eva. The pilot is alive. But, something is wrong. Ritsuko: Like what. Maya: It looks like the eva is reactivating itself but with the pilot's help. Makato: Yes. The blood type is blue. It's confirmed. He's an angel. Ritsuko: No. He can't be. Then the eva's eyes light up along with Justin's. Justin: Rooooaaarr. The eva also lets out a roar. The eva then charges at the angel and the angel shoots a laser blast out of its eyes pushing the eva back in the form of a cross. The eva is unfazed. The eva then again charges at the angel but the angel puts up its AT field stopping unit 1 in its tracks. Justin: Rooooaaarr. The eva also roars again. It now tries to break through the AT field but can't. The angel then charges up a spear in its arm and shoots it at unit 1. It goes right through unit 1's chest. Letting out another roar, the eva somehow regenerates its chest like new. Maya: No way. Unit 1 regenerated its chest. Ritsuko: What? (Thinks to herself) Maybe he is an angel. Unit 1 can't do that on its own.

Still on their way to NERV. Shinji: Where are we going miss Misato? Misato: I'm taking you to NERV. Shinji: NERV? That's my father's agency isn't it. Misato: Yes it is. I'm taking you there for something. Shinji: For what? Misato: You'll find out soon. I got to make a call alright. Shinji: Yes. Misato then picks up the phone next to her and dials the number for the command room. Ring. Ring. Ring. The phone then gets picked up. Makato: Hello. Misato: Oh hi Makato. Makato: Oh hi miss Katsuragi. Misato: Get me Ritsuko please. Makato: Yes ma'am. Ritsuko: Phone. Ritsuko: What? Now. Oh fine. Goes over and takes the phone. Ritsuko: Yes. Hello. Misato: Oh hi Rits. Ritsuko: Misato. Where the hell are you. Misato: I'm on my way to NERV with the third child. Ritsuko: Well, you're a little too late. Unit 1 has been launched with Justin as the pilot. Misato: What? Wasn't Shinji supposed to pilot it. Ritsuko: Yes. But unit 4 wasn't ready yet and we needed unit 1 launched so we had Justin do it. Besides, something odd is going on here. And you're not gonna find out unless you hurry up and get here! So hurry up. Hangs the phone up. Misato: (Thinks to herself) What could be happening? She then hangs the phone up.

Maya: The eva is trying to break through the angel's AT field. Ritsuko: What? It can't. Then they all look on the monitor in front of them. The eva then breaks through the angel's AT field. Maya: The eva broke through. The eva then grabs the angel's arm and tries to break it off. But the angel grabs unit 1's throat but unit 1 kicks the angel hard making it let go and goes crashing in a building. Unit 1 then charges at the angel while it blasts another laser but unit 1 jumps up and avoids it. It then comes down with its right foot and crashes it into the angel's red core. It then gets off. It grabs one of the angel's bones that is growing by the core and pulls it out. It then starts stabbing the core with it. Then it throws it and with a roar, the eva's eyes light up and a blast is shown where the eva and angel was. Everyone back in the command center just sits there amazed. Except Gendo. He just sits there with a smirk on his face. After the blast is done, everyone then sees the eva moving towards the monitor walking with its eyes still lit up. Everyone especially Ritsuko wonder what exactly happened. Was it because of the pilot. To be continued.

6 - Doctor's order

It is now the morning after the battle and Justin is in NERV's hospital to find out what caused unit 1 to act like it did. Looking at the monitor. Doctor: Hmm. Interesting. It would seem his blood type is red again. Ritsuko: Really. But it was blue yesterday. Do you know why it changed. Doctor: That ma'am. I do not know. But this I do know. Whatever caused it. Must of helped him out of a jam. Ritsuko then turns to stare at Justin. Misato: Here we are. The train station for NERV. Shinji: We take this. But what about your car? Misato: Don't worry. This is a car train. It'll take the car with. Shinji: Ohh. But do we stay in here or get out. Misato: We don't need to get out. She then drives the car into the train and the train doors behind them closes. The train then departs. Ritsuko is now walking down the hallway of NERV to her office thinking about the battle. Ritsuko: How was his blood type blue? Is he really an angel. Or was that a fluke. This troubles her for the rest of the day. Justin meanwhile has woken up and got out of bed. He can't remember anything about the battle. Justin: What happened. How I get here. Why can't I remember anything about last night. He then starts walking down the hall and comes back to his room. On the car train. Shinji: Will you tell me why we are going to see my father. Misato: Nope. Sorry kiddo. You'll have to find out when we get there. Shinji: (Quietly) Damn women. Misato: What was that. Shinji: Oh nothing. The car train continues. It comes out of the tunnel and the view changes to the geo-front. Shinji: Wow. It's a real geo front. Misato: That's right. This is our secret underground base. NERV central. This base is the key to rebuilding our world. Justin is now dressed up and is sitting in the waiting room. He wonders why he can't remember last night. At NERV HQ. Gendo: So Ritsuko. How is the boy. Ritsuko: Fine sir. He seems normal. Gendo: Good. But we don't know why that accident happened. And because of this. I'm ordering you to take him in and to watch him to make sure nothing is wrong. You are gonna be his guardian. Understand. Ritsuko: But sir. Shouldn't Misato do that. Gendo: No. She's not here. So you will do it. And besides. A smile forms on his lips. It would seem this boy likes you a lot. It's perfect. Unless you doubt my decision Ms Akagi. Ritsuko: No sir. I don't. Gendo: Good. He's at the hospital. Go pick him up and bring him to your place. Understand. Ritsuko: Yes sir. Ritsuko then leaves. Fuyutsuki: Gendo. Are you sure the choice was correct. Gendo: Of course. It's obvious he's an angel. But he won't completely reveal himself until all angels are beaten. Then he will have no choice but to reveal himself as an angel. And according to the dead sea scrolls. He must be beaten by all evas. Fuyutsuki: I understand. Now having arrived at NERV central. Misato: What the? Aren't we going the right way. Damn it. This is confusing. I gotta find out what happened. Shinji: You don't know where your going do you. Misato: Of course I do. Just shut up and follow me. Shinji follows her and takes her hours to finally find the command center. Misato: Hello. Ritsuko. Anyone here. Sorry I'm late. It's completely empty in the command room. At the hospital. Justin is in the waiting room still. Ritsuko comes in to pick him up. Justin notices her. They then walk out. She takes him to her car and they both get in. She starts it up and leaves. Ritsuko: So, I see your better. Justin: Yeah. A little. Ritsuko: That's good. You know. You better start acting happy instead of all sulky. Justin: Why. I got no where to live or no one to live with. Ritsuko: Wrong. You are gonna live with me. I'm your guardian and you are gonna like it. Understand. Justin: Yes. (Thinks to himself) She's such a fool. The car continues along the street towards downtown Tokyo 3. To be continued.

7 - A drunk guardian

Now continuing in her black car, Ritsuko takes Justin downtown Tokyo 3. Justin: Is your place somewhere downtown. Ritsuko: No. I'm just taking you on a tour of Tokyo 3 since you're from America. Justin: Oh. But you don't seem to be the type of person who does this or the type that takes someone like me. You must have been ordered to do this right. Ritsuko: Oh well, I could tell you but I won't. Justin: Whatever. It's obvious you've been ordered to anyway. Ritsuko: Hey. Thought I told you to be happy not sulky. Justin: I'm not sulking. I'm not happy either. Is that a problem doctor. Ritsuko: Well, no. But I'll fix that when I take you home. The black car continues downtown. At NERV HQ. Gendo: Why were you late Ms Katsuragi. Misato: Well, it took me longer to get here than I thought sir. Gendo: Very well. You do know that you were supposed to be that boy's guardian, do you not. Misato: Yes sir. Gendo: Tell me this captain. Why didn't you go pick up the third child when you picked up that boy from the airport. Misato: Well, I thought it was better that way. And besides, I didn't know an angel was attacking. Gendo: That makes sense. You do know that because you weren't here yesterday, the boy had to have Ms Akagi be his guardian instead of you. Misato: Really. Ritsuko is his guardian. I didn't think she wanted to. Gendo: Well, that's because she didn't. But she had to because of your absence. You will now just be the guardian of my son now. Do you understand. Misato: Yes sir. Gendo: Make sure you're here on time from now on. Misato: Understood. Gendo: One more thing. Tell my son I won't live with him and he'll be living with you. Got it. Misato: Yes sir. Gendo: Very well. You're excused. Misato: Yes sir. Misato then leaves. She finds Shinji still waiting for her. Shinji: What did my father say. Misato: Oh nothing much. Except you'll be living with me and not him. Shinji: I suppose it's better than living with someone who abandoned me years ago. Misato: You can suppose that. Anyway, shall we leave. Shinji: Why? I thought I came here for something. Misato: You did. But it'll have to wait. So let's leave. Shinji: All right. Misato and Shinji leave NERV. Now having stopped, Ritsuko and Justin get out of the car. Ritsuko: We're here. Justin: Here? This doesn't look like your place. It looks more like a bar. Ritsuko: That's because it is one. Justin: Why we stop here? Thought you were giving me a tour. Ritsuko: I will. I just need to get something inside. Could you wait for me out here. You're too young to come inside. Justin: Fine. Ritsuko walks in the bar. An hour passed and she still hasn't come out. 2 hours go by and still she doesn't come out. It is now midnight and Justin is asleep on the ground. Ritsuko finally comes out, wobbling. Justin hears her and wakes up. Justin: There you are. What the hell did you need to get that takes this long. Ritsuko: (Drunk) Something.. something important. Justin: Like what. Ritsuko: Something. Justin: (Sighs) Great. My so-called guardian is drunk now. How the hell are we gonna get to her place now. In her condition, she wouldn't be able to drive. How many beers did you exactly have. Ritsuko: A few. Justin: A few what. A few hundred. Ritsuko: No.. no just 13. Justin: JUST 13. My god. That's a lot. How are we gonna get to your place now. jeez. Ritsuko: Do.. don't.. worry. I'll drive us there. Justin: Not in your condition you won't. Ritsuko: That's sweet of you to worry but...but I thhhhiinnk I can handle it. She starts heading towards the car. Justin goes after her and grabs her arm. Ritsuko: Let me go. I'm...I'm fine. Justin: Like hell you are. I'll drive. Ritsuko: You can't drive. Justin: Yeah I know. But letting you drive in your state is worst. We'll be killed if you drove. We have a better chance if I drive. Ritsuko: Fine. Ritsuko then collapsed in Justin's arms. Justin: Perfect. She's supposed to look after me. I'm gonna be the one to look after her. He then opens the car door and sets Ritsuko in her seat and puts the seatbelt on. He then goes over to the driver's side and gets in. He puts his seatbelt on. He then remembers that Ritsuko has the key. He remembers her putting it in her bra. His face turns red as he thinks of it. But tells himself he has to. He reaches over to the passed out doctor and puts a hand in her shirt hoping the doctor doesn't wake up. He goes in deeper until he reaches her bra. He then puts his hand in digging around for the key and finds it in her left cup. He grabs it and starts pulling his hand out then all of a sudden Ritsuko wakes up. She is just staring at what Justin is doing. Justin: (nervous) It..it's not what it seems. I was just looking for the key. I swear. Ritsuko smiles. Ritsuko: (still drunk) What are you doing. Looking for something or just wanted to feel a woman's full breasts. Justin turns red. Ritsuko: If you wanted me, you could have asked. The doctor then passes out once more. Justin however, just stares in shock. He then remembers what he was doing and inserts the key and starts the car up. He slowly turns the wheel while shifting in reverse and presses the gas pedal. He ends up backing into another car setting the alarm off. Knowing this, he quickly shifts into drive and presses the gas pedal speeding off. He is a bad driver as he almost collides with a truck, almost hitting someone and almost hitting a stop sign. He stops at a hotel to stay for the night. He goes into the office and pays for a room. He then grabs the key and goes out to get Ritsuko. He carries her to the room and sets her on the bed. He then goes into the other bed and closes his eyes or tries to. He wonders how Ritsuko will react once she finds out what he did. Justin: She won't be happy when she wakes up. I better figure something out. To be continued.

8 - Misato's new roommate

Now we see misato and shinji in her car going towards downtown tokyo 3. Misato: Guess we have to have a party huh. Shinji: Why? Misato: For my new roommate of course. Shinji: Who's your new roommate. Misato: You silly. The car then goes through a tunnel. Shinji: So, do i really have to live with you. Misato: Well, of course. You dont want to live with your father obviously. And this was the only other way. Shinji: I see. Misato: Come on. Cheer up. The car then exits the tunnel and they stop at a small market. They go in to get food which is all instant and a few cases of beer. While at the checkout some women come by and they're talking about last night. Women 1: Did you hear how the city is a battleground now. Women 2: Ya. My husband says we should move out because of the battle. He says me and the children should leave anyway. Women 1: That's a good idea. I never would of dreamt this city would become a battleground. After, the women leave the store and shinji looks at misato. Shinji: What were those two women talking about. Misato: Hmm. Oh nothing. Shinji: Misato. Misato: I'll tell you later. Shinji: Alright. They then leave the store with the food and get back in the car. They now leave. They now arrive at misato's apartment. Misato: Your stuff should of been delivered already shinji. I just moved here myself. She then unlocks the door. Come in. Shinji: Umm, i dont want to be rude. Misato: Shinji. This is your home NOW. Shinji then steps in. The door closes. Misato: Umm, as you can see. The place is a little bit messy but make yourself at home. Shinji: This is a little messy. Misato: Yeah sorry. Could you put the food in the fridge please. Shinji: Yes ma'am. He goes to the fridge and opens it. Inside he sees two rows lined up with beer, a row of snacks and a row of ice. Shinji: Sheesh. That's a lot of stuff. What kind of women am i living with. He then looks at the other fridge. Shinji: (yelling) Whats in the other fridge. Misato: (yelling from her room) Never mind that. He's probably still sleeping. Shinji: Sleeping. The bell of the microwave goes off and the food is set on the table. Misato: Let's eat. Shinji: Let's eat. yum. Meanwhile at the hotel. Justin wakes up. He gets out of bed thinking of what to tell ritsuko what happened. Justin: Hmm. What shall i tell her. This whole thing was her fault. Then Ritsuko wakes up. She sits up in bed. Ritsuko: Ohh my head. Where the hell are we. Justin: Well, well, well. Look who's up. Justin is looking at ritsuko. Ritsuko: Justin. Where are we. Justin: At a hotel. Ritsuko: How we get here. Justin: You dont remember about last night. Ritsuko: No not really. Justin: Good. Then you wont remember how you got drunk and passed out. How i had my hand in your bra and how i drove us here. Ritsuko: I passed out. I was drunk. (angry) YOU HAD YOUR HAND IN MY BRA! You drove. But more importantly. YOU HAD YOUR HAND IN MY BRA. Justin: (Embarrassed) Ohh shoot. I wasn't supposed to tell you. Ahh damn it. Ritsuko: Well, you must of had a good reason if you had your hand in my bra. Justin (nervous) yes... yes i did. You had the car key in it and you were passed out so i had to get it out somehow without waking you up but you woke up anyway. Ritsuko: That makes sense. But how did you drive. You cant drive yet can you. Justin: Obviously not or i wouldnt not of almost collided with a truck, almost killing someone and almost hitting a stop sign. That's why there are dents in front. Ritsuko: DENTS. Why did you drive. You've could of woken me up. You were drunk and passed out so i did. Obviously you weren't watching what you were doing so i took care of you and everything else. Ritsuko: That's very sweet of you. But how you pay for this hotel. Justin: Easy. This was an american hotel so i could pay with american money. See, i took care of you. And everything else. Ritsuko: That's nice. Justin: Do you want to leave or want to stay another night. I paid for two nights. If you want to leave we can. Ritsuko: No. We can stay one more night. Besides, i gotta thank you for what you've done. Justin: Like how. You not getting drunk again. Ritsuko: No. Like letting you sleep with me tonight. Obiviously you liked touching me. Justin (blushing) I.. i do not. I told you why i did that. Ritsuko: Yes yes. Now get over here and get in. Justin: No i'm fine with the other bed thank you. He slowly goes into his bed. Ritsuko however gets out of her bed and goes over to his. She gets under the covers and snuggles closely with Justin. Justin: Ritsuko. Ritsuko: What are you. His words are cut off by Ritsuko's lips. Strangely, Justin likes her's lips pressed against his. They kiss for hours. It becomes night time before they stop and fall asleep against one another. Now they have finished their meal. Misato: Boy was that good. Did you enjoy it Shinji. Shinji: Umm, guess so. But I'm not used to food like that though. Misato: What. She bends over the table to Shinji. Are you finicky hmm. Shinji: Umm, no. That's not, um why. He however can't speak straight because of well Misato's breasts. There not showing of course but he can see them because of the shirt she is wearing. Misato: Eating dinner with two is better than at all huh. Shinji: Umm, sure. Misato: Well, you'll get used to it. Tomorrow we'll decide chores alright. Shinji: Umm, sure. Misato: Why don't we turn in for the night. And start fresh in the morning. Shinji: Alright. Good night. Misato: Good night. He then goes to the room Misato assigned him and closes the door. Misato: Hmm. Wonder why I haven't heard from Ritsuko yet. Wonder what they are doing. She wonders this as she heads off to her room to turn in for the night. To be continued.

9 - A new day

It is now the next day at the hotel and the two people who slept with each other the night before wakes up or one does anyway. Justin:(yawns)Wow. Dont know what i did but i feel good.He then see's the sleeping doctor next to him sound asleep.At this justin cant help but smiles.He slowly gets out of bed without waking the doctor.He goes to get his shoes on and goes outside. Justin:Wow. Tokyo 3 looks cool in the morning. Inside the hotel a certain doctor wakes up to see someone missing. She slowly gets up and goes to the window to see justin outside. She smiles and goes to the door and opens it. Justin doesnt notice ritsuko coming out so he is surprised when she comes stand by him. Justin:So,your awake. Ritsuko:Yes. I slept good. Justin:That's good. Now maybe you can actually take me to your home so i can get settled in or do i have to report this to commander ikari. Ritsuko:You wouldnt. Would you. Justin:I'm afraid i have too unless you do what you need to do. Ritsuko:Alright. You ready to leave now. Justin:Yes. Let me go get the hotel key and return it. He goes inside to get the key and shuts the door behind them. Both people walk towards the hotel office. Justin:I'll be right out. Ritsuko:Alright. I'll be in the car. Justin goes in and returns the key. He then comes out but he see's ritsuko mad. He goes over and ritsuko looks at him angry. Ritsuko:(angry)WHY DIDNT YOU TELL ME THERE WERE DENTS IN THE BACK TOO. Justin:Um,you see. I didnt really check. Ritsuko:How did this happen. Justin:Well,it must of happened when i backed up into another car behind me. Ritsuko:Damn you. Watch where you back up. Justin:Me. You're the one who got drunk and passed out. So it's your fault. Ritsuko:Oh frack no. It's your's. You are the one who drove. You've should of just stayed there but no. Justin:Still. It's your fracking own fault doctor. Your the one who got drunk. Your the one who stopped at the bar. I didnt want to but you stopped anyway. Its your fault and you know it. Ritsuko:Bullshoot. You are the one who drove. You can pilot an eva but you cant drive a car. Boy are you something. Justin:At least i was responsible for something and not blaming it on someone else like me. Ritsuko:Oh right, fine. It's my fault. Happy now. Justin:I suppose. Ritsuko:Good. Now let's go. They both get in the car and take off. At misato's apartment. Shinji is up eating toast with coffee. Misato comes in from the way to her room. Shinji:Good morning miss misato. Misato:Good morning.(yawns). Hey,dont we decide who gets what chores. Shinji:I was actually hoping you forgot. Misato:Nope. Now then let's see. Oh i know. You get the cooking on mondays,tuesdays,wednesdays,fridays and sundays. You get the cleaning on mondays,wednesdays,thursdays,saturdays and sundays. You get the dish washing on mondays,tuesdays,wednesdays,thursdays,fridays and saturdays. And finally you get laundry duty on mondays,wednesday,fridays,saturdays and sundays. I get the rest of the days for each. Thats fare huh. Shinji:(shocked)WHAT. That's not fare. Misato:It is. So there. She goes over to the fridge to grab a beer and comes back and sits across from shinji. Misato:So,how did you sleep? Shinji:Fine i guess. Misato:Thats good. Opens the beer and chuggs some down. Misato:Why dont you go take a bath. Shinji:I dont want too. Misato:What?Why. Shinji:Because i'm already cleaned up. Why dont you go get cleaned up. Misato:I will later. Right now i need to get dressed and to take you to NERV. She gets up and goes get changed. Now continuing downtown. Justin:We are going to your place this time arent we. Ritsuko:Yes. Dont worry. The black car then turns right and keeps going straight from there. Soon they stop at a house in the country. Both people get out. Justin:So,this must be your place i take it. Ritsuko:Yes it is. The house is all white with a yellow roof. They go inside and find it filled with papers everywhere. Papers are on the couch,the desk even the kitchen table. Justin goes looks around and finds ashtrays filled with ciggarets. Justin:I didnt know you smoked. Ritsuko:I used to in college. But not anymore. Justin:Ohh thats good. Anyway,where should i put my stuff. Ritsuko:In my room for now. Its upstairs, first room on the right. Justin: Ok. He goes up the stairs and goes right to find Ritsuko was right. He goes in and sees it not messy. The bed is made and everything. He puts his stuff down and goes lie down on the bed. Justin: This is comfy. Ritsuko then comes in. Ritsuko: Nice bed huh. Justin nods. Ritsuko: You'll be sleeping with me in it for a while. Don't worry. I won't do anything to you this time. Justin: Alright. Guess this means we're pals for a while. Ritsuko: Yes. Looks like a relationship to me. At that they both smile. To be continued.

10 - Father and son meet.

Continuing from the last chapter. Misato and Shinji are on their way to NERV to see Shinji's father. Shinji: Are you gonna tell me why we are going to see my dad. Misato: (sighs) The reason we are going to see your father is you've been chosen for something. Shinji: Chosen for what? Misato: That you'll find out when we get there. The car continues through Tokyo 3. At NERV HQ. Gendo: So, are Captain Katsuragi and the third child coming. Fuyutsuki: From my understanding, yes, they should be. Gendo: Very well. My son shall pilot unit 1 now and that other boy shall pilot unit 4. Fuyutsuki: What about Rei. Gendo: She will be piloting unit 0 and will also be a back up pilot for unit 1. Until unit 0 is fixed, she won't be piloting yet. Fuyutsuki: I understand. Having arrived at NERV, Misato leads Shinji into the cage where unit 1 is. Misato: Shinji. Do you see what is in front of you. Shinji: Umm, yes. Misato: This is Evangelion unit 1. You have been chosen to pilot it and you are known as the third child. Shinji: Is... is this my father's work. Gendo then appears above behind a glass wall. Gendo: That is correct. It's been some time hasn't it. Shinji: Why am I here. Gendo: It's what Ms. Katsuragi has told you. You are the third child and are the designated pilot of unit 1. Shinji: This... this is why you sent for me. To be a pilot of this thing. Gendo: Correct. Shinji: I CANT DO THIS. I WONT PILOT SOMETHING I NEVER SEEN BEFORE. THERE IS NO WAY I CAN. Gendo: You will be instructed. Shinji: Still. THERE'S NO WAY I CAN. Gendo: Shinji. You don't have to pilot it right now. You just have to when you have to. Shinji: No. I won't pilot it. Gendo: Are you sure? Maybe seeing another pilot in pain will change your mind. Fuyutsuki. Wake up Rei and have her brought here. Fuyutsuki: But sir. She hasn't recovered yet. It may be unwise to remove her. Gendo: Just do it. Fuyutsuki: Very well. Gendo: Do you see what I'm doing. I'm removing an injured girl just so you can change your mind about piloting. You better agree or you can leave. Moments later a stretcher is brought out with an injured girl on it with some medical techs. They stop the stretcher by Shinji. Shinji looks at the girl in bandages. Misato comes over. Misato: Do you see Shinji. This girl will have to pilot unit 1 if you won't. If you don't, this girl is gonna suffer. Do you want that. Shinji looks at Misato. Shinji: No, I don't want her to suffer like this. I'll do it. I'll pilot it. Gendo: Very well. When the time comes, you will pilot unit 1 in battle along with a fellow pilot in unit 4. Shinji: Do you mean this girl. Gendo: Hmph. This girl will be your other fellow pilot. The pilot I'm referring to is a boy like you. He pilots unit 4. Don't worry. You'll meet him soon enough. As for now, you will come in for a test with unit 1 tomorrow to see if you can synch with it. You may now leave. Gendo then leaves as do the medical techs with the girl. Misato: Let's leave too Shinji. Shinji nods. Both people leave. Now in her car Misato asks Shinji if he wants to meet the pilot of unit 4 and he does so Misato suggests they have a dinner party. Misato: Great. We'll have a dinner party tomorrow after your test is done. But you won't have to wait to meet the pilot of unit 4 because he's coming in to test unit 4 and to see if he too can synch with it. Shinji: Do you know what his name is. Misato: Yes. His name is Justin and he's from America. He pilots unit 4 but from my understanding he had to pilot unit 1 because unit 4 wasn't ready. The car continues through Tokyo 3. At Ritsuko's house, Ritsuko is upstairs in their room while Justin is downstairs on the couch. The memories of the battle with the angel comes back. Justin: I remember now. That battle with the angel. Unit 1 going berserk. I remember how it was beating me up and how unit 1 refused to move. It was then that I passed out and my angel side took over. My eyes lit up and so did unit 1's. It then went out of control and charged at the angel. We both roared like wild animals. Then when the angel was almost beaten, my angel side used the same laser trick as Sachiel did and unit 1's eyes twinkled. Then a giant cross appeared from the explosion and when it was over, the angel was gone. The unit's eyes went back to normal as so did mine. Then I woke up and couldn't remember anything. (sighs) I hope no one knew about my angel side taking over. If they find out now, all will soon be lost. Not knowing, Ritsuko was listening from the stairs. She heard everything. Ritsuko: I knew it. He is an angel. Looks like he might only become a full angel when all of them has been beat. But how did he know sachiels name. That must be part of being an angel. Knowing what the angels names are and he might even know when they will attack. This kind of info could help. But i wont tell anyone. It's his secret. If they find out, he'll be destroyed. I wont let that happened. Ritsuko smiles and goes upstairs. Has justin's idenity been blown. To be continued.

It is now morning in Ritsuko's house. Ritsuko wakes up to see someone not in the bed with her. She gets up and goes to put her white robe on which looks like her lab coat. She then exits the room and goes downstairs into the living room to see Justin asleep on the couch. Ritsuko: (thinking) I wonder if you slept down here because you knew I was listening to what you were saying yesterday. Don't worry. I won't tell. But we do need to talk about it. Ritsuko then goes over to the couch to see Justin is fast asleep but he has nothing to cover him up so she decides to take off her robe and puts it over Justin to warm him up. Ritsuko: (thinks to herself) I'll let you sleep a little longer. Then you need to get up so we can talk. Ritsuko was about to leave when Justin wakes up yawning. Justin: Good morning Ritsuko. He then looks down to see a white robe was put over him. He then looks at Ritsuko. Justin: Did you put this over me when I was sleeping. Ritsuko: Well, yes. But I would not have had to if you've slept upstairs with me like you were supposed to. Justin: Yeah, well I had my reasons. Ritsuko: Like how you're an angel. Justin is stunned. Ritsuko: I heard everything you said yesterday. Did you think I didn't. I know why Unit 1 went berserk and how your blood type was blue. You are an angel. Justin: All right. Look. You've got to keep quiet about this. If the others especially Commander Ikari were to find out. I'd be dead. I'm not supposed to reveal myself as an angel yet. If I tell you, will you promise and I mean promise to keep this between us. You can't tell. Ritsuko: Yes. I promise. Justin: All right. I'm an angel known as Ralile, the angel of destruction. I'm the 19th angel. I'm only supposed to reveal myself when all 17 angels are beaten. When that happens, I will reveal myself and can only be beaten with all EvAs. That's also why Unit 1 went berserk. My angel side came out and helped. Can you absolutely keep this a secret. Please keep this between us. Ritsuko: Don't worry. This is our secret. Justin: Thanks. But just to make sure you don't remember this. A flash of light appears for a second and then fades. Justin: (thinks to himself) Sorry but can't take the chance. I've wiped out the conversation we had so you couldn't remember. Ritsuko: What happened. Justin: You just spaced out is all. Ritsuko: Really. Oh well. You should get dressed. You got to go in to try and synch with Unit 4. Justin: You mean Unit 4 is done. Ritsuko: Yes. Now go get dressed. Justin gets up and heads upstairs to their room and grabs some clothes from his bag and shuts the door. A few minutes later the door opens and Justin comes out with clean clothes on. Justin then goes downstairs. Justin: Ritsuko. You can get dressed now. Ritsuko: All right. Thanks. She then goes up to their room and quickly changes and comes back down. Justin: Holy. That was fast. Ritsuko: Thanks but let's go now. Justin: Okay. They both leave the house with Ritsuko locking the house. Then they both head for her car and get in. Ritsuko starts the car up and drives straight towards the city. At Misato's apartment however. Shinji: (yelling from the kitchen) Come on Miss Misato. We'll be late. Misato. Shinji gives up and goes to Misato's room. He opens the door and finds Misato still asleep. Shinji: MISATO. TIME TO GET UP. Misato instantly wakes up to see Shinji there yelling. Misato: I'm up. I'm up. Shinji: Miss Misato you have to hurry. We'll be late for the testing. Misato: What? Ohh shoot. Your right. I have to get dressed. Shinji leaves closing the door so Misato can get dressed. A few minutes later Misato comes out in her black dress and red jacket on. Misato: Come on Shinji. We need to hurry. Shinji nods. They both head out the door. They get to her car and they both get in. Misato inserts the key to start up the car and takes off. She now rushes through traffic downtown on her way to NERV. Shinji: You know Miss Misato. We wouldn't have to hurry if you've gotten up earlier. Misato: No kidding Shinji. The car continues downtown while avoiding traffic. Now in another car. Ritsuko: Nervous about your test with Unit 4. Justin: No. I did something like this in the first branch of NERV in Massachusetts. It was when I was chosen as the pilot. We did an activation test with Unit 4 and it activated so I should be fine. But I never did synch with it. It only activated. So, I'm hoping I can synch with

it. Ritsuko: You should be able too. Justin: Yes. I suppose your right. The car continues now downtown Tokyo 3. A few minutes later they arrive at NERV HQ. Ritsuko parks the car and they both get out. Then they both walk towards the entrance of the building. They enter and are in a room with 7 closed garage like doors with numbers 00-07 on them. Ritsuko then leads Justin to the 04 door because he is actually the 4th child. She then takes a card out of her purse and gives it to Justin. Justin: What's this? Ritsuko: This is your security card. You use it to open the door here and to prove you belong here at NERV. Justin: Ookay. How do I use it. Ritsuko: See the thing to your right. Justin nods. Ritsuko: What you do is slide the card through and it opens the door in front. Go ahead and try. Justin slides the card through like she said and he hears a ding noise indicating it was correct. Then the door in front opens. Ritsuko leads Justin inside and finds that there is an escalator. They go down on the one going down. On the way down Justin decides to ask Ritsuko what unit 4 looks like. Justin: So, what does unit 4 look like. I never got to see it besides the one that the first branch had. I'm just wondering if it's the same one. Ritsuko: You'll have to see. Then they arrive at the bottom floor. They continue to the door and go through. Then they go through this long hallway before they make to the command center. Now in the command center. Gendo: Ritsuko. You finally made it. Is the child here as well. Ritsuko: Yes sir. Gendo: Good. Bring him to the locker area and give him his plug suit. Once that's done, we wait till Ms. Katsuragi arrives before we begin the activation test for unit 4. Ritsuko: Understood. Justin. Come with me. Justin nods so he follows Ritsuko. In the hallway. Justin: Ritsuko. What did Commander Ikari mean by activation test. I thought we were doing a synch test. Ritsuko: We will. But not now. The unit 4 your gonna be piloting is different then the one in the first branch. So we need to see if it will activate or not. Justin: So it is a different one then. I understand. They now arrive at the locker room where Ritsuko shows Justin in. Ritsuko: Justin. This locker room is where you'll be changing into your plug suit and back. Your plug suit is here as well. It should be in the first locker on your right. Go and make sure it is. Justin goes to check the locker and she's right. It is in there. He grabs it. Justin: So, this is my plug suit huh. Ritsuko: Yes. But before you put it on, you must take all of your clothes off and then put it on. It won't fit if you have your clothes on and it won't interfere. Justin: All right. Ritsuko: Good. I'll wait outside till you changed. Ritsuko then leaves. Justin stares at his plug suit which is black and red. His neuron clips are white. Justin: Guess I better put it on. He goes and sits down on a bench by the first locker. He takes all his clothes off and puts the plug suit on. He also puts the neuron clips in his hair. Justin: Huh. It doesn't fit. Oh well. Better get going now. He leaves the locker room to see Ritsuko waiting. Ritsuko: Good. Your done. Before we go, press your wrist button on your right wrist. Justin: Why? Ritsuko: Just do it. Justin: Ok. He presses the button and his plug suit tightens. Justin: It's a little tight. Ritsuko: That's alright. Your get used to it. Now come on. Lets get back to the command room. Justin nods. They go back to the command room. Still zooming through Tokyo 3. Shinji: Misato. You have to hurry. Misato: I'm going as fast as I can. She then turns right at a red light and almost collided with a car. Misato: (yelling) Move jackass. She then presses the gas pedal harder making the car go faster. A few minutes later they arrive at NERV. She parks the car and they both get out. Misato: There. Now come on Shinji. We have to hurry. Shinji follows Misato in. Gendo: Good. The child is in his plug suit. Now bring him to the EVA cage and have him inserted in unit 4. Justin: That's ok. I know where the EVA cage is. Gendo: Very well. Justin leaves and finds the elevator. He enters it and presses the button for the EVA cage. It goes down and arrives at the EVA cage. He steps out and walks along the bridge by the cooling pool. He finds unit 4 at the end. Justin is shocked to see it resembling unit 1. It is a silver grey color. It has red eyes. After, he heads off. Moments later he is inside the entry plug. Gendo: The child is in the entry plug. Then they hear the doors opening and Misato rushes in. Misato: Sorry I'm late. Has it started yet. Ritsuko: No. But it will now. Insert the entry plug. Maya: Roger. Inserting entry plug. We see the entry plug being inserted in the neck of unit 4. Maya: Entry plug inserted. Ritsuko: Good. Now start the startup sequence. Maya: Startup sequence starting. Inside the entry plug, Justin notices the same lights go by as in unit 1. Then it gets filled up with LCL:Justin:(thinking)I'll never get used to this.Makoto:LCL has filled up.Ritsuko:Good.Now start up the interface.Maya:Interface starting up.Then something happens.Maya:The interface wont start up.Ritsuko:What?Try again.Maya:Roger.It still wont start up.Ritsuko:Justin.Can you hear me.Justin.JUSTIN.Shigeru:There's no response from the pilot.Maya:Abnormal conditions happening in unit 4.Ritsuko:What's going on.To be continued.

12 - Testing part 2

Now continuing from part 1. Ritsuko: Disconnect all the nerv endings off. Maya: Yes ma'am. The nerv endings wont disconnect. Ritsuko: What do you mean they wont disconnect. Shigeru: Unit 4 is attempting to rip out of it's restraints. Ritsuko: What? We then see unit 4 attempting to rip out of the restraints. Unit 4 lets out a roar. Unit 4 then finally rips out of the restraints. Makoto: UNIT 4 HAS RIPPED OUT THE RESTRAINTS. Ritsuko: No. It's going berserk. Misato: Eject the entry plug now. Get him out. Maya: Yes ma'am. The signal's being refused. We cant eject it. Misato: What. Unit 4 then roars again and starts leaving. Makoto: Unit 4 is attempting to leave. Misato: Stop it. Maya: We cant. We have no way. Gendo: Yes we do. Launch unit 1. Misato: Unit 1? But we cant. Gendo: We have to now. Stopping unit 4 is top priority now. Misato: Yes sir. Shinji. Shinji is in the locker room in his plug suit. Shinji: Yes. Misato: The synch test will have to wait. We need to launch you in unit 1 to stop unit 4. Shinji: Unit 4? But isnt there a pilot in there. Misato: Yes. But we need you to stop it so we can rescue him. Unit 4 went bersek. Shinji: Yes ma'am. Shinji leaves the locker room. Back in the command room. Ritsuko: Where is unit 4 now. Makoto: Unit 4 is heading up to the city above. Maya: Correction. It's now in the city. Misato: Is unit 1 ready yet. We need to stop unit 4 from destroying the city. Shigeru: The pilot is now in the entry plug. Misato: Good. Insert the entry plug. Maya: Roger. Entry plug being inserted. We see the entry plug being inserted in the back of unit 1. Inside the entry plug. Shinji: (He looks down to see a fluid rising.) What is this stuff. The fluid goes over his head. He is now holding his breath while it goes up. Ritsuko: Relax. It's LCL. It'll oxyinate your blood. You get used to it. Shinji: I'm gonna be sick. Misato: Quit complaining. We got to stop unit 4. Maya: Now starting up the interface. Ritsuko: Good. Have it reconfigured for japanese. Maya: Roger. Interface started up. Ritsuko: Connect the nerv connections. Maya: Roger. Now connecting the nerv connections. Heart rate is normal. I detect no problems. Ritsuko: Good. Now release primary lock bolts and secondary lock bolts. NERV tech: Now releasing lock bolts. Lock bolts released. Maya: Now moving unit 1 to the launch pad. We see unit 1 being moved to the launch pad. Maya: Unit 1 is on the launch pad. All systems are green as well. Ritsuko: Understood. Misato. Misato: Right. Launch EVA. Unit 1 is shot up through the hole. Meanwhile unit 4 is going through town roaring like an animal. Unit 4 then wrecks a building by pounding it with it's arms. It then jumps in the air and lands causing a crack to form on the street. Unit 4 then starts leaving when unit 1 appears. After being launched, shinji can see unit 4 looking at it. Unit 4 then charges at unit 1 running at full speed. Before shinji could do anything unit 1 gets knocked on the ground. Misato: (over the comm link) Shinji. You have to get up. You have to stop unit 4 and save justin. Shinji: I'll try. Ritsuko: Misato. He should concentrate on walking before trying to fight back. Misato: I know that. But how's he gonna do that if he cant get up. Ritsuko: You're right. Hows the pilot of unit 4? Maya: Still no response. Ritsuko: I see. (thinks to herself) I hope he's allright. This test wasnt a good idea. Unit 1 manages to get up but not before unit 4 grabing it by the neck. Unit 4 then tries to break unit 1's neck. Shinji is feeling the pain as the eva does. Shinji: My neck. He has his hands on his neck. Misato: Calm down. It's not you neck. You're fine. Unit 4 then let's go and tosses unit 1 across the street crashing into buildings. Unit 4 then charges at unit 1 making it crash into more buildings. Unit 4 backs up and starts pounding unit 1's chest plate. It keeps pounding and pounding untill it stops. Unit 1's eyes start glowing. Maya: Something's happening in unit 1. Nerv connections are disconnecting. Ritsuko: What. Dont tell me it's going to go bersek too. Misato: What? What about shinji. Makoto: He's unconscious. But he's still alive. Then unit 1 let's out a roar much like unit 4 was doing. Then unit 1 charges at unit 4. Maya: Unit 1 was unactive. Now it activated itself. Unit 4 tries to block unit 1 but unit 1 grabs unit 4's arms and tosses it. Unit 1 then jumps and pounds unit 4's chest with it's foot. Unit 4 lifts up unit 1 with it's arms and tosses it. Unit 4 then gets up and charges at it. Unit 4 keeps charging but unit 1 grabs unit 4 by the neck and breaks it. Unit 4 let's out one final roar before it goes silent. Unit 1 drops unit 4 and starts pounding on it. It breaks it's arms causing blood to spur everywhere. Unit 1 lets out a roar of victory and goes silent. Ritsuko: Unit 1 has stopped. Misato: What about unit 4. Maya: Unit 4 has stopped as well. The pilot of unit 1 is fine. But as for unit 4, life signs show negative for him. Misato: WHAT. NO JUSTIN. GET A FRACKING RESCUE TEAM OUT THERE. NOW. Makoto: Yes ma'am. Moments later a rescue team is out by the evas. Ritsuko: Eject both entry plugs. Maya: Yes ma'am. We see both entry plugs were ejected. Maya: Entry plugs ejected. The rescue team goes over to unit 1 and opens the entry plug. They pull out shinji and he's fine. Now they go over to unit 4 and opens it's entry plug. They pull justin out unconscious. They put him on the stretcher and takes him to the hospital. Back in the command room. Ritsuko: Thank god justin and shinji are allright. Right misato. Misato: Yes. I'm going to visit justin in the hospital. I'll see you later. She then leaves. Shinji is now in the locker room changing out of his plug suit and into his clothes. He puts his suit in a locker and leaves. When he leaves he see's misato coming. Misato: Shinji. Your allright. Shinji: Yeah. Misato: Thank goodness. Shinji: How's justin. Misato: He's at the hospital and i'm going to see him. Want to come? Shinji: Sure. They both leave. To be continued.

13 - New angel

Now in the hospital because of the unit 4 testing going wrong. Justin wakes up to see he's in the same room as before. Justin: What happened. Why am i here again. He turns and see's misato sitting next to his bed in a chair. Misato: Well, how are you this morning. Justin: I'm fine. Isn't shinji here too. Misato: Yes but he's outside. Justin: Oh, alright. Why did you come. Misato: Why? Because i was worried about you when unit 4 went berserk. Justin: Unit...4? Misato: You dont remember about it do you. Justin: No. Could you tell me. Misato: I'd be glad too. You see, you are the pilot of evangelion unit 4. The 4th child. You were brought in to test it. The moment you went in, unit 4 went out of control. It went berserk and escaped to the city. You were unconscious when it did. Shinji and unit 1 managed to stop it and saved you. I was very worried and thought i lost you. Justin: What about ritsuko. She's my guardian aint she. How come she isn't here. Misato: She and the other NERV techs are working on unit 4. They'll gonna try and see why it went berserk and hopefully fix it so you can pilot it. Justin: I guess that makes sense he says sadly. In the eva cage. Ritsuko: Have we found out why unit 4 went berserk. Maya: No. There are too many possibilities. Ritsuko: Well, what did the MAGI think. Maya: The MAGI dont want to say. Ritsuko: Hmm. Fine. It'll have to stay frozen till we find out. Maya: Yes ma'am. In the command room. Fuyutsuki: Ikari. It would seem the unit 4 we got from the first branch is a prototype. It isn't the one we wanted is it. Gendo: Of course it's not. But it would seem it's more important to us now then the one they are planning on building. We'll make do with this one. Makoto: Commander. An unknown object is coming this way. Fuyutsuki: What. Is it the 4th angel. Makoto: Negative. We dont know yet. Gendo: Very well. Notify us when it's closer. Makoto: Understood. Wait. The object is here already. It's blood type is blue. It's confirmed. It's an angel. Gendo: Very well. Put everybody on stage 1 alert. Contact captain katuragi and prepare unit 1. Makoto: Yes sir. At the hospital in justin's room. Misato's cell phone goes off. (Ring, Ring). She gets her cell phone out and answers it. Misato: Hello. Makoto: Captain. An angel has arrived. It's coming towards NERV HQ. Is shinji there with you. Misato: Yes. But what about justin. Makoto: Unit 4 isn't repaired yet. Bring shinji with you to NERV. Unit 1 is gonna be launched. Misato: Understood. She shuts her cell phone off. Misato: Justin. An angel is attacking. Me and shinji need to leave ok. Justin: Well, i'm coming too. He tries to get up but misato wont let him. Misato: You cant. Your not ready yet. And unit 4 isn't repaired. Justin: But i can still help. Let me come. I can tell you about this angel. Misato: You have info on the angels. Justin: Yes. I even know when they will attack and how to beat them. Misato: I'm not sure. But i suppose you can come. Justin: Good. Justin gets out of bed and misato helps him walk. Misato: Are you sure you can make it. Justin: Yes. Now let's go. They both leave the room and find shinji is still waiting. Misato tells shinji about the situation and he follows them. At NERV HQ. Shigeru: The object is directly above. Maya: It's AT field isn't up yet. Gendo: Good. But why isn't it attacking. Fuyutsuki: Maybe it's waiting for an eva to show so it can battle. Gendo: That seems unlikely but still possible. The object then fires a laser beam making three explosions in a row. Makoto: The object is now attacking. Shigeru: It looks like it's growing tentacles out of it's sides. Maya: The object is now starting a drilling process. Fuyutsuki: It would seem it's gonna attack us directly. Gendo: It would appear your wrong fuyutsuki about the angel waiting. It seems it wont wait. Maya: Sir. We can see the core of the angel. Fuyutsuki: Well, that's not surprising. Maya: But sir. The angels body is like a crystal. You can see through it along with the core. I'm guessing it wont be easy to break through. Gendo: It would seem so. Now arriving at NERV. Misato takes justin into the command center while shinji goes and gets his plug suit on. Ritsuko: Well, looks like your late again captain. Misato: Sorry. Ritsuko: Captain. Why is justin out of the hospital. He should still be there. Misato: I know. But he said he knows something about this angel. Ritsuko: What. That's impossible. No one knows anything about the angels. How would he know. Misato: Justin. Tell her. Justin nods. Justin: The angel you are facing isn't the 4th one. It's an angel that appears randomly. It appears whenever it wants. It's a crystal angel or an angel made of crystal. You can see through its body. You can also see its core. But getting near it is difficult. It automatically locks on to anything in its area. In addition to that, it can fire laser blasts to spots where you will appear at. In other words, it knows which spot you will go to and it will fire at the spot as soon as you get there. Its AT field is very weak but that doesn't mean it isn't there. You still need to break through it. But because of that, it can grow stronger. If it gets away without any damage to it, its attacks will be even more difficult to avoid. If it gets away with damage, its AT field will grow stronger and harder to penetrate. So, you see. You must kill this angel now. If you don't, it'll come back stronger. It might even come when another angel is here. Also, its crystal body is hard to break through. It takes a total of 5 attacks from an EVA, 10 missiles and other machines to break through. Once its body is exposed, it'll fire a strong energy beam from its core. You must be quick about destroying its core. If it hits you with its core energy, you'll take a lot of damage. Also, it'll self-destruct if it needs to. So, you need to quickly destroy its AT field and attack the angel when you have the chance. Understand. Ritsuko: Yes, I suppose. But I still don't understand how you know about it. Justin: Well, I have my ways. But that's not important right now. What's important is destroying this angel now before it escapes or comes here. Misato: It's like he said. Destroying this angel now is important. Is unit 1 ready yet. Maya: No. Not yet. We are just now inserting the entry plug. We see the entry plug being inserted in the neck of unit 1. Maya: Entry plug inserted. Ritsuko: Good. Start up the interface. Maya: Roger. Now starting up the interface. Interface now up. Ritsuko: Remove primary lock bolts. Maya: Roger. Primary lock bolts being released. Lock bolts released. Ritsuko: Remove the secondary and third lock bolts. Maya: Now removing second and third lock bolts. Lock bolts released. Now moving unit 1 to the launch pad. Unit 1 is now being moved to the launch pad. Maya: Path is green. Misato: I understand. Launch EVA. The EVA is launched and arrives in the city. Shinji can see the angel still drilling underground but can only see the top. Misato: How's the target. Makoto: The target is progressing slowly. We have plenty of time before it arrives here. Misato: Good. Shinji. Neutralize the enemy's AT field and quickly attack it. Understand. Shinji: Yes, ma'am. Unit 1 then starts walking towards the target. The target stops drilling and comes out of the ground. Unit 1 is staring at the crystal-like angel. The angel shoots a laser beam at unit 1 but it dodged it. Unit 1 charges at the angel but the angel grabs it with its tentacles and tosses it on the ground. Shinji: Owww. You bastard. Unit 1 gets up and charges at the angel again but the angel grabs unit 1 again and spins it around. It then tosses unit 1 across the city. Misato: Justin. You never said anything about it having tentacles. Justin: Well, I didn't know it could grow them. But I do know that if they get cut off, it can regenerate them again. So it's not really worth it trying to cut them off. Misato: What's the status of its AT field. Shigeru: It's still up. The angel then moves closer to unit 1 and prepares to fire a laser attack but unit 1 gets up and rips through its AT field. It then has the progressive knife pulled out and stabs the angel in the center. It doesn't go through. Justin: Shinji. It's me. Shinji: Yes. Justin: You won't be able to get through its body that way. You must try another method. Shinji: All right. But then the angel breaks free and fires a laser blast and knocks unit 1 down. It then floats away. Maya: The target left. Justin: What. Ahh, damn it. It got away. That's why you have to be fast. Well, no matter. It'll come again. And this time it's gonna get beaten. Misato: (sighs) The angel ran away. Shinji. Come back. Shinji: Yes, ma'am. Unit 1 gets up and goes to where it was launched and it goes back down. In the locker room, Shinji changes out of his plug suit and into his clothes. He puts the suit away and leaves the locker room. In the command room. Gendo: Justin. Would you come here for a second. Justin: Yes, sir. Justin goes over. Justin: Yes, sir. Gendo: How did you know about this angel. Justin: Umm, a lucky guess. Gendo: Very well. But you seem to know about them. You will keep me posted, understand. Justin: Yes, sir. Gendo: Good. You're excused. Justin: Yes, sir. Justin then leaves the command room. Fuyutsuki: It would seem he's not telling the truth. Gendo: Of course. But we'll let him be for now. When he reveals himself as an angel, that's when we will strike. Fuyutsuki: Very well. Justin is now leaving the command center. Justin: (thinks to himself) I might be in trouble. I suspect Commander Ikari knows who I really am. But when the time comes, he won't be alive anymore. Ha, ha, ha. To be continued.

14 - Her desire.

Justin is now at the house he and Ritsuko share. Justin is sitting on the couch and sees Ritsuko sitting down next to him. Ritsuko: So, how do you exactly know about that angel that appeared today. Justin: Is that why you sat next to me. To find out how I know. (Sighs) Alright. The reason I know is when I was at the first branch of NERV, the commander there told me about that angel. He told me this before I left for here. He told me that this angel would attack and it flees whenever it can. He also said that it has the ability to appear whenever it chooses. So that's why you have to destroy when it attacks otherwise it comes back stronger. After that, I asked the commander how he knew and he said it isn't my business to know. He just said I have to look out for it and tell you guys about it. So, that's how I know. Ritsuko: I see. Justin: Is that all you wanted or are you just talking to me to find things out. Ritsuko: I just wanted to know that one thing is all. Justin: Oh alright. Ritsuko: So, you do plan on sleeping upstairs with me don't you. Justin: I'll see. Ritsuko: No you won't. You will. As your guardian, you have to do as I say. Justin: I know that. Ritsuko: Hmm. You know. Unit 4 is gonna be released out of its frozen state tomorrow. Justin: Is it really. But I thought you don't want it to because of what happened. Ritsuko: I don't. But it might help us figure it out. Justin: So, I have to pilot it right. Ritsuko: Of course. You're the pilot of it. Justin: So, you're just using me to figure unit 4 out right. You don't really care what happens to me do you. Ritsuko: Is that what you think. Because you're right. I am just using you to find out about unit 4 but that doesn't mean I don't care about you. I am your guardian aren't I. Justin: If that was true, then you would've visited me when I was in the hospital. That's what a guardian's typically do. Ritsuko: Fine. You're right. I don't care about you. I was just ordered to be your guardian because Misato wasn't there. I will use you however I want. If it's about unit 4, then I will. I'm your guardian and I can use you. You can't do anything about it. Justin: That's what you think. I'm gonna ask the commander tomorrow when I go in for testing to see if Misato will be my guardian because obviously you aren't doing a good job. She cares about me more than you do. You're just using me anyway. Ritsuko: (seductively) You know. I'm not just gonna use you to figure out unit 4. Her hand goes on Justin's leg and moves it over to his private area. I'm gonna use you in bed too. Justin: You think so. After all this, you think I'm gonna sleep with you. You're wrong. I'm not gonna fall for what you're doing now. Ritsuko: Oh, is that so. She gets up and goes to sit in Justin's lap and faces him. Justin: If you don't think I mean it, I'll but his words are cut off as Ritsuko kisses him hard and passively. Justin tries to move but is unable to because she now has her hands around him. Justin breaks the kiss. Justin: Will you stop. If you are my guardian, then you shouldn't be doing this. You must think if you do this, I won't ask the commander tomorrow right. Well, I'm still gonna. He moves Ritsuko off him and tries to get up but Ritsuko pushes him back down and she gets back on him. Ritsuko: You're right. I'm doing this so you won't tell the commander. But it still doesn't mean that's why I'm doing this. She pushes him down on the couch. She starts taking her lab coat off. Then she removes her blue shirt. She gets off and takes her shoes off then her black shorts. She is now in her bra and panties. She goes over to Justin and starts taking his shirt off and his pants. She then removes his underwear making him completely nude. She then takes her panties off and removes her bra showing her breasts. She then climbs back on Justin and positions herself over him. She then starts moving and moving. Then she moves faster making his nectar come out entering her. She moans and moans. Justin just stares at what she is doing. Justin: (thinks to himself) What the hell is she doing. She's my guardian. She shouldn't be doing this. I have to get Misato to be my guardian. She has to be better at it than she is. After, Ritsuko is done and presses her breasts against his bare chest making him blush. She then kisses Justin for the remainder of the day. It's now night and Justin fell asleep. Ritsuko gets off and gets her clothes back on. She goes upstairs to her room and thinks. Ritsuko: (thinking to herself) Boy he is good. Even if he didn't do anything. There is no way I can let Misato be his guardian and let her have him. She then goes and lays on her bed. She falls asleep. In Misato's apartment. Shinji and Misato are sitting at the table. Shinji: Umm, Misato. Were we supposed to have a dinner party or something tonight. Misato: Hmm. Oh yeah. We were. But after what happened, I decided not to. Shinji: Ohh, alright. Well, I'm going to bed now. Good night Misato. He gets up and goes to his room and closes the door. Misato: Good night Shinji. She then gets up and goes to her room and goes to bed. At NERV HQ. Gendo: Fuyutsuki. Fuyutsuki: Yes sir. Gendo: We have a conference tomorrow. You do have to remember. Fuyutsuki: Of course I'll remember. I hope an angel doesn't attack while we are gone. Gendo: Don't worry. Captain Katsuragi and others will have everything under control. Don't worry. Now it's morning at Ritsuko's house and Justin wakes up. Justin: What the hell did I do last night. Ohh, I remember. Ritsuko had sex with me or tried to. She must have a desire for sex and doesn't care who she has it with even if it's someone that she's a guardian of. If it's gonna be like this, then I better move out. He hears foot steps coming from the stairs and Ritsuko appears dressed up. Ritsuko: Justin. You're supposed to get dressed. You have a test with Unit 4 today. Justin: Well, I could if someone didn't try to have sex with me last night. Ritsuko: (blushing) Well, either my desire for sex took over. I'm sorry for it. I'll ask Misato today if she will be your guardian. Justin: Ok. That's great. Ritsuko: Of course. Now get dressed. Justin: Right. He gets up and heads upstairs to Ritsuko's room and gets dressed in there. A few moments later he comes out dressed. He heads downstairs. Justin: I'm ready. Ritsuko: Good let's go. They both leave the house. Will Justin's test with Unit 4 go good this time or will it be like the first time. To be continued.

15 - Another roommate for misato

Now on there way to NERV in her black car. Justin: So, you havent figured out anything about unit 4 i'm taking. Ritsuko: Well, no. We didnt have enough time too. The MAGI know but wont say. Justin: Is that so. These MAGI you talk about. They must be pretty important to you guys. Ritsuko: They are. They help us in a lot of things. Justin: Interesting. So, if something happened to these MAGI, what would you guys do. Ritsuko: Oh i dont know. It never happened. And it probably never will. The black car then arrives outside of NERV. Both people get out and head inside. Justin opens the gate inside with his ID Card and they continue inside. Ritsuko: Justin. Go to the locker room and get suited up for your test. Justin: Yes ma'am. He heads off to the locker room. Ritsuko heads for the command room. She enters it. Misato: Hmm. She turns around. Looks like your the one late ritsuko. Ritsuko: How the hell. You actually came on time. Misato: Of course. Now shall we begin. Ritsuko: Right. Justin. Are you suited up yet. Justin from the locker room: No not yet. Ritsuko: Well, hurry up. Justin gets his clothes off and gets his plug suit on. He presses the right wrist switch and it tightens the suit up. He gets his neuron clips in too. He then leaves the locker room and heads for the elevator. He presses the button and gets in. He pushes the button for the eva cage and it goes down. The elevator arrives and he gets out. He walks towards unit 4. Moments later he gets inside the entry plug. Maya: Pilot is now in the entry plug. Ritsuko: Good. Insert it. Maya: Roger. Now inserting entry plug. We see the entry plug being inserted in the neck of unit 4. Maya: Entry plug now inserted. Now flooding it with LCL. The inside of the entry plug fills up with LCL. LCL now filled up. Ritsuko: Good. Start up the interface. Maya: Roger. Interface now starting up. Misato goes over too ritsuko and whispers in her ear. Misato: Are you sure this was a good idea to unfreeze unit 4. Ritsuko: Of course. We couldnt find out what happened so we will do it this way. Misato: Yeah but you know what happened before. What if it happens again. Ritsuko: It shouldnt. But even if it does, the pilots life isnt of importance as unit 4 is. Unit 4 is only important. The pilots life doesnt matter. Misato slaps ritsuko hard. Misato: (Angry) WHAT THE HELL DO YOU MEAN HIS LIFE ISNT IMPORTANT. YOUR HIS FRACKING GUARDIAN. IT SHOULD BE. Ritsuko: Well, i'm not his guardian anymore anyway. He wanted me to ask you if you will be his guardian for now on. Misato: Of course i will. You arent doing a good job anyway. I'll be happy too. His life is important too me. So is shinji's. Misato walks away. Maya: Interface has been started up. Ritsuko: Good. Now connect nerve connections. Maya: Yes ma'am. The monitor in front shows the nerve connections connecting. Maya: Nerve connections connected. Ritsuko: Good. How is he. Maya: His harmonics seem ok. So does his heart rate. No problems. Ritsuko: Good. How's his synch ratio. Maya: It's at 35%. Ritsuko: Wow impressive. So, unit 4 has activated succesful then. Maya: It would seem so. Ritsuko: Good. Justin. Can you hear me. From the inside the entry plug. Justin: Yes. Ritsuko: Unit 4 has activated succesfully. Justin: Really. Has it. Ritsuko: Yes. Justin: Good. Can i get out now. Ritsuko: Yes. Eject the entry plug now. Maya: Roger. Entry plug being ejected. We see the entry plug coming out. The top opens up and justin is brought out. He heads for the elevator. He presses the button and goes in. He pushes the button for the floor the locker room is on and it arrives there. He gets out and goes to the locker room. Inside he takes off his plug suit and puts it in the locker. He then gets his clothes out and puts them on. He takes off his neuron clips too before leaving and puts them in the locker. He then leaves and heads for the command center. He goes inside and goes towards ritsuko. Ritsuko: Justin. Good job. It looks like you get to pilot unit 4. Justin: Cool. So, did you ask misato yet. Ritsuko: Yes. And she agreed. Justin: Cool. Hey. What happened to your cheek? He see's a bruise on ritsuko's right cheek. Ritsuko: Oh, this. Well, um nothing. I just slamed it on something is all. Justin: Ok. He turns to misato. So, your my new guardian huh. Misato: Yes. You'll be living with me and shinji.Justin:Oh,cool.So,can we go now.Misato:Yes.Let's go.Misato and Justin both leave the command room.Justin:We are going to Ritsuko's house to get my things aren't we.Misato:Of course.They then leave NERV HQ.Misato leads Justin to her blue car.They both get in.She starts up the car and heads off to Ritsuko's house.At a conference with SEELE.SEELE 1:Mr Ikari.Why did you let a boy who isn't the designated pilot of Unit 1 pilot it.Gendo:Unit 4 wasn't ready so we had no choice.SEELE 2:Of course you didn't.You were messing with Unit 4.That boy must always pilot Unit 4.If he were to pilot another unit,he will be exposed as who he really is.SEELE 3:We also understand that because of this,he was exposed.Did anyone see it.Gendo:No.Of course not.They only thought Unit 1 went berserk because the pilot was in danger.They didn't realize that the boy's angel side took over and as a result of this,Unit 1 went berserk.SEELE 4:Good.But you must also realize that your only responsibility is the human instrumentality project.SEELE 5:Yes.We can't afford to lose anymore money.Time,money and man power.We can't afford to lose these things.You do understand that don't you.Gendo:Of course.SEELE 1:In any event.This project must be kept on as planned.SEELE 3:This project may be the only real hope for mankind.Do you understand.SEELE 1:Well,now that the angels' attacks are now known by the public,NERV must take steps to keep anymore from leaking out.You do know that there is no turning back now.Everyone but Gendo disappears.Gendo:Of course.Mankind has no time left.Now arrived at Ritsuko's place.Justin goes in and grabs his stuff and comes out a few seconds later.He gets back in the car and they take off.Misato:So,you must know why Ritsuko didn't want to be your guardian don't you.Justin:Of course.But I'm not gonna tell.Misato:Hmm.Your reason must be different than the one Ritsuko told me.Justin:What did she tell you.Misato:Well,when you were being inserted in Unit 4,I asked her if it was a good idea and she said it was but also said that if anything happened like last time,your life wasn't important.So I slapped her for it.Justin:You're the one who did that.Misato:Of course.It got me pissed when she said that.Everyone's life is important.Justin:Well,I expected her to say that.She didn't exactly care about me anyway so it works out.I just hope you're a better guardian than she was.Misato:Don't worry.I'm not as bad.They finally arrive at Misato's place.They both get out and head inside.They go up the stairs and head towards the door at the end.Misato:Well,here we are.She opens the door.This is your new home now.Justin:Hmm.Well,it looks better than Ritsuko's'.He steps inside after Misato does.Justin:So,where do I put my stuff.Misato:Out here by the futon.You'll be sleeping out here for a bit.Justin:Oh,ok.He goes and puts his stuff down.Justin:Hey.Where's Shinji.Misato:In his room.Justin:Oh,allright.He goes and sits on the futon.He lies down and falls asleep for the rest of the day and night.Misato:Come out and see if he's sleeping so she goes in her room and gets a blanket and covers him up with it.She goes to the fridge and grabs a beer and heads to her room for the night.To be continued.

It is now morning in misato's apartment and it's quiet. Justin wakes up and gets off the futon. He walks to the table and see's a note that says: Dear justin. Me and shinji had to go into NERV for his training with unit 1. We should be back sometime in the afternoon. If you want, you can come down. Anyway, we'll see you when we get back. P.S. There is instant food in the fridge. Help yourself. Love Misato. Justin: Hmm. So they went into NERV. I didnt hear them leave. Whatever. I'm alone till they get back so i might as well enjoy it. At NERV HQ. In the entry plug, shinji sits waiting. Ritsuko: Shinji. How are you this morning. Shinji: I'm fine. No problems. Ritsuko: Thats good. Have you memorized all emergency routes, access routes and emergency switches in the eva. Shinji: Yeah, i guess so. Ritsuko: Good but lets review. Normally the eva runs off of power provided by an umbilical cable. If that cable were to be cut off, the eva can run off it's internal battery. No more then 1 minute in full power mode and no less then 5 minutes in minimal life support mode. Do you understand. Shinji: Yes. Ritsuko: Good. Maya. Start up the stimulated battle program. Maya: Yes ma'am. The white room unit 1 is in changes to the city with sachiel. Unit 1 is holding a stimulated gun. Ritsuko: Shinji. Have the target in the center and pull the switch. Shinji has the target in the center and pulls the switch and the gun fires but it goes over the target. Ritsuko: Easy. Position the target in the center and pull the switch. He does so again and hits the target making it fall and exploding. The same thing happens over and over with the target being in a different location. Maya: Shinji is doing pretty well considering he never really faced an angel before but i wonder why he accepts doing it. Ritsuko: It would seem he just does what he's told to do but thats never a bad thing of course but still. Misato is watching this and is worried about shinji. Ritsuko: Misato. Why didnt you bring justin with. He needs to know about unit 4. Misato: I know. But he was sleeping and after yesterday, i thought it wasnt a good idea. You can do it another time cant you. Ritsuko: Possibly if an angel doesnt attack, if one attacks and cuts off unit 4's cable, justin wont know whats going on. You need to bring him down here in the afternoon so i can explain to him too. Misato: I will. Ritsuko: All right shinji. We're done. You can come out. The stimulator stops and unit 1 gets moved back to the cage. The entry plug ejects and shinji goes to the locker room to change. He changes out of his plug suit and changes into his regular clothes. He puts his plug suit in the locker and leaves. At misato's apartment, justin fixed some instant food and puts it on the table. He wonders how he's gonna eat it because it has chop sticks and he doesnt know how to use them. He picks up the chop sticks and tries to eat the rice but it keeps falling out so he tries eating the meat balls with it but they fall out too. Frustrated, he picks up the food and throws it right when misato enters the room and it hits her in the face. Justin turns to see misato covered in food and gets up slowly and backs up but misato wipes the food off her face with an angry look that could kill and she starts going towards justin. Justin stands there looking at her trying to figure out how too apologize but she gets to him first. She starts opening her mouth up but instead of yelling, she just tells him that it is frustrating. Misato: You know. It can be hard eating japanese food especially since you never ate it or had before right. Justin: Umm, yes. Uh sorry about throwing it at you. I didnt hear you come in. Misato: It's alright. You need to get dressed. Justin: Why? Misato: Because you need to go to NERV. Justin: (sighs) Alright. I'll get dressed. He goes and grabs some clothes out of his bag and changes behind the futon. Moments later he's dressed up. He goes back over to misato. Justin: Allright. Let's go. By the way, where's shinji. Misato: He went in his room. Come on. Lets go. Justin: Ok. He follows misato out the apartment. They get to her car and get in. She starts it up and takes off. They are now heading downtown tokyo 3. Moments later they arrive at NERV. She parks the car and they both get out. They then head inside. Justin opens the gate and they both continue. Before they go to the command room, Misato tells Justin to go get his plug suit on and he goes to the locker room. Misato then proceeds to the command room and goes inside. She sees Ritsuko standing there. She notices Misato and turns around. Ritsuko: So, did you bring him. Misato: Yes. Ritsuko: Good. Where is he. Misato: He's getting in his plug suit. Ritsuko: He doesn't have too. I just need to tell him about unit 4. He does fine. Shigeru. Shigeru: Yes ma'am. Ritsuko: Call down to the locker room and tell Justin not to get in his plug suit. Just tell him to come in here. Shigeru: Roger. He picks up the phone and dials the number for the locker room. In the locker room, Justin was about to get his plug suit on when he hears the phone rings and goes to answer it. He picks up the phone. Justin: Hello. Shigeru: It's me. Shigeru. You suppose to not get your plug suit. You suppose to just come in the command room. Justin: I understand. He then hangs the phone up. He goes and gets his clothes on and puts his plug suit in the locker and leaves. He goes to the command room and enters. Ritsuko notices him. He goes towards her. Ritsuko: So, you came did you. Good. Now you have to listen. Your Eva runs off of power supplied by an umbilical cable. If that cable were to ever be cut off, your Eva can run off it's internal battery. It can run a maximal of 5 minutes in full power and 10 minutes in minimal life support mode. Do you understand. Justin: Yes. Ritsuko: Good. You can leave now. He goes over to Misato and they both leave the command room. They now leave NERV HQ and get in her car. She starts up the car and takes off. To be continued.

After leaving NERV, Misato decides to take Justin to a look out point on the way back. They arrive and she parks the car. They both get out and walk towards the edge. Justin: WOW. So, this is what Tokyo 3 looks like from here. Misato: Yes. Isn't it something. From what I heard, you saved it with the battle with the third angel. Justin: Well, it wasn't really a big deal. I just did what I did. Misato: True. But you still saved it. And that's what counts. This city isn't just a city, it is also designed to stand up against the angels. It's a fortress. Justin just looks at her, then turns around. Misato: So, shall we leave now. Justin nods. They both get back to her car and get in. She starts it up and takes off. A few minutes later, they arrive back at the apartment. Misato goes to the fridge and grabs a beer and Justin goes and lies down on the futon. Misato then goes over to Justin and sits on the edge of the futon. She opens her beer and guzzles it down. Misato: So, excited about starting school tomorrow. Justin: Who? Me or Shinji. Misato: Both of you. Justin: But isn't it for Japanese kids. I can't read Japanese you know. Misato: I know. I'll teach you. We like to refer to our language as Kanji. Justin: Kanji huh. Ok. Somewhere a conference is being held by SEELE. SEELE 1: So, do we test our prototype mass production Eva now. SEELE 2: Yes. Let's see how it handles NERV's Eva's. SEELE Chairman: We also want to fight that angel boy in unit 4 and see what he can do. I'm sure he can use a challenge and he will never fight another Eva so we shall test it now. Elsewhere we see a jet flying over Tokyo 3 with the prototype mass production Eva being carried. The Eva starts coming out and we see a dummy plug being inserted in it. After, it falls out and lands right in downtown Tokyo 3. In NERV. Shigeru: Sir. An unknown object is coming. We can't tell if it's an angel or not. Gendo: Hmm. Very well. Inform me when it's closer. Shigeru: Yes sir. Fuyutsuki bends over to Gendo and whispers something in his ear. Fuyutsuki: It would seem the old men have sent their prototype mass produced Eva towards us. Gendo: It would seem so. They must know about that boy being an angel and they want him to fight it in unit 4. Makoto: The object has been confirmed. It's... it's... it's an EVA! It's an Eva. An Eva is coming. Gendo: Very good. Call Captain Katsuragi and tell her to bring the 4th child and third child as well. Makoto: Yes sir. At Misato's apartment. Misato's phone rings and Misato goes to answer it. Misato: Hello. Makoto: Captain Katsuragi. It's me. You need to bring the 4th and 3rd child down here. It's an emergency. Misato: Right. She hangs up the phone. Misato: Justin. Get dressed. It's an emergency. I'll get Shinji. Justin: Yes ma'am. Justin gets up and puts his shoes on. Misato goes to Shinji's room and opens it. Misato: Shinji. Get up. We need to go to NERV. Shinji: Yes ma'am. He gets up and comes out. Soon, both boys are ready and they follow Misato out. They get to her car and get in. She starts it up and takes off for NERV. On their way they can see the prototype mass produced Eva walking downtown. It's white all over. Its face has nothing but red lips on it. It has no eyes. Misato: What in the hell is that. Justin: (thinking to himself) I know. It's their prototype mass produced Eva. They must have sent it to fight me. I'll destroy it. It's too early for them to send one now. What were they thinking. If I'm exposed before I'm supposed to reveal myself, everything will go wrong. As he thinks this, the car continues to NERV. At NERV HQ command center. Maya: The Eva seems to be looking for something. It's not attacking. Gendo: Not yet it won't. Its opponent hasn't arrived yet. But do get units 1 and 4 ready. Maya: Yes sir. The blue car finally arrives at NERV. The people inside get out and head inside the building. Before going to the command room, Misato tells Shinji and Justin to go get suited up and get to their Evas. They do and head for the locker room. Misato goes in the command room. Misato: So what the hell is attacking. Is it that Eva we saw. Gendo: Correct. That Eva is here for unit 4. In the locker room, both boys get their plug suits on and leave the locker room and head for the elevator. They get in and go down to the Eva cages. They get out and head for their respective Evas. In the command room. Maya: Both pilots are in there entry plugs. Ritsuko: Good. Insert them. Maya: Roger. Both entry plugs get inserted in there evas. Maya: Entry plugs inserted. Ritsuko: Start up the interface. Maya: Right. The interface then starts up. Maya: Interface now up. Ritsuko: Connect their nerv circuits. Maya: Right. Now connecting nervs. Nervs connected. Ritsuko: There isnt any problems is there maya. Maya: No. Both pilots harmonics are fine as so is there heart rates. Justin's synch ratio is 42% and shinji's is 43/1%. Ritsuko: Wow. Impressive. Really. Now release lock bolts. Makoto: Lock bolts being released. Lock bolts released. Ritsuko: Release secondary and third lock bolts. Makoto: Roger. Lock bolts released. Maya: Eva's are being moved to the launch pad. We see unit 1 and 4 being moved to the launch pad. Maya: unit 1 and 4 are now on the launch pad. Misato: Right. Launch EVA'S. Both eva's get launched through the tunnel above them and appear at different spots. Unit 1 appearing In the north part of the city and unit 4 appearing near the Building for NERV. Also in the city, the mass produced eva is going through the city looking for it's prey when it spots unit 1. It just looks at it and continues. In the command room. Misato: Why didnt the eva go after unit 1. Is it going after unit 4. It must be. Shinji. Can you hear me. The commlink appears in unit 1's entry plug with misato's face on it. Shinji: Yes. Misato: Stop the eva before it gets to unit 4. Shinji: Right. The purple unit starts moving foward toward the eva. But the eva turns around and lunges at unit 1. Grabbing on to it with it's arms. Shinji: Let go you ugly excuse for an eva. He then has unit 1 grab the eva's arms and kicks it off. The eva gets knocked down but gets back up afterwards. It doesnt bother with unit 1 and just goes looking for unit 4. Meanwhile, Justin has unit 4 move looking for the eva. Misato appears on justin's commlink in the entry plug. Misato: Justin. Listen up. Stay where you are and let unit 1 take care of the eva. Justin: No. It came here for me and it's gonna have me. Have me beat it's @$$ in combat. He then closes the link and has unit 4 run. It keeps running till justin can see the mass produced eva from in unit 4. Justin: So, there you are. Looking for me huh. Well, you found me. He has unit 4 charge at the eva and before it could respond, it gets knocked to the ground. He then starts beating it with the unit's grey hands. The eva obviously isnt happy about this, so it kicks unit 4 off and pounces on top of it when unit 4 lands on the ground. The eva drools as it looks at the unit like a snack. It tries to bite unit 4 but it stops it with it's hands. It attempts to rip its head off but the eva let's go and pounds the unit with it's hands. Justin is feeling the pain the eva is feeling. But unit 4 grabs the eva's hands and rips one off causing it to spur blood everywhere. The eva growls and jumps off and changes it's hand into a knife. Unit 4 tries to get it's knife out but the eva stabs unit 4 in the chest. Everyone in the command room can hear the pain justin is feeling. Misato: Shinji. Go and assist unit 4 now. Shinji: Right. He has the purple unit run off and soon see's the eva stabling unit 4 in the chest. He has unit 1 jump up and lands on the eva's shoulders. He then pulls them off causing the eva to stop and moan in pain. Unit 4 then pulls out the progressive knife and cuts the eva's head off. The eva then falls. Motionless. In the command room. Everyone is celebrating that both unit's defeated the eva and that both are ok. Gendo however, just sits with his hands folded across with a smile on his lips. Gendo: SEELE sure isnt gonna like this. To be continued.

18 - Secrets

It is now after the battle with the eva. The two pilots are now in the locker room changing out of their plug suits and into their clothes. It's silent. But then again. It's always silent. After, the two boys leave and go to the command room where they wait for Misato. Misato is talking with Ritsuko. Misato: Do you know who sent that eva. Ritsuko: No. And the MAGI are not gonna tell us who did. Misato: I see. (Thinks to herself) Justin must know who did. It obviously came after him and he knew it would. He must know. But I won't ask him now. She then comes back and sees Justin and Shinji behind her. Misato: Oh, didn't see you guys come in. Good job. Both of you. Shinji and Justin: Thanks. Misato: So, shall we go. They both nod and all three leave. After, they arrive back at the apartment where Shinji goes to prepare supper as it's now night time. While Shinji prepares supper, Misato uses the moment to talk to Justin. Justin is sitting on the futon and Misato comes over and sits by him. She can tell he's troubled so she puts an arm over him. Misato: Is there anything wrong. Justin doesn't notice Misato sitting next to him and is surprised by her presence. Justin: Huh, oh hi Misato. No. Nothing's wrong. Misato: You sure. Justin: Well, no. Nothing's wrong. Misato: All right. (thinks to herself) Maybe now I should ask. I do need to know. Yeah I'll ask him now. She comes back. Misato: Hey Justin. Justin: Yes. Misato: Can I ask you something. Justin: Sure. Misato: How did you know about that eva and how it came after you. Justin: Um, well. It was a lucky guess. Misato: It couldn't have been. You knew. She looks more serious at him. Please. If it's something you don't want anyone else to know, you can tell me. I'll keep it between us. Justin: I can't. If you were to know now, let's just say I be dead. Misato: Is it something serious. Justin: Yes. Very serious. And that's why I can't tell you. Misato: You sure you won't tell. Justin: Yes. I'm not telling you and that's final. Misato looks sadly at him until Shinji announces dinner is ready. Moments later, they're all at the table. Justin doesn't touch his food and Misato is worried. But she eats her food and so does Shinji. Justin: May I be excused. He gets up and goes to the futon and lies down. Shinji looks at Misato. Shinji: What's wrong with him. Misato: Nothing. Shinji: Well, I'm finished. I'm going to bed now. Good night Misato. He gets up and puts his dish in the sink and goes to his room. Misato gets up and puts her dish in the sink and goes over to the futon to see Justin still awake. She wonders what's wrong and heads for her room. But Justin gets up and yells Misato's name. Hearing she goes over to Justin. Justin: You want the truth. I'll tell you. I'm an angel. An angel that's not supposed to be revealed till the 17th attacks. My actual name is Ralile, meaning angel of destruction. The only people that know who I am are Commander Ikari and SEELE. SEELE sent that eva after me to see if my angel side would take over. Luckily it didn't. But I've no doubt they won't stop till I do. They have no patience. Now do you see why I didn't want to tell you. If you found out, you tell everyone at NERV and order Shinji to kill me. I am after all, an angel. I'd understand if you want me out. No one would want an angel living with them. I'll move out now to save you the trouble. He goes and starts packing up his stuff when Misato comes over and grabs him by the shoulders with tears in her eyes making him stop. Misato: YOU ARE NOT MOVING OUT. I don't care if you're an angel. Having an angel on our side is a good thing. You can help us until you need to attack. Justin: (Crying) But Misato. I'm an angel. Why don't you just kill me now and get it over with. I'm not full angel now. I'm full human. But you should still kill me. Misato pulls him in a full hug with her arms around him crying too. Misato: So what. I'm not gonna kill you. You are helpful. Very. I won't tell anyone. I'm your guardian. It's my job to make sure you're safe. Same with Shinji. Do you understand. He doesn't respond. I said, DO YOU UNDERSTAND. Justin nods. He puts his arms around Misato and they hug each other for a while crying. After, Misato stops crying and helps Justin on to the futon. He lies down and Misato covers him up with a blanket. She kisses him on the forehead and heads for her room for the night. To be continued

19 - School day and angel attack

It is now morning and Justin is the first to get up. He hears a door opening and sees Shinji coming out. Justin: Good morning Shinji. Shinji: Good morning Justin. He goes into the kitchen to start breakfast. He puts some bread into the toaster and makes some coffee. Shinji: Hey Justin. Justin can hear Shinji from the kitchen. Justin: What. Shinji: Can you go and see if Misato's up yet? Justin: Oh, sure. He leaves the living room and goes to Misato's door. He opens it slowly and peeks inside to see Misato still sleeping. She has no blanket on, so she is just in her pajamas. Justin however, can see her boobs partly from her black bra she has on under her shirt. He starts blushing red but he decides to go wake her up. He goes over and starts shaking her but she still sleeps. He decides to yell. Justin: Time to get up Misato. She still won't wake up. So, he tries something else. Justin: Oh Misato. There's no more beer left. I dumped it into the sink. He realizes that he could be in danger because of what he just said. And what do you know, she wakes up mad. Misato: Did you really dump my beer away. Justin: No. Had to get you up somehow didn't I. He starts leaving but Misato gets up and grabs him by the waist. Misato: That wasn't nice you know. Justin: I know. But I had to get you up somehow. Misato: Well, that makes sense. Anyway, how do you feel after last night. Justin: You mean about what I told you. Misato: Yeah. Justin: I don't know if I can really trust you. I took a huge risk by letting you know. I really don't know if I can trust you. Misato lets go. Misato: Of course you can. I told you didn't I. Justin: Yeah but. Misato: No buts. Now go get dressed. You both start school today right. Or do I need to pull you into bed with me and show you I can be trusted. Justin: Allright. I'm going to go get dressed. He leaves but before he does. Misato: Today's Thursday isn't it. It's burnable trash day. Take it out back. Justin: What are you talking about. Misato: You know. Justin: I do?. Misato: Never mind. Tell Shinji. He knows what to do. Justin: Allright. He then leaves and closes the door. He gets dressed and tells Shinji about today and he takes the garbage out back. Then they walk to school together. A conference being held by SEELE. SEELE 1: It would seem our Eva has lost. SEELE 3: Of course. It's only the prototype. But that's not why. SEELE 5: Yes. It was because of Ikari. He had unit 1 fight as well. SEELE 2: Yes. We wanted unit 4 not unit 1 too. But it's still impressive how they beat it. SEELE 1: Of course. But the boy still proved to be strong even without his angel side. SEELE chairman: Now we must reconfigure our scenario because of Ikari. Both unit 1 and 4 shall help us with our project. Now walking to school. Justin: So, what do you think of Misato. Shinji: Hmm. Oh, she's fine I guess. A bit sloppy and lazy but still a good person. Justin: I agree. Shinji: So, your from America aren't you. Justin: Yes. Shinji: It must be nice there. Justin: Yes I suppose. But when I was chosen as the 4th child, it all changed. I can't even remember it much. Shinji: I know what you mean. I can't remember much about my past either. They finally arrive at the school and head inside to find their homerooms. Shinji and Justin are in the same room. They both sit next to each other. At the apartment, a sleepy Misato finally gets out of bed and out of her room. She immediately heads for the kitchen and grabs a beer. She opens it and starts gulping it down. She then hears the other fridge open and a penguin comes out. He goes over to Misato and she puts down her beer and picks up the penguin. Misato: Pen pen. I forgot to introduce you to Shinji and Justin. I will tonight. Then the phone rings and she puts down the bird and goes to grab the phone and answers it. Misato: Hello. On the other end of the phone. Ritsuko: Good morning Misato. Misato: Oh, it's you Ritsuko. Ritsuko: So, you getting along with them. Misato: Them who? Ritsuko: Shinji and Justin. Misato: I guess. Ritsuko: You will. So, you didn't try to seduce Justin did you. Misato: (mad) What. No. Ritsuko: Good. (thinks to herself) I'm the only one that gets too. She comes back out of her thoughts. They both started school today right. Misato: Yeah. Ritsuko: They should be able to make friends don't you think. Misato: Maybe. I don't know. Ritsuko: They will in time. Well, I got to go.Later.Misato:Yeah.Later.She hangs up the phone and picks up her beer and gulps the rest down.In the school.A kid is playing with a toy jet in the back of the room.Then a girl comes up to him.Hikari:Did you deliver the printouts i gave you.Kensuke:What.Um,there was no one home at toji's place.He puts the papers that are coming out of his desk and shoves them back in.Hikari:Mr.Aida.Arent you touji's friend.Are you at least a bit worried.Kensuke:You dont think he was injured in that robot fight do you.Hikari:You mean that battle in the city.The reports said no one was hurt.Kensuke:No way.People did get hurt.Rescuer's were scrambled on the mountain a bit from here trying to save them.At least 30 people were injured.But i'm sure toji wasnt one of them.Then a boy with green hair and a purple jacket comes in and goes by the two who are talking.Kensuke:Whoa.It's Toji.Hikari:Suzuhara.Toji:Where is everybody.Has our entire class vanish or what.Kensuke:It's probably because they dont want to stay or transfered to other schools since that last battle.Toji:Yeah.Your probably right.Your the only one i know that is enjoying this.Kensuke:Thats true.Speaking of which,why were you gone so long toji.Toji:My sister was injured in that battle.She was crushed under debris.Since then,i've been in the hospital with her.My father and grandfather dont have time because of there job.And if no one's there,she's alone.It's that pilots fault.He should of knew what he was doing.What a moron.He trashed our own city even.If i ever find him,he's gonna regret what he did.Kensuke:Speaking of the pilot.Did you hear the rumor about the two transfer students up front.Toji looks up front to see two boys.Toji:Yeah.But what does it got to do with them.Kensuke:Well,from what i've heard.They suppose to be pilots of those robots.One's from america.They both transfered in when you were gone and right after the battle.I starting to think it isnt a rumor.Right.Toji just looks at them then the teacher comes in and everyone stands then sits.The teacher just talks about second impact and what happened.Messages appear on justin's and shinji's computer asking if they are the pilots.Justin:What do you think.Should we tell.Shinji:Umm,i'm not sure.But there cant be any harm.They both type yes and everyone get's up and swarm around the two boys.Girl 1:Are you really the pilots.Justin and shinji:Yes.Girl 2:How you get picked.Girl 3:Were there any tests to take.Girl 4:What's the robots called.Girl 5:What's there ultimate attack mode.As both boys tell,kensuke is busy typing the info on his computer.Toji however isnt impressed.The bell rings and the teach dismisses the class.Outside,toji punches both boys.Toji:Sorry newcomers.Had to pop you one to work my anger off.Both boys get up.Toji starts leaving.Kensuke comes by.Kensuke:He's mean huh.His sister was injured the last time you fought.Well,thats his excused anyway.He then leaves.Rei ayanami comes over.Rei:There's an emergency.I'll report first.She then leaves and both boys get up.At NERV HQ.Misato arrives at the command room.Ritsuko:Your late.Misato:Sorry.Whats happening.Makoto:The mt fuji just detected it.It's pattern is confirmed blue.It's an angel.We now see Shamshel coming towards tokyo 3.Misato:The 4th angel finally comes.And commander ikari isnt here either.Makoto:The last time we had 15 years to prepare.This time,it's only been 3 weeks.Misato:They dont care when we're ready do they.That kind we women hate the most.In the locker room,both pilots get into there plug suits and head out.Now they're in the eva cage and head for there evas.Maya:Pilots have just entered the entry plugs.Ritsuko:Right.Insert the entry plugs.Maya:Roger.Now inserting entry plugs.Entry plugs inserted.Ritsuko:Start the interface up.Maya:Right.Now starting interface up.Interface has been started up.LCL has filled up too.Harmonics and pulses are normal.Nerv waves connected.Synch ratios are 45% for both pilots.Ritsuko:Thats very impressive.Now remove all lock bolts and move them to the launch pad.Maya:Roger.All the lock bolts are released from the eva's.The eva's are now moved to the launch pad and are ready for blast off.Ritsuko over the commlinks:Neutrolize the enemy's AT field and fire after.Misato:Do you guys understand.Both pilots dont respond.Misato:Launch EVA"s.Both eva's are launched.Shamshel has now arrived downtown tokyo 3.It raises up and has two whips come out of it's arms.Soon,both eva's appear before the angel.To be continued.

20 - Shamshel's defeat

Now having been launched, both eva's are ready to face the angel. Misato over the commlink: Remember guys. Neutralize it's AT field like we planned allright. Both pilots don't respond. Justin has unit 4 charge at the angel having it jump and land in front of it. He then has unit 4 punch the red core on it's chest but the angel lashes out with it's whips and grabs unit 4 and tosses him behind where it lands in a bunch of buildings. Shinji saw this and starts firing with it's pallet gun but it doesn't appear to do any damage. In the command room. Misato: Idiot. You hit it with your gun before it's AT field got neutralized. The angel then whips a whip at unit 1 and slices the front part of the gun off and making unit 1 fall. Shinji has unit 1 get up. Misato: Here. I'm sending you another spare rifle. The building next to him opens up revealing the gun. In the entry plug Shinji sees he's suppose to pick it up but doesn't. He just has unit 1 run. The angel then now chases it whipping at it missing but slices buildings in half. Unit 4 however gets up and goes after it. Justin can see the angel in the entry plug and has unit 4 run faster. Unit 4 catches up and grabs it but the angel uses a whip and stabs unit 4 in the chest. Justin: Aaaaaaaaaaaaaahhhhh. The pilot cries out in pain. The angel then returns to going after unit 1. It continues to whip at unit 1 until it trips. The angel gets closer and grabs unit 1 with it's whip and tosses it making it crash into a building. The angel gets closer and unit 1 gets up and runs but not before it cuts it's umbilical cable leaving it with 5 minutes of active power left. Maya: The umbilical cable has been cut off. Pilot's power left is 4:58:00. Misato: Damn. How's unit 4. Maya: Pilot seems ok. Misato: Right. Now over the commlink in unit 4's entry plug. Justin. Can you hear me. Justin: Yes. Misato: You need to stop the angel. Unit 1's cable was cut off and only has 5 minutes of power left. Justin: Understood. The commlink is off. He now has unit 4 rush to where the angel is. After cutting off the cable to unit 1, the angel grabs it again and tosses it to a nearby mountain. In a shelter. Kensuke: Toji. I need to talk to you for a minute. Toji: What for. Kensuke: It's important. Please. Toji: Oh allright. Hey class rep. Hikari: What. Toji: We both need to use the bathroom. Hikari: You've should of done that already. In the boys bathroom. Kensuke: I've got to see the battle. Toji: You mean the one that's happening now. Kensuke: Yes. It's an incredible event. And i can't miss it. Please help me go see it. Toji: Are you nuts. It's dangerous. Kensuke: Well, the risk is pretty much the same if we stay here. Please. Toji: Oh allright. He zips up his pants. Let's go. You do anything to get what you want wont you. Kensuke: Of course. Moments later, they are seen going up the mountain and get to the top. Kensuke has his video camera out. Kensuke: Wow. I knew my efforts would pay off. Then unit 1 is seen crashing into the side of the mountain and barely missing both boys. As both boys see's unit 1 almost crushing them, they regret coming. Kensuke: Sheesh. Being beaten up must of affected how he fights. He almost crushed us. Toji: Oh shut up. Meanwhile, unit 4 is rushing to get to the angel and gets there just before it gets to unit 1. Justin has unit 4 pull out it's progressive knife out of it's shoulder blade but the angel whips it away. Justin: Frack. He then has unit 4 grab the angel with it's hands but the angel stabs unit 4 in the chest once more making the pilot cry in pain. It then cuts off unit 4's cable making it last on it's back up power. Maya: Unit 4's cable has been cut off. Remaining power is 5:00:00. Misato: What? I thought it can last on 10 minutes. Ritsuko. Ritsuko: It would seem i was wrong. I thought it could. Justin must know. He was at the first branch. He must of found out there. Misato: Maybe your right. After the cable got cut off Justin has unit 4 uses it's hands and grabs the angel around it's body. In the command room. Everyone looks at the monitor as it shows two boys beside unit 1. Misato: What? Those are Shinji's and Justin's classmates. Ritsuko: What are they doing there. Misato: Shinji. The commlink appears in unit 1's entry plug. Let those two boys besides you in while justin handles the angel.Hurry up and do it.Ritsuko:What makes you think unauthorized people can be allowed in the entry plug.Misato:I'm allowing it.Ritsuko:Your pushing it captain.Misato just looks at her then returns back to the monitor.Misato:Hold the eva on your current command and let them come in.Hurry up.He does as he's told and ejects the entry plug allowing the boys entry.Both boys get in and the entry plug goes back in.Maya:Something's happening in the nerv's impulse.Ritsuko:Of course.You allowed two foreign bodies into the matrix.Misato:How much time left for unit 1.Maya:2:00:00.Misato:How about unit 4.Maya:3:10:33.Misato:Unit 4 can finish the angel off.Shinji.I want you to retreat to route 26.Do it.In unit 1's entry plug.Shinji(says to himself):Dont run away.Dont run away.Dont run away.(Allowed)I wont run away.He then has unit 1 get it's progressive knife out.Toji:Hey new kid.She said retreat.You better do it.Shinji then screams as he has unit 1 charge at the angel with the progressive knife.Misato:Idiot.I told you to retreat.Unit 4 has it covered.Unit 1 continues to rush at the angel.Meanwhile,unit 4 lifts the angel up and jumps up then drops the angel on the ground.The angel rises up again and puts it's whips right through unit 4 causing the pilot pain.Unit 1 is still rushing at the angel till it finally gets to it.He then stabs the knife right through the angel and emerging through the core in front of unit 4.The core shines with light as the knife keeps stabbing through.Maya:Unit 1 activation is 5,4,3,2 and 1.Activation ceased.Unit 1 doesnt finish and shuts down.The angel pulls the whips out of unit 4 and puts them through unit 1.However,unit 4 kicks the angel in the core finishing what unit 1 did and defeats it.Maya:Unit 4's activation is 5,4,3,2 and 1.Unit 4's activation ceased as well.Both unit's are now shut down.The angel is now defeated and just sits there.To be continued.

After the battle with the 4th angel, Justin and Shinji both get talked to for disobeying orders. Misato: Why did you disobey my orders you two. Shinji and Justin: We apologize. Misato: You do know that your suppose to obey my orders right. Shinji and Justin: Yes. Misato: Justin. Did i or did not say to neutralize the angels AT field. Justin: Yes. Misato: Why didnt you. Justin: Because there was none. It's AT field was very weak and was easy to get past. There really was no point. Misato: You still had to obey. Justin: Obey a stupid order like that. Yeah right. It's AT field was weak. Even if i were to neutralize it, the angel would still take damage so it didnt even seem like it was a point. Misato: I'm not done with you yet. Shinji. I told you to retreat didnt i. Shinji: Yes. Misato: I told you unit 4 had it didnt i. Shinji: Yes. Misato: Then why didnt you. There were two boys in there. It was dangerous for them. Shinji: Yes. Misato: Dont think you're gonna get out of this by saying yes to everything i say. You too Justin. I warn you not to disobey me again. Shinji and Justin: Yes. Misato (mad): DAMN YOU TWO. THIS ISNT FUN AND GAMES. PEOPLES LIVES ARE AT STAKE. THIS TYPE OF THING CANT BE TAKEN LIGHTLY. GOT IT. Shinji and Justin: Yes. Back at the school. Toji: It's been three days since they were here. Kensuke: Who's they. Toji: The new kids who else. Kensuke: Are you worried about them. Toji: No not exactly worried. Kensuke stops typing on his computer and hands Toji a piece of paper. Kensuke: Toji. For someone who's tough. You sure are stubborn. Here. Take this. It's both new kids number. If your worried. Call them. Toji takes it and goes to the pay phone a floor down. He dials the number but stops at the last one and hangs up. Now it being night time and both pilots and Misato are back at the apartment, they celebrate or Misato does anyway by drinking her beer. Misato (drunk): You...guys..did good to..today. Justin: Hmm. You said earlier that we disobeyed orders. Shinji: That's true. But now your saying we did good. Your wierd Misato. Misato: I'm...i'm not wierd. I...i ju...just, oh never mind. Shinji: Whatever. I'm going to bed now. Good night miss drunk. Shinji leaves and goes to his room. Misato: So...so, did you really know about the angels AT field being weak. Justin: Yes. I told you i was an angel didnt i. Since i am one, i can tell if an angels AT field is strong or not. Even if it's not my own. Misato: Oh..oh. She takes another drink from her beer. Well...well, What shall we do now. Justin: Easy. Go to bed. Good night. He goes over to the futon and lies down and falls asleep. Misato is pretty drunk now and tries to go to her room but ends up going over to the futon and falls asleep on the floor. Justin notices her on the floor and decides to pick her up and bring her to her room. He carefully sets her down and leaves her room. He goes back to the futon and falls asleep again. It is now morning and Misato wakes up to see if the children are up for school. She has a hangover from last night but still gets up. She firstly goes to the bathroom and brushes her teeth. She then leaves the bathroom and goes to Shinji's room and opens it to make sure he's up so she goes in to find the bed made and everything cleaned up. She notices a note on the table and goes over to read it. It says he ran away and he left his security card because he isnt coming back. Misato: So, he's run away. That isnt surprising. She then leaves his room and goes out to the living room to make sure Justin is up. She goes over to the futon to find he's not there but a note is there as well as his security card. It tells her he ran away as well. Misato: Damn. I didnt think he run away too. He doesnt seem like the type to. Shinji running away isnt surprising. But Justin is. Frack. Why he'd go too. Meanwhile on a train, Shinji is sitting listening to his SDTA player and Justin is sitting next to him sleeping. The train passes many spots and more people are also on. Some are talking, some arent. But both boys dont notice. The train continues and more people have now gotten off. The train reaches the final stop and only Justin and Shinji are left. Train driver: This is the last stop for the Tokyo loop line. The train will now close and any people on board still need to leave and dont forget anything they had with, Thank you for riding. Shinji's SDTA player stops and he wakes justin up. Shinji: Maybe we should go back. Justin: Maybe. Both boys get up and leave the train. Back at the apartment. The door bell rings and Misato hurries to answer it to see if they came back. She opens the door but sees two boys who aren't who she expected. Kensuke: Excuse me ma'am. We are Justin's and Shinji's classmates. Aida and Suzahara. Misato: Aida and Suzahara. Toji: Yes ma'am. I'm Suzahara. Misato: Oh, aren't you the boys who got in unit 1's cock pit. Kensuke: Yes. Toji: Yes ma'am. Kensuke looks at Toji. Toji: We're sorry we caused so much trouble. Kensuke: The reason. Toji: The reason we came was to make sure they were all right. Kensuke looks at him again. Kensuke: We came by to. Toji: We came by to give them their papers that were piling up. Kensuke looks at him again annoyed. Kensuke: Here. These are the papers that were piling up. He hands the papers to Misato. She takes them. Misato: Umm, thanks. Kensuke: Please say hi to them for us. Misato: Uh, yeah I will. Bye. The door closes. Both boys looked stunned but snap out of it and leave. Inside, Misato kicks the door in anger. Misato: You idiots. Now walking in a town not familiar, both boys go to a movie theater which they stopped at and go inside. They don't watch the movie, instead they just watch two people make out 5 rows ahead. Both boys' eyes widen as they watch. Few hours later both boys left and slept in the lobby of the theater for the night. The next day both boys wander through the city until they catch a bus out to the country. There they wander along the country and up to the edge of a cliff where they can see the whole country along with the city. At NERV. Ritsuko is studying the 1st child while she talks to Misato. Ritsuko: How could you let this happen. Misato: I don't know. It just did. Ritsuko: Jeeze Misato. I let Justin go live with you for a reason, not to let him run off. I knew I shouldn't of left him in your care. Shinji took off too right. Misato: Well, yes. Ritsuko: Boy are you something. Some guardian and caretaker you are. You let two fourteen year olds just take off. What are we gonna do if an angel attacks and both boys aren't found yet. Rei can't pilot yet and unit 0 isn't ready. Misato: I know. I don't know what we'll do. It's probably best if they don't come back anyway. Ritsuko: Why would you say that. Misato: Well, I know Shinji hates piloting and I know some things about Justin so. I just think it's best. Ritsuko: What do you know about Justin. Misato: Things that I promised not to tell. Ritsuko: I see. But you do know we need pilots. Misato: I know. Ritsuko: (sighs) Have they made contact at all yet. Misato turns away. Ritsuko: Nothing. Great job you did. I'll have NERV agents go find them and have them brought back here. She picks up the phone next to her and dials. Now wandering along the countryside again, a car passes and stops. Two men in black come out and look at the boys. NERV Agent 1: You guys Shinji and Justin. Both boys nod. NERV Agent 2: You guys have to come back according to the NERV rule book. Let's go. Both boys do as they are told and get in the car with the two men. Kensuke saw this from his hiding spot while playing a war game. Both boys are now brought back to NERV and have to answer to Misato again. Misato: You guys feel better about running away. Shinji: No. Justin: A little. Misato: Both Eva's are on standby. Will you pilot them. Shinji: I don't know. Justin: Maybe. Misato: If you won't pilot Shinji, we will have Rei do it. As for unit 4, you have to Justin. You're the only pilot for it. Justin: Yeah right. Shinji: It's stupid to make someone like Rei pilot unit 1. Don't worry. I'll do it. Misato: But you don't like too. Shinji: Of course not. It's not something I want to do, but it's the only thing I can do. Misato: That's not true. You can stop doing it if it causes you pain. Shinji: Yeah but you and Miss Ritsuko and Ayanami depend on me. I mean us. Misato: Don't give me that crap. If you don't like it, stop doing it. Otherwise deal with it. Both of you. Justin: I'm dealing with it. But as I told you, it's only a matter of time. I don't need to pilot something that I will soon be fighting against. Misato: Quit your complaining. When the time comes, the time comes. Until then. I suggest you grow up and just do it. Otherwise, leave. We don't need two pilots whose attitudes aren't positive and are mostly negative. Now get up. Let's go home. Next time you do this, you are no longer part of NERV and are to go back where you came from. Understand. Both boys nod. All three of them go home. To be continued.

The chapter begins in the past where unit 0's first test begins. Gendo: Proceed with the test. Ritsuko: Right. Start up the starting system. Maya: Roger. Starting system starting up. System started. Ritsuko: Connect the nerv system. Maya: Now connecting. Nerv system connected. Ritsuko: Have power flowed to unit 0's left and right arms. Maya: Right. We see unit 0's arms light up with the word prototype 0 on them. Maya: Power connected. Now starting activation. Reaching 0.5, 0.10, 0.15, 0.20, 0.25. Almost reached the border line. When it does, activation will be complete. Ritsuko: Good. Maya: Now reaching border line. All of a sudden, everything starts flowing back. Maya: What? Everything's flowing backwards. Nerv connections are disconnecting. Ritsuko: What. Shut circuits 1-6. Maya: Right. She types on the keyboard. Maya: No response. It's rejecting it. Ritsuko: What? We see unit 0 trying to break out of it's restraints. A few tries and it breaks free. Going out of control. Ritsuko: It's gone berserk. Unit 0 starts punching at the glass in front causing them to crack. The glass breaks and gendo isnt harmed. Ritsuko: Stay back. It's gone out of control. Gendo: Damn it. Shut the system down. Do it. Maya: We cant. It wont accept the signal. Gendo: We have no choice. We have to abandon the experiment. Pour the bakelite in. Maybe that'll stop it. Maya: But sir. What about the pilot. Unit 0 then ejects the entry plug. Gendo: The entry plug's been ejected. You can do it now. Maya: Right. She types on the keyboard and holes on the walls with unit 0 open up and pour redish pink stuff on the floor. The entry plug is seen flying in the room ramming into a wall while still flying and falls down to the floor. Unit 0 is now punching the left wall until the room is filled with bakelite. Gendo: REI!. After the bakelite stops flowing, unit 0 stops. Gendo goes in and opens the hot entry plug burning his hands while opening it. He finally opened it and see's Rei ok. Now we are in the present. And in a building surrounding the 4th angel. Shinji and misato are there but justin is not. Shinji: So, this is what the enemy looks like up close. Misato comes near him and puts her back towards him while she looks up to see ritsuko studying the angel. Misato: So, have you found anything yet? Ritsuko is writing down info and turns around. Ritsuko: No, not yet. But this will be a great help. Soon, they all are in a small room with a computer. Ritsuko types some things and a number appears. Misato: So, have you figured out anything like the angels power or something. Ritsuko sips from her coffee. Ritsuko: Well, something like that. We manage to find out some things but not much. Here, look for yourself. She shows her a number that say 601. Misato looks at the screen. Misato: Ok. So, what does that mean. Ritsuko: It means it cant be identified. But we can be sure about the angel being almost human as some of there DNA is human. Misato: Ok. She steps back and shinji looks on the screen but notices his father walk by and goes and pokes his head out into the hallway where he see's his father and Fuyutsuki studying what's left of the angel's core. Gendo: So, this is what's left of the core hmm. NERV technician: Uh, yes sir. This is all that was left. Gendo: It was almost in perfect condition. Shinji was about to go back in but see's burned marks on the back of his palms. Misato and Ritsuko stop talking and looks at shinji who's staring at his father. He then goes back in to see both women staring at him. Misato: Is something the matter. Shinji: Umm, well. Nevermind. Misato: Shinji. Are you aware that when you look at something and we ask what you were looking at and you say nothing we might as well keep bugging you. Evasion actions draw attention to yourself. So, you might as well say. Shinji: Well, it would seem my father has burned his hands and i was wondering how it happened. Ritsuko looked surprised when he said that. Misato: I dont know. She turns to Ritsuko. Do you know. Ritsuko: Yes. It was before you joined us. We had an activation test with unit 0. It went out of control. It was bad. The pilot was trapped inside. Shinji: The pilot. Was it Rei. Ritsuko: Yes. And it was commander ikari who saved her. Shinji: Bullshit. My father actually saved someone instead of letting them die. I doubt he would. Ritsuko: He really did. And I know you have your doubts because of what he did to you but he actually saved her. Misato: Speaking of pilots. Where's Justin. He isn't here. Ritsuko: Don't tell me you lost him again. Misato: I... umm, no I didn't lose him. I know where he is. Shinji: He said he wanted to go back to the apartment. He didn't want to come here. Misato: Wonder why. Now the next day. Shinji and his friends are sitting outside looking at the girls who are by the pool and the girls squeaking with joy because they are paying attention to them. Toji and Kensuke notice Shinji staring at Rei and start making fun of him. Toji: Hey big shot. Who you staring at with so much interest. Kensuke: He's ogling Rei. Shinji: I am not. Toji: Sure you are. You're looking at her legs. Kensuke: Her @$$$. Kensuke and Toji: Her breasts. Shinji: It's not like that at all. Toji: Then why are you. Shinji: I'm just wondering why she's so alone all the time. Toji: Come to think of it. She's been like that since 7th grade. I don't think she has any friends. Kensuke: She must have a horrible personality or something. Now they are seen running around the track. Kensuke: Hey. You and Rei are both Eva pilots aren't you. You should know her better than any of us. Toji: Hey that's right. Shinji stops. Shinji: We don't talk much. Now in NERV Eva cage inside his Eva he can see Rei working on her Eva when his father comes by and they both start talking to each other. He can see them enjoying it. He wishes he had that kind of relationship with him. Back at the apartment, it's now supper time and they have invited Ritsuko over. Unfortunately, Misato cooked. Ritsuko: You are still eating this instant junk. Don't you have Shinji. Misato: Hey. You're a guest. You have no right to complain. Shinji has finished pouring soup on his, Ritsuko's and Justin's plate which Misato made. Shinji: Misato. Don't you want anything. Misato: Oh, sorry. She picks up a container of ramen and opens the top. Pour that stuff on top of this stuff. Shinji: What? Are you serious. Misato: Go on. It's yummy to the max. Shinji: Ok then. He starts pouring it on and stops and puts it down. Misato: Dig in everyone. She starts eating the ramen. The trick is to form a soupy sludge to make it good. Shinji and Ritsuko both take a bite out of their meal and well don't like it. Ritsuko: Misato cooked. Right. Misato: You can tell. She says while still eating. Ritsuko: Of course. (Thinks to herself) Who else can make soup taste this bad. Out loud again. Next time you invite me over, make sure Shinji cooked as she says that a penguin pokes his head out and stares at the meal in front of him. He wonders if it's ok to eat. He bends down and tastes some of the soup and falls over. Hearing this, both Shinji and Justin look to see. Shinji: Umm, Misato. What was that noise. Misato stops eating and looks at him. Misato: Oh, almost forgot. His name is PEN PEN. He's the other roommate who lives here. He's a new warmwater penguin. Shinji: Oh, alright. Misato then looks at Justin who hasn't touched his food. Misato: What's wrong. Aren't you hungry. Justin: No not that. It's just well, I don't really trust this food is all. And you made the soup so I'm thinking if it will kill me or not. Misato: Oh ha, ha. Very funny. Ritsuko interrupts. Ritsuko: You guys know. You shouldn't let her ruin your life you know. You gotta move out. Shinji: But I'm used to it now. Ritsuko: Well, Justin. You can move back with me if you want. Justin: No thanks. I'm used to things now. Misato takes another sip from her beer. Misato: They're right Ritsuko. They can adapt to any situation right. She shakes her beer can and hears it empty. Misato: Shinji. Can I have another. Shinji: Sure. He gets up and goes to the fridge to get another beer for her. Misato: In any case. If they don't move, there's gonna be a lot of trouble in red tape. They both got their new security cards you know. Ritsuko: Oh, I almost forgot again. She puts her beer down and digs in her purse for something at which time Shinji comes back from the fridge with Misato's beer and hands it over. She pulls out a security card and gives it to Shinji. Shinji: What's this? Ritsuko: It's Rei's new security card. I forgot to give it to her. Could you drop it at her place on your way to HQ. Shinji: Um, sure. He stands there looking at it. Ritsuko and Misato both notice and decide to tease him. Misato: What's the matter. You're staring at Rei's picture aren't you. Shinji: No I wasn't. Misato: Oh yes you were Shinji. Shinji: I was not. Misato: I think I embarrassed him. She lets out a low laugh. Now you got an excuse to go over to her place don't you. Shinji: Stop teasing me ok. If you're gonna tease anyone, it should be Justin because he's been ogling you both. They both look at Justin who just spitted out all his food and stares in shock. Justin: I was not. Shinji: Yeah you were. Justin: I was not. Misato: Were you checking me out. Justin: No. I was um, looking somewhere else. Shinji: No you weren't. You were staring at their breasts. I saw you. Justin's face gets red. Misato: Oh, is that what you were doing. Maybe I should let you have a better look then. She winks at him. Justin: I was not. Besides, you were the one staring at Rei's picture Shinji. Shinji: So, it's better then what you were doing. Justin: What I was doing is well, mine business. Ritsuko: So, you admit you were staring at our breasts then. Justin: No. I was, um never mind. Ritsuko gets up from her seat and goes over to Justin. She sits on top of him facing him. He blushes when he's pressed against her breasts. Ritsuko: So, is this view better laughing. Justin is just blushing. While this happens, a diamond shape angel heads for Tokyo 3. Will this angel be tough to beat when it arrives. To be continued

Now the next day, shinji goes over to Rei's to deliver her security card. He gets there and knocks on the door but no one answers so he decides to go in. Shinji: Hello. It's me Ikari. I'm coming in ok. He hears no answer so he continues to go in but takes off his shoes to be polite. He goes into a room with nothing but a bed, a window, a dresser and a tray for her medicine. He then sees glasses on top of the dresser and goes over to look at them. He picks them up. And he puts them on. Shinji: These aren't Rei's just as he said that, Rei steps out of the shower and Shinji looks behind him and sees her in nothing but a towel. Rei sees him with the glasses on and starts walking towards him. Shinji: Um, Rei, I was um just. Rei grabs the glasses and Shinji falls backwards backing into the dresser behind him and trips Rei toppling on top of her. Rei doesn't have her towel on and just stares at Rei's naked body. Rei doesn't say anything for a few seconds but breaks the silence. Rei: (calmly) Will you get off. Shinji hears what she says and realizes what she meant. His hand is squeezing her left breast and Shinji nervously lets go and gets up allowing Rei to get up and get dressed. While she is changing, Shinji decides to tell her about her card which he has to give her. Shinji: Rei, I um, have... have um something to. He gulps. Something to give you. Your... your card. It's been... been renewed. Ritsuko wanted me to give it to you. He turns around and prepares to give her card to her but notices she got dressed and already left. He leaves to try and catch up with her. He finally catches up to her when her old card won't allow her access into the main part of NERV. Shinji: Here. He swipes the card through the slot and the door opens. Your card's been renewed. She turns and snatches the card out of his hand and proceeds. They both are now on an escalator. Shinji: Rei, your having a reactivation test with unit 0 today aren't you. She doesn't respond. Shinji: Aren't you scared. Rei: Why would I be. Shinji: Well, I heard what happened and was just wondering. I know I would be if what's happened to you happened to me that long ago. She doesn't answer again. Shinji: Oh and I would like to apologize. Rei: Why. Shinji: For earlier. She remains quiet. Shinji: Well, I know I don't trust my father with my life. Rei: Why don't you trust him. Shinji: How can I. After what he put me through, I can't trust him again. Rei turns around and goes up to Shinji and slaps him and goes back down. Shinji rubs his slapped cheek wondering why she did that. Now Rei is getting suited up in her plug suit for the reactivation test of unit 0. Soon, she is in the entry plug of unit 0. Gendo: Proceed with the activation. Ritsuko: Yes sir. Everything works fine and with that, unit 0 has been successfully activated. Fuyutsuki: I see. Very well. He gets off the phone. Ikari: An unknown object is heading for Tokyo 3. It may be the 5th angel. Gendo: I see. Very well. Over the comm link in unit 0's entry plug: Rei, you can get out now. Unit 0 has been activated. The unit then shuts down. Gendo: Unit 0 can't battle this one still. Neither can Rei. He turns to Ritsuko. Dr. Akagi: How fast can units 1 and 4 be launched. Ritsuko: In about 380 seconds sir. Gendo: Make it so. Ritsuko: Yes sir. Both Eva's are moved to the launch pad and are now waiting to be launched. In the command room. Shigeru: The object just past another county. It'll be here in less than 5 seconds. Ritsuko: Right. Where the hell is Misato. Misato comes bursting into the command room. Ritsuko: Your late captain. Misato: Sorry. Launch EVA'S. Both EVA'S are launched just as the angel arrives downtown Tokyo 3. The angel is like a big blue diamond. Both EVA's arrive on the surface. Shigeru: We're detecting a high energy reading from inside the target. Misato: What you say. The angel charges up its particle beam cannon and fires. Melting a few buildings it goes through and hitting unit 1 in the chest. Shinji cries out in pain as the beam made contact. Everyone can hear it from the command room. Misato: NO. SHINJI. Bring him back. Hurry. The Eva is then brought back down into the Eva cage and is secured. While that happens the angel moves to the central area of Tokyo 3 and starts drilling down with its shield. Unit 4 then moves from where it was launched and moves in front of the angel. Misato: I'm going to the cage. Please cover for me. She goes down to the cage. Ritsuko: You're finally responsible for once. Shigeru: We're detecting another high energy input from the target. Ritsuko: What. The angel charges another particle beam. Ritsuko: Justin move. Unit 4 jumps out of the way just as the beam is fired and blows up another building. Unit 4 lands again in front of the angel. Justin: I'll show you. He has unit 4 charge at the angel. The angel charges another particle beam but not before unit 4 is close enough. Justin: I'll show you. He then has a secret panel appear in his entry plug. Maya: Ma'am. Justin appears to be activating the self-destruct mechanism in unit 4. Ritsuko: What. Justin what the hell are you doing. Justin: What do you think. I'm self-destructing my Eva to kill this angel. Ritsuko: You can't. The commlink was cut off. In the entry plug, Justin presses the button to self-destruct and the Eva explodes in front of everyone. Ritsuko: NO. Maya. Please tell me the entry plug was ejected. Maya: (sad) Unfortunately, it wasn't. He wouldn't allow us to eject it. Ritsuko: NOO! JUSTIN. Will Justin's sacrifice be enough to win. To be continued.

We see from before the eva self-destructing right by the angel. As Ritsuko screams, Shinji is brought to the NERV hospital with Misato by his side until they reach the operation room in which Misato stays outside. She decides to go back to the command room. Misato: How's unit 4. Maya: Life signs... show negative. Misato: WHAT DO YOU MEAN. WHAT HAPPENED TO UNIT 4 AND THE PILOT. Ritsuko: I'll tell you. Misato looks at Ritsuko as she turns to face her. Justin... self-destructed his eva in hopes of killing the angel. The entry plug wasn't ejected and so, we believe... she tries to hold back her tears as she says this. He's... dead. Misato: What? HOW'D YOU LET HIM DO THAT. WHY DIDN'T YOU STOP HIM. Ritsuko: We... tried. But he wasn't gonna give up so he sacrificed himself hoping to kill the angel. Misato (starts crying and thinks to herself): Why did he do this. It was bad enough when Shinji got hurt, but he sacrificed himself to kill an angel. I don't know if I should think he was being brave or stupid. Either way. He's gone now. She starts crying. Misato through tears.: How's the angel. Makoto: We'll find out in a moment. The monitor shows the area clearing. But what showed shocked everyone. Makoto: No. The angel. It's still. Misato: It's still there. The monitor shows the angel unharmed. Now that it's opponent is gone, the angel gets back to drilling in the ground. Shigeru: The angel is drilling into the ground. It's gonna drill right to terminal dogma. Misato: How much time before it arrives. Makoto: 12 seconds just past midnight. Misato: So, we got less than 6 hours. Now in a conference room. Misato: Deploy the model balloons of unit's 1 and 4. Makoto: Yes ma'am. We see two very large though the same size as unit's 1 and 4, model scale balloons being brought by a boat. Both balloons fire the gun they have but the angel fires back before they could and both balloons along with the boats, get destroyed. Misato: Hmm. Next one. We see a train come out of a tunnel with a German type 12 self-propelled mortar on one of the cars and stops. The gun fires at the angel but bounces off. The angel fires and the train blows up. Misato: Wow. It's pretty tough. Makoto: Yeah. It's AT field is so strong that any attack that strike it will bounce off. You can also see the visible form of light when the gun fired. So, any bombs, missiles or artillery would cause more damage on us than the angel. Misato: So, it's pretty much a flying fortress with high atk and def capabilities. It's almost perfect. But how will we beat it. Unit 1's pilot is in the hospital and unit 4 is gone. Makoto: Uh, excuse me captain. But that's not true. We still got unit 0. It may be our only hope. Misato: True. But unit 0 wouldn't survive battle. Makoto: That's right. I forgot. Well, we might as well raise a white flag then. Misato: Yes. But before that, I got an idea. In the commander's office. Fuyutsuki: You want to what! Misato: We need to use a sniper to pierce the angel's AT field so we can kill it. Fuyutsuki: But how. Our's isn't powerful enough to do that. Where will you get one powerful enough. And more importantly, how is it gonna be used. Unit 0 can't do it. And unit 1's pilot is in the hospital still. Misato: Don't worry. I have it under control. Gendo: Hmm. Very well. You may proceed with your plan captain. I see no other way. Misato: Thank you sir. Now going down an escalator. Ritsuko: So, Misato. If our positron rifle can't do this, where will you get one. Misato: From the JSSDF. Ritsuko: What. You mean you gonna borrow their new prototype one. Misato: That's right. There's no other way to do it. At the JSSDF lab. Misato: I am here on behalf of NERV to propose the use of your new positron gun. Lab lieutenant: But. Misato: Don't worry. We will return it to it's original state as close as we can. Thank you for your cooperation. Take it Rei. Unit 0 takes the building's roof off and takes the gun and puts the roof back down. Makoto: But ma'am. Where do you plan on getting all that electricity for it. Misato: How do you think. All over Japan. In the operation room of NERV hospital, Shinji awakes and is taken out and put into a room. He sits up and sees Rei Ayanami come in with his lunch. Rei: Pilot Ikari. You awoke. Shinji: Yeah. Rei: I have been sent to brief you on the mission tonight since pilot powers was unsuccessful with defeating the angel. And so, his life is lost but the angels is not. She takes out a little red book from her uniform and opens it and starts reading. Rei: At 0600 hours tonight, pilot ikari and pilot ayanami are to use a particle riffle or pilot ikari is too. While pilot ikari uses this riffle, pilot ayanami is to defend him against the angels particle beam. She then closes the book. Rei: Also pilot ikari, i brought you a new plug suit as well. She tosses the suit on the bed. Shinji: Do i have to pilot again. Rei: Yes you do. Shinji: But i dont want too. I just cant go through it again. Rei: But if you do not, pilot powers sacrafice will be of nothing. It would be in vain. Do you wish for that. Shinji: No. But the only reason your cool about this is because you havent went through what i and justin did. I just cant. Not after what happened to him. Rei: Very well. You can stay here then. Shinji looks at her. Rei: Dr. akagi will reconfigure unit 1 for me and i'll take the lead. You dont need to come. She then turns and leaves. Shinji looks at her when she did. In the command room. Makoto: The angel has broken through the 7th armored plate. We have only 3 more hours before it attacks us directly. Misato: Right. Ritsuko. How's the defense coming. Ritsuko: Well, the best we could do was make a shield out of parts from a space ship. It doesnt exactly have bright colors or anything but it still is good. It can withstand the angels attack for about 17 seconds or so before melting away. Misato: Good. Now. Let's get to mount futagoyama now. And this operation is called Operation Yashima from here on. On the schools building, a bunch of boys including toji and kensuke are sitting. Toji: Are you sure they'll show. Kensuke: Of course. I hacked into my dad's files. I'm pretty sure it's tonight. Toji: It better be. Because of that power outage that's happening tonight, i cant watch tv. Then everyone looks right to see a mountain moving a side. Then the evangelions come up. First with unit 1 then unit 0. Kensuke: It's the evangelions!. Both unit's start walking and everyone is cheering for them telling them to kick angel butt. Now at mount futagoyama. NERV tech 1: Electric power supply from Shikoku and Kyushu Aria complete. NERV tech 2: Now starting the tests of each cooling system. Ritsuko: Watch it. This machine is delicate. Shinji: Are you sure this will work. It isnt meant for field battles was it. Ritsuko: This our only option. This is an emergency so it doesnt matter if was meant for field battles or not. Shinji: Is it safe? Ritsuko: Theoretically yes. We dont know if it can stand the blast with so much power. Misato: Shinji. Shinji: Yes. Misato: You will be the gunner. And Rei. You will defend unit 1 with unit 0. Understand. Rei: Yes. Ritsuko: The reason for this is shinji has a higher synch ratio with unit 1 and we need someone who can synch with an eva really good. Since the magnetic field, gravity field and the earth's rotation will effect the gun, it will not fie straight in a line so remember to fix that before firing otherwise you wont hit the core like you need to. Shinji: But i've never did anything like this before. Ritsuko: Dont worry. Just read the manual and press the trigger. After, the computers will handle the rest. Also, before firing a second shot, you have to wait till the first fuse cools down before replacing it. And since that's the case, you must defeat the angel the first time. Shinji: But what if i miss or it fires back. Ritsuko: Shinji. Dont think like that. You must hit the target the first time. Shinji: So i've got no choice. Misato: Allright. It's amost time. Both of you go get suited up and ready. Rei and Shinji: Right. Now they both changed into their plug suits and are ready. Shinji: We are gonna die tonight. I just know it. Rei: You wont. I'll be protecting you. Now by their eva's. Shinji: Why do you do this. Rei: Because it's my bond. Shinji: Bond? You mean with my father. Rei: With everyone. Shinji: But. Rei: It's time shinji. You wont die. I promise. They both get into their entry plugs and get inserted. The eva's are now started up and are ready. Unit 1 is holding the gun while unit 0 is behind him. In a portable command room. NERV tech 1: It's now midnight. Makoto: The target has broken through the 20th armored plate. Misato: Right. Shinji. We are trusting you with all of the power from japan. Make us proud. Shinji: Right. Misato: Start first connection. NERV tech 2: Now starting up. From the first through 80th tank, starting power supply. Shigeru: Voltage is up. Powering up the water exchange unit. Makoto: All cooling systems at full power. NERV tech 3: Temperature stable. No problems. Positron charge is nominal. Misato: Second connection. Maya: Now starting all accelerators. Converger now staring up. Shigeru: All power supplies to the submission station on Mt. Futagoyamam. No problems. Misato: Release all final safety locks. NERV tech 1: Pulling gear up. Maya: Adjustment for the gravity field and revolution of the earth is minus 0.0009. 0.2 to the critical voltage. Makoto: 7th, 10th connection. All energy to the positron rifle. NERV tech 2: 8, 7, 6... Shigeru: There's a high reaction detected in the target. Ritsuko: What. NERV tech 2: 3, 2, 1... Misato: Fire. Unit 1 fires the rifle at the same time the angel fires and they swerve around each other and miss. Misato: Did we do it. Makoto: We'll see. On the monitor. Makoto: Negative. It missed. Misato: Damn it. Ready the second shot. Shigeru: The target has penetrated the geo front. Meanwhile, in the geo front Evangelion unit 4 sees the shield from the angel and attempts to stop it. It grabs it with its hands but only slows down a little. Shigeru: There's an unknown object in the geo front. Misato: What. Makoto: It's stopping the angel's drill. Misato: What. Whatever. While it stops the angel's drill, we'll fire another shot. Ready second shot. Makoto: Negative. The fuse was replaced and will take 10 seconds to cool down. Shigeru: A high energy reading from inside the target is appearing again. Misato: What. No not now. Is it ready yet. Makoto: 6 more seconds. The angel prepares to fire the particle beam. It fires it at unit 1 but unit 0 gets in the way and defends him. Shinji: Ayanami! Misato: Is it ready yet. Makoto: Yes. Misato: Shinji. Fire now. Unit 1 fires the gun and goes through unit 0 and pierces the angel's AT field and hitting its core making it stop drilling and fall. In the geo front the drill stops and unit 4 lets go. Unit 4 then goes up to the top. Unit 1 goes over to unit 0 and gets the entry plug out while melting its hands a bit. Shinji gets out and opens the heated entry plug. He sees Rei alright and hugs her while crying. Rei: I'm sorry. I don't know what to feel at this time. Shinji (through tears): Try smiling. She does so. Meanwhile, unit 4 has made it to the area where the portable command room is and stops in front. The monitor in it shows the inside of unit 4 and as well as the pilot. From the entry plug. Justin: What I miss. Everyone is shocked to see Justin alive as well as Misato and Ritsuko crying. The entry plug ejects and the pilot comes out. Misato rushes over to hug Justin. Misato (crying): Your... your alive. I thought you were dead. Thank God you're alive. I didn't think I'd see you again. Justin: Yeah I suppose. I guess I have to explain what happened huh. Misato: Yes. But not right now. I'm just glad you're alive. To be continued.

Now at the apartment, Justin decides to explain what happened during the battle with the 5th angel. Justin and Misato are both sitting on the futon while Shinji is in his room. Justin: Ok. What happened was. I used a cloning technique. Misato (confused): A cloning technique? Justin: Yeah. It's something I learned when I was at the first NERV branch. They told me I was to use it if I absolutely needed too. It's something that splits your Eva up in two allowing to do more than one thing. Like what I did. I created a second Unit 4 and had it self-destruct while I went into the Geo Front and waited for the angel's drill to arrive. It was a long wait too. But it was necessary. I'm sorry you thought I was dead. I guess I should have told you huh. Misato: Yeah. It would have been nice. Can Unit 4 only use it or can the other ones use it too. Justin: So far I know Unit 4 can only use it. And that's probably only because it was built in the first branch unlike the ones here. Misato: Well, it seems helpful. Justin: Of course it is. But there is a drawback however. The clone can take a lot of damage even life-threatening ones but the real me will take twice as much pain. If the angels were to find out that they are fighting a fake instead of the real one, they'll destroy everything and forget what they were doing till they destroy the real one. So, you see. It's actually pretty dangerous to use. Misato: Well, guess you shouldn't use it then huh. Especially after what you pulled. Justin: I suppose. Oh that reminds me. I have to go back to the first branch in America tomorrow so Unit 4 can get upgraded. Misato: Unit 4 is gonna get upgraded. Justin: Yep. It's gonna get better shoulder blades, a different color. Misato: Do you have too. Can't it be done here? Justin: No. 1, it wasn't built here so they wouldn't know how and 2. Gendo and those idiots already tried upgrading it but made it worse so I don't trust them. Misato: Oh. What time do you have to leave. Justin: By 10:00. But since tomorrow is Saturday, I thought maybe you guys would like to come with. Misato: Really. Justin: Yeah. They said I could bring my guardian and a friend and since Shinji is a friend I thought he might want to come. So, do you want to. Or do you have something else to do. Misato: Well, I have to work and Shinji has to come in for testing so unfortunately no. How long will you be gone. Justin: Till Sunday. I also have to do tests too. Misato: Maybe you should get some sleep. Justin: I guess so. But you kinda need to move so I can. Misato: Right. She gets up and Justin lies down. She then goes to her room and everyone sleeps. The next day Justin gets up at 9:30 because Misato woke him up late. He packs his stuff and heads out the door. He gets in Misato's car and they speed off towards the airport. Justin: Sheesh Misato. We wouldn't have to rush if you got me up earlier. Misato: Relax. We'll get there before it leaves. Did Unit 4 get there yet? Justin: It should have been there already but yeah it should. She continues her driving swerving around every car and running through red lights scaring the heck out of Justin. Minutes later they arrive at the airport with the car coming to a screech. Justin gets out and gets his stuff out of the trunk. He starts heading for the airport but says something to Misato first. Justin: You know. You keep driving like that and you'll kill me before the angels do he says sarcastically. Misato only looks while her eye twitches but she says bye and leaves. Justin heads for the plane which he's taking and gets on board. It takes off and heads for America. On board a woman comes by and asks if Justin is the pilot of Unit 4 and he says yes. She tells him it's been secured in the cargo space so he not worry about it. She then sits next to him. He looks at her and sees she's wearing a blue tank top with dark blue shorts and her hair is slightly light purple. Justin: So, what is your name anyway. And how do you know who I am. Katiko: My name is Katiko Yashima. And I know who you are because you're the other famous Eva pilot. Justin: I guess that makes sense. Katiko: So, who's the other pilot. Justin: His name is Shinji Ikari. He's the pilot of Unit 1. Katiko: Oh, that's nice. So, you're going to the first NERV branch with Unit 4 for something right. Justin: How... how did you know. Katiko: I work for the first branch. I was sent over here to make sure you were coming. I guess I didn't have to find you huh. Justin: Yeah. But aren't you Japanese. Why are you in America. Katiko: Well, I applied to work at this NERV but the position I wanted was taken so I decided to apply at the first branch instead. Justin: Interesting. Katiko: Just like you are. Justin: What? Katiko: You heard me. You're pretty cute for an American boy. Justin: How did you know I'm American. Katiko: I was told at the first branch. So, do you have a girlfriend or are seeing someone. Justin: Uh, no. But then again, why are you asking. Katiko: Just curious. The plane continues to Massachusetts. At NERV in the testing room. Shinji is being monitored in his entry plug. Ritsuko looks at the computers and sees something she doesn't like. Ritsuko: It would seem Shinji's test scores have gone down by 2 points. Misato: Really. That's not surprising. After everything yesterday, I'm not surprised at all. Ritsuko: So, does he know Justin is alive yet. Misato: No. But I'll tell him. Ritsuko: Hmm. Where's Justin anyway. Misato: He's went to the first branch to get Unit 4 upgraded. Ritsuko: Upgraded? How did he know. We didn't get any calls like that. Unit 4 isn't getting upgraded. Misato: What do you mean. Ritsuko: I mean they aren't gonna upgrade it. They never said anything about it. They'll suppose to call before doing that because they both belong here now. Misato: He said they were. He must of got a call. Ritsuko: Not from the first branch. We get those calls. He must of got a different call. He might be in danger. Misato: You can't be serious. Ritsuko: I am. And besides, the first branch disappeared. They sent Unit 3 to China. Misato: What? Ritsuko starts laughing. Misato: What the hell is funny. Ritsuko: I was kidding about all that. We did get a call and got notified about it. I called him in and told him. Misato: (Angry) Why you. I'll get you for that. Anyway, Shinji is doing good otherwise ain't he. Ritsuko: Yes. His harmonics are normal, his pulse and heart rates are normal too. So, the 2 point thing is only temporary. I'm sure it'll go up again. Misato: Of course it will. Back on the plane. Katiko: Do you live by yourself or with someone. Justin: Hmm. Oh I live with someone. Katiko: Really. Who. Justin: Can't say sorry. Katiko: Come on. I won't tell. Justin: Sorry but I can't. Katiko: Ok. If you won't tell, I get you to another way. She faces Justin and kisses him softly on the lips with her arms around him. Justin tries to break free but can't. It's been 3 hours and the plane finally makes it to America at which Katiko stopped kissing Justin. Katiko: So, still won't tell. Justin: Of course not. And please don't do it again. Captain over the intercom: Pilot powers. We are about to arrive at NERV. Please get into Unit 4 and get ready to be dropped. Justin: Well, gotta go. He gets up and heads into the cargo room where Unit 4 is. He has the entry plug eject and climbs in. It then enters again. He starts everything up and Unit 4 is activated. The plane is now over the first branch and the comm link appears in the plug. Dr. Myers: Pilot powers. Are you ready for drop off. Justin: Yes. Dr. Myers: Good. Releasing the safety locks. Safety locks released. Dr. Myers: Allright. Unit 4. Drop. The hatch below opens and Unit 4 drops to the ground. It lands on its feet. Justin can see the NERV facility. It's different than in Japan. The landscape is green with grass and trees are in every direction. Dr. Myers: Pilot powers. Head straight and we will open the doors for you. Justin: Roger. He has Unit 4 run towards the facility and the giant doors in front opens and he goes inside. The doors close behind him. He keeps going. He sees bridges that lock the Evangelions up but it's different. There's no cooling water to cool down the Evangelions like in Japan. But he keeps going. He gets locked up in the bridge and the entry plug ejects. He gets out and is greeted by three people. Dr. Myers whom he talked to. He looks like a man with a beard and has a white lab coat on while wearing a black shirt and blue pants. He also wears glasses. Dr. Myers: Pilot powers. How good you came. You do know Unit 4 is getting upgraded don't you. Justin: Yes. It's been a while since I was here too. Dr. Myers: Of course. You remember Mr. Jack. Mr. Jack is a guy who's wearing a blue shirt, a white lab coat and black pants. He's 27. Mr. Myers is 39. Mr. Jack: Hey there Justin. How's it going over in Japan. Justin: Fine. Mr. Jack: Good. I've heard the angels are back. Is it true. Justin: Yes. I've fought two of them already. Mr. Jack: Really. Good for you. Mr. Myers: You can catch up another time. Justin. You remember Miss Yashima. Justin: What. Hey. You're the women from the plane. Katiko: Yes I am. Justin: I didn't know you were a scientist. Katiko: Yep. Mr. Myers: Good. You remember everyone. Now then. We are gonna replace Unit 4's shoulder blades and paint it a different color. What color do you want. Justin: Black and red. Mr. Myers: Really. Ok. So, how was it when you pilot unit 4 against the third angel. Justin: How do you know about the third angel. Mr. Myers: I just know. Justin: I didn't pilot unit 4. I piloted unit 1. Mr. Myers: UNIT 1. You were supposed to pilot unit 4 not 1. Justin: I know. But commander Ikari wouldn't let me because he was experimenting on it. So, I piloted unit 1. Mr. Myers: That fracker experimented on unit 4. He wasn't supposed to do anything to it. Justin: Well, he did. Mr. Myers: (Sighs) I talk to him later. Anyway, Miss Yashima. Could you take Justin and show him unit 3 while we work on unit 4. Katiko: Sure. Come on Justin. She grabs Justin's arm and pulls him out of the room. She drags him down a hallway till they get to a room. They enter it and she shows him unit 3. Katiko: Here's what unit 3 looks like so far. Justin: WOW. Unit 3 is blue with white lines. Only half the body is completed. Katiko: Unit 3 isn't completed yet but it will be. Justin: I suppose. Katiko: Hey. It's pretty dark in here even if only one light is on. Katiko (seductively): What do you say we have fun for a bit. Justin turns red. Justin: Umm, I don't think so. Katiko grabs him and goes on the floor. She gets on top of him and takes her shirt off. She has a light pink bra on that's see-through. Katiko: Like the view. Justin is really red now. Justin: Um sure. But we shouldn't but his words are cut off as Katiko kisses him good and hard. He manages to break it and gets her off. Justin: You can't do this. I'm here on business. No more. He leaves. Katiko just sits there. Katiko: He wants me. I'm just gonna have to show him what he can have. Meanwhile, Mr. Myers and Mr. Jack are working on unit 4. The old shoulder blades get replaced with ones that are the same as on unit 1. The NERV techs are painting it black and red while the other ones put progressive knives in each. Mr. Jack: Hmm. It'll be better than ever don't you agree. Mr. Myers: Yes. It will be. But, why did it go berserk in Japan that one day while the pilot was in there is beyond me. Maybe Justin knows. Justin enters the cage. Mr. Myers: Aah. Justin. Perfect timing. Justin goes over. Do you know why unit 4 went berserk that one day. Justin: I... I don't know. I was unconscious when it did. Mr. Myers: All right. So, how do you like unit 4 so far. Justin: Cool. Very cool. Mr. Myers: Good. When we are finished, we need to test it to see if it functions perfectly. Justin: Ok. Then alarms go off. Justin: What's happening. Mr. Myers: It must be an attack. Justin: An angel attack. Mr. Myers: Not likely. You have the angels to deal with while we have the army. Justin: The... the army. Why. Mr. Myers: They are attempting to shut us down. They don't think we should be doing this. Then Commander Jones walks in. Commander Jones: Attention. We have a situation. The army is attempting to shut us down. We need to dispatch unit 4. Mr. Myers: We can't. We are still upgrading it. Commander Jones: You can continue after. Where's the pilot. Mr. Myers: Over there. He points to the left. Commander Jones sees him and walks over. Commander Jones: Mr. Powers. How are you son. Justin: Fine commander sir. Commander Jones: Good. Get ready to launch unit 4. Justin: Yes sir. Justin heads over to unit 4 and gets in the entry plug. Everyone stops what they were doing and leaves. The entry plug gets inserted. Unit 4 activates. The bridge moves and unit 4 is free. Justin has unit 4 leave the hangar and goes outside. Outside, he sees army tanks surrounding the facility. He looks up and sees choppers surrounding him. Justin: Hmm. So, you want some. Come get it. He only has 4:58:00 left on his internal battery. He charges at them and the choppers fire at him but don't even scratch him. He grabs one and swings it around destroying the other ones. The tanks move closer and fire bombs at him which don't damage him. He steps on one causing it to explode. He then grabs the other one by the turret and tosses it. In the command room, everyone is in their stations. Commander Jones: What's unit 4's status of power. Mr. Jack: 4:29:78 sir. Commander Jones: Good. How about the army's defense. Mr. Myers: All choppers destroyed. Two tanks are also gone. Just 6 left. Commander Jones: Good. They all watch the monitor in front as unit 4 rips apart another tank. Unit 4 goes after two other tanks and steps on them both. With just 3 left, this will end quick or so Justin thinks. 2 of the tanks fire missiles at him but he just waves his arms at them and they blow up the tanks. Unit 4 jumps up and lands on the tank making it blow up. With all army weapons gone, unit 4 heads back but not before a giant robot appears. It's almost like an Evangelion but a robot. Commander Jones: Damn. Justin watch out. This robot is tough. Justin: Don't worry. It'll go down quick. Unit 4 charges at the robot but the robot lifts it up as it does and tosses it across it. The robot then charges and fire's a missile out of it's head. Unit 4 gets up and see's it. Justin has unit 4 grab it and tosses it back destroying the robot. Justin: Told you it would. Unit 4 then heads back and goes back into the hangar. It get's locked up and then the entry plug ejects and justin comes out. Commander jones walks up to him. Commander jones: Good job son. You took them all out with just 3:45:22 left on your internal battery. That's quite impressive. Justin: Thank you sir. Commander jones: Say, would you be interested in staying here for now on too. Justin: Um, well. Commander jones: It be better then japan right. You be in your country again where everyone is the same as you. Justin: Ya, but. Commander jones: But what. Did you meet someone overthere that you dont want to leave. Justin: It's not that sir. You know about the angels correct. Commander jones: I know of Adam the first but the others no. Justin: Well, they returned. I need to be over there to help defeat them. Commander jones: True. They wouldnt come here anyway, but you still be useful. The army has been trying to shut us down but with you and unit 4, you can beat them. Justin: Even if that's true. Eva wasnt built for things like these. They were built for fighting the angels. Commander jones: True. But there wont be any eva's left to fight the angels if the army shuts us down before we can finish unit 3 and send it to japan. We need you. Justin: I'll have to ask my guardian about this. Commander jones: Your guardian. You arent suppose to have a guardian. Justin: I know. But i do now. You have a phone. Commander jones: Sure. It's right by the door before you leave. Justin: Thanks. Continue the upgrade too. Commander jones: Of course. He turns around to everyone else. Well, you heard him. Get to work. Everyone nods and start working. Justin grabs the phone by the door and leaves the room. He dials misato's cell phone. In japan, in misato's apartment, misato's cell starts ringing and she grabs it off the table in front of the futon. Misato: Hello. Katsuragi here. On the other side. Justin: Hello. Hi misato. Misato: Oh, it's you justin. How's it going. Justin: Good. There almost done with unit 4. Misato: Good. Your coming back tomorrow right. Justin: Um, well. I need to talk to you about that. Misato: You are coming back right. Justin: Well, i was... asked to stay here. They asked me to stay here because they had an army attack and i did well in unit 4. They think since the army would shut them down and i did good, they want me here. Misato: Are you out of your frackin' mind boy. You cant stay there. You belong at this NERV, not the one your at. We need you here to beat the angels with shinji. Justin: I know but, i think i might. It's good i'm back home. Misato: It may be good but your not staying there. Justin: But. Misato (angry) YOUR NOT STAYING THERE AND THAT'S FINAL. UNDERSTAND. Justin: Misato. Misato (still angry): IF YOU STAY THERE, I'LL COME OUT THERE AND GET YOU MYSELF. I'M YOUR GUARDIAN AND OFFICER. YOU ARE STAYING HERE. UNDERSTAND. Justin: Yes. Misato: Good. I better see you when you come back tomorrow or else. She hangs up and justin only hears the dial tone. Justin: That went well. But still. I think i'll stay here anyway. I'm american not japanese. He goes inside and hangs up the phone. Justin: Commander. The commander turns around and goes towards justin. Commander jones: So, did your guardian say yes. Justin: Well, no. But i've decided i'll stay here. Commander jones: Great. That's great son. Justin: Unit 4 is looking pretty good. Commander jones: Of course. It's almost done. All that's left is adding the progressive knives in and it'll be good to go. Justin: Good. Was justin's decision wise. Especially if misato finds out. To be continued.

Now then. A few hours have passed and unit 4 is finally upgraded. Justin was outside looking at all the green grass and trees when Mr. Myers comes out. Mr. Myers: Justin. Come on back in. Unit 4 is done. Justin gets up from his spot and follows him in. Justin sees unit 4. It's black with red. Its shoulder blades look like unit 1's. Justin: So, unit 4 is done huh. Mr. Myers: That is correct. It's good to go. Its internal battery got fixed too. Instead of 5 minutes on maximum power, it's now 10. Also, it's 2 minutes on minimal power instead of 1. Justin: That's good. So, any idea where I'll be staying since I'm staying here now. Mr. Myers: No. You would have to ask the commander that. Why don't you. Justin: Uh, sure. Where's his office. Mr. Myers: It's where the hallway is by the right door up there. In the hallway, go all the way down and you'll see a big door. That's the commander's office. Justin: Thanks. He leaves. He enters the door on the upper level and goes down the hallway like Mr. Myers said. Soon enough, he reaches the big doors. He enters them. Justin: Um, commander. The commander was looking out his window but turns around to see Justin. Commander Jones: Ahh, Justin. I was about to call you. Have a seat son. Justin goes and sits down in the chair in front of the commander. Commander Jones: You came here to find out where you will be staying right. Justin: Correct sir. Commander Jones: You will be staying with Miss Yashima. Justin: WHAT. Commander Jones: You heard me. Justin: Why do I have to stay with her. Commander Jones: Because, she seems to really like you. And, she seems reliable. Justin: (thinks to himself) Yeah right. I know what she's gonna do to me if we're alone. I'd kill myself first. He comes out of his thoughts. I still don't think that's a good reason sir. Commander Jones: You doubting my choice son. Justin: Well, YES. Commander Jones: Now look here son. You may have been over at Japan for a while, but that still doesn't mean you can decide who you could live with. Justin: Like hell I can. You're not even my commander anymore. I don't have to listen to you. Commander Jones: You do now. You will live with Miss Yashima. Got it. Justin: Yes sir. He gets up and leaves his office. When he left, he sees Katiko outside his office with her ear against the door. Justin looks at her. Justin: What were you doing. Katiko stands up. Katiko: Uh, nothing. Justin: Sure you weren't. Katiko: It doesn't matter now anyway. I heard me and you get to live together. Justin: Unfortunately. Katiko looks at him. Katiko: What do you mean by that. You're the one who decided to live here you know. You could've gone back but you decided not to. Justin: I know. (thinks to himself) Misato is really gonna be pissed off when she finds this out. He comes out of his thoughts. Katiko is just staring at him worried. Katiko: Is something wrong. Justin: No. Katiko: Ok. Well, let me show you your place. Katiko takes Justin's hand in hers and brings him to her place. In Japan's NERV. Ritsuko is on the phone in her office. Ritsuko: Is that right. Commander Jones in on the other end. Commander Jones: Yes ma'am. He's decided to stay here. Ritsuko: Well, it wasn't your place to decide let alone ask him you know. Commander Jones: It was when he came. Ritsuko: He's not even your concern. He was to go there with unit 4 so it can get upgraded not get asked to stay. Commander Jones: Of course. But seeing how he handled those tanks and choppers and more importantly that robot with unit 4, we just had to. Besides, you don't need him there anyway. He's more important here. In his own country. Ritsuko: He did tell you that the angels are back right. Commander Jones: Yes. Ritsuko: We need him to beat them. Commander Jones: Not anymore. He's gonna stay with us. Ritsuko: We'll see. She hangs the phone up angrily. Damn you. You're not supposed to stay there. When Misato finds out, you are in so much trouble. Just as she said that Misato came walking in. Ritsuko looks and sees now the perfect time to tell her. Ritsuko: Misato. Misato looks at her friend. Misato: Yeah. Ritsuko: I got something to tell you. Misato: About what. Ritsuko: About Justin. Misato: What about him. Ritsuko: Well, I just got off the phone with the commander from the first branch and it would seem he's chosen to stay there. Misato: (mad) HE

DID WHAT!Ritsuko:You heard me.Misato:DAMN HIM.I'M GOING OVER THERE AND GETTING HIM RIGHT NOW.Ritsuko:You might want to bring a aircraft that can carry unit 4 too.Misato:Dont worry.I'm intending on bringing it back too.She storms out of her office.Ritsuko:That went well.He's gonna get it from her.Then from me.Back in the first branch,katiko has brought justin to a house just a few meters from HQ.It's white on the bottom with a pink roof.Katiko:This is where i live justin.Justin:It's a nice place.Katiko:Thanks.Let me show you the inside.She grabs a key from her pocket and unlocks the door.She heads inside and justin follows.He see's the living room clean.The floor is shiny and nothing's misplaced.Katiko:This is where you'll be living.Ok.Justin:Sure.Katiko:You'll sleep on the couch for now.Is that allright.Justin:Sure.Katiko:Ok.Now that i've shown you where you live,you have to go back for a test with unit 4.Justin:Why?Nothings wrong.Katiko:Of course not.You just need to test unit 4 and see how it is now with being upgraded.Justin:Oh ok.He leaves the house and goes back to the NERV building.Meanwhile,misato is speeding to the airport mad like hell.She avoids the cars and even swears at some becuase of how pissed off she is.She makes it to the airport and parks her car almost tipping it over.She heads inside and talks to one of the airline people.Misato:Hey.I need one of those carriers.Airline assistant:And what for?Misato:I'm going somewhere.And i need one to carry something important.Airline assistant:I'm sorry but those are only for the army and NERV.Misato:I'm with NERV.Now hurry up.Airline assisant:Oh allright.A carrier will be brought out in 2 minutes.Misato:No.NOW.Airline assistant:Yes ma'am.He picks up the phone.After a few minutes,he puts the phone down.Airline assistant:A carrier is being brought out now.It'll be ready in 15 seconds.Misato:Thank you.She leaves and heads around the airport and see's the carrier being brought out of the hangar.It stops moving.Misato goes over and gets on board.She takes a seat and the craft takes off.At the first branch.Justin went in the NERV building and is now getting ready to test unit 4.Justin:So,what kind of test am i doing exactly.Mr.myers:To test how unit 4 operates now being upgraded.Justin:Is that so.I dont need my plug suit do i.If i do,i dont have it with.Mr.Myers:Dont worry.You dont need it.Justin:Allright.He walks over to unit 4 and gets in the entry plug.Mr.Myers:Insert entry plug.Mr.Jack:Entry plug being inserted.The entry plug gets inserted.Mr:Myers:Start the activation system.Mr.Jack:Right.He types on the computer.Mr.Jack:Activation system started.All Nerve pulses are fine.Heart rate is stable.Harmonics are also fine.His synch ratio is at 67%.Mr.Myers:That's excellent.All right.Let's get started.Inside the entry plug.Justin just stares at the screens in front that allowed him to see what the eva see's.Then a commlink appears and mr.myers face appears on it.Mr.Myers:Allright justin.Listen up.You just have to move the eva like you normally do.But you dont have to do that.We are gonna have a stimulated battle for you.It's gonna be against the third angel you fought over in japan.This is to test out unit 4's new system.Understand.Justin:Yes.Mr.Myers:Good.The commlink dissapears.Start the program.NERV techs:Yes sir.Mr.Myers:Mr.Jack.Begin.Mr.Jack:Yes sir.He types on his computer and the hangar becomes a battle field.A plain battle field.The third angel then appears across from unit 4.Mr.Myers:Justin.We are gonna test out unit 4's internal batteries and fighting got it.Justin:Yes sir.Mr.Myers:BEGIN!Justin has unit 4 charge at the fake angel but sachiel fires a cross beam and knocks it down.Unit 4 tries to get up but sachiel comes over and picks it up with it's hand.It then charges the spear in it's hand and shoots it but unit 4 breaks it's arm before it did.Unit 4 then raises it's leg and kicks the angel back cracking it's core a bit.Mr.Myers:Justin.Open up both shoulder blades for two progressive knives.Then pull them out.Justin:Uh,sure.He has unit 4 open it's two shoulder blades and grabs both progressive knives into it's hands.Now what?Mr.Myers:Put them together.Justin:Ok.He puts both knives together and they form a sword.Mr.Myers:That is a progressive sword.Twice as strong as a progressive knife.Use it on the angel.Justin:Sure.Unit 4 charges at the angel with the sword and swings it at it's core slicing it in two causing it to explode.Mr.Myers:Now.Do you see a switch next to the left arm switch that controls the left arm. Justin:Yeah.Mr.Myers:Press it.He does so and wings appear out of his eva's back.Justin:Wow.It has wings!Mr.Myers:Yes.We had that added in.It could help.Try them out.Justin:Sure.He has unit 4 flap it's wings and flies around but falls to the ground.Mr.Myers:Dont worry.You'll get the hang of it.End the program.Mr.Jack:Yes sir.The battle ground changes back to the hangar.Unit 4's wings dissappear and the progressive sword is back in two and back in both shoulder blades.Unit 4 gets secured and the entry plug ejects.Justin comes out.Justin:So,how i do.Mr.Jack:Very good.Even if it was a stimulation,your synch ratio went up by 3 %.Justin:Awsome.Mr.Myers:Speaking of which.Did you ever use that cloning technique over in japan.Justin:Hmm.Oh,yeah,yeah.I did.It was against the 5th angel.I made a copy of unit 4 and had it self-destruct close up while the real me was in the geo front.Of course,it didnt work and everyone thought i was dead.After the angel was beaten,i came back up from the geo front and surprised everyone.I didnt get punished or anything.I just had to explain what happened is all.Mr.Myers:Interesting.But that technique is dangerous.You know that right.Justin:Of course.The real pilot takes twice as much pain since the clone isnt real.On board the carrier,misato looks out the window and see's the first branch.The carrier then lands and she gets out.She walks to the hangar which is open and see's justin with two guys.She's mad and walks up to them after climbing up the stairs.Justin however doesnt notice as he's two busy talking.Misato:(Pissed)JUSTIN POWERS.Justin hears that voice and looks behind the two doctors and see's a very pissed off misato.Justin:(softly)Oh shoot.I'm gonna get it now.Misato walks up to him and is in his face.Misato:What the hell do you think you were doing.Justin:Oh,misato.I,um,you see.Misato:I dont want to listen.You are coming back NOW.Justin:What?No way am i going back.Misato:Yes you are.Now come on.She grabs his arm and starts pulling him.Mr.Myers and Mr.Jack see misato dragging him with her.Mr.Myers:Hey.Who the hell do you think you are?Misato turns around.Misato:I'm his guardian.And i'm taking him back.Mr.Myers:You cant.He belongs here now.Misato:Like the frack he does.Mr.Jack:He does.If you take him,i'll call the cops.Misato:You cant.I'm his guardian you stupid idiot.Mr.Myers:Not anymore your not.He lives with someone else now.Misato:Bullshoot.She turns to justin.Is this true?Justin:Yes.Misato:I see.Well,come on.Get in unit 4 and let's go.Justin:I'm not going.Misato:Yes you are.Justin:No i'm not.Misato:You are.Justin:No.Misato:Oh come on.You know you miss me.Justin:That may be.But i've chosen.Misato:(seductively)You think so.She gets closer to him.He thinks she's gonna kiss him but instead she grabs him and runs over to unit 4 opening the entry plug.They both get in.She puts him in the pilots seat.Misato:Start it up.Justin:No.Misato:Damn you.Do it.Justin:I said no.I'm staying here.Misato:Is that a fact.Justin:Yes it is.Misato:All right.I guess you dont want to sleep with me then huh.Justin blushes.Justin:Uh,i um dont want to.Misato:Sure about that.She winks at him.Justin blushes again.Justin:Ok.You win.Unit 4 starting up.Unit 4 started up.Now begining interface.Interface up.Nerve connections connected.Language set for english.Mr.Jack:Unit 4 is activating.Mr.Myers:Stop it.Mr.Jack:Yes sir.He types on the computer.Mr.Jack:Cant.It's rejecting us.Mr.Myers:Damn it.In the entry plug.Justin:Ok.Everything is ready.Power remaining is 9:59:00.Unit 4 moving out.Unit 4 breaks out of the locks breaking the bridge.It then moves towards the exit.Mr.Myers:Shut the doors.Shut the power off too.Mr.Jack:Roger.He types on the computer.The doors to the hangar cloeses.Mr.Jack:The doors are shut.But we cant shut off unit 4's power.Mr.Myers:Damn it.Oh well.At least they cant leave.Unit 4 breaks through the doors and goes outside.Mr.Myers:shoot.The commander's gonna have my @$$ for this.Unit 4 is now outside.Misato:What the hell?Where's the transporter.Unit 4 looks around but see's nothing.Justin:What transporter?Misato:I came here on a transporter to bring unit 4 back.Then a commlink appears in the entry plug.Commander jones apeears on it.Commander jones:Boy are you fools.Thought you could leave after saying you were staying.I was right wasnt i.There was someone you found.Justin knows what he means and looks at misato then looks back.Justin:So what.I'm going back.Commander jones:Sorry son.But without the carrier,you cant.Justin:I have another way.He presses the switch next to the left arm control.Wings come's out of unit 4.Misato is surprised.Justin:I have these.Commander jones:True.But with what power you have left and how far you'll have to go,you wont make it son.The commlink dissappears.Justin:We'll see.Unit 4 flaps it's wings and get's off the ground and heads back for japan. While flying, misato falls asleep. Justin looks at her from time to time and tells himself he's glad he's going back. With 9:34:44 left, he'll make it. To be continued.

27 - Misato in trouble

Now on their way back to Japan in the newly upgraded Unit 4, things seem to go good. Unit 4 is flying over the country of the U.S while Misato still sleeps. Justin just looks ahead seeing how nothing could happen. Justin: (Sighs) Looks like I have to leave again. Maybe I'll come back permanently after I'm done piloting. So long America as he gets one more look of the United States before the view changing to the Pacific Ocean. As Unit 4 passes over, something fires at it from below. Of course not enough to damage it but to notice at least. Justin stops Unit 4 and looks down to see a bunch of Navy ships firing cannon balls at them. Unit 4 swerves back and forth avoiding the cannon fires. He then flies down and lands on one. He closes its wings. The comm link then appears. Navy Captain: Are you the pilot of this thing. Justin: Yeah. Navy Captain: We have orders from the first branch to shoot you down if we saw you. Justin: What. Who would. But he remembers who exactly. Commander Jones. That bastard. He just couldn't let me leave. Alright. Listen up. I'm giving you one chance to stop or else. Navy Captain: Screw you kid. FIRE. All the cannons on the ship plus 4 more that surround Unit 4 fires. Justin: Alright. You asked for it. Unit 4 waves its arms around in a circle and an AT field appears destroying all cannons. Unit 4 then jumps up and lands really hard making a hole in its spot. The ship now sinks. Unit 4 has its wings out again and flies up. Seeing the ship sink from the entry plug, Justin was hoping it didn't end like that but it had to. He was also thankful Misato didn't wake up too or who knows what would have happened. Glancing at how much time is left on the internal battery, Justin has Unit 4 continuing flying to Japan. Unit 4 starts flying but a missile is shot from one of the ships and hits Unit 4 pretty hard making Justin scream in a little pain and making it fall towards the ocean. Misato also wakes up from all this. Misato rubbing her eyes: What the hell is going on. She notices Unit 4 is falling. Misato: Hey Justin. Watch out. Justin. She sees Justin is unconscious. Misato: He's out cold. What the hell happened anyway. Unit 4 makes a splash and lands in the water. Misato can see little Navy boats coming to surround them. Misato: What. Navy boats. What are the Navy doing. The boats have now surrounded the unit. From one of the boats, she sees the captain. She has the entry plug eject hoping she can explain. The plug ejects and Misato comes out. Misato: Who the hell do you think you're doing. Navy Captain: More importantly. Who are you. Where's the pilot. Misato looks in the entry plug and sees Justin still out. Misato: None of your damn business. Navy Captain: It is our business if we've been ordered to kill him. The first branch wants him dead. Now. Where is he. Misato: None of your business. Navy Captain: Alright. Fine. Have it your way. If you won't say, we'll capture you and have you tell us what we want to know. Seize her. Two people from the other boat behind Misato captures her and takes her on the boat. The boats all go back to the larger boat. Meanwhile, Justin wakes up in the entry plug rubbing his head. Justin: Ouch. What hit me. He looks around to see the ocean. Justin: Hmm. Must of fell. I'll get us back up. He looks behind to make sure Misato is alright but doesn't see her. Justin: Those Navy jerks must have her. He then crawls out of the entry plug and looks around to see if there is any sign of them. He notices a large boat in the distance. Justin: They must have her there. Those bastards. They are gonna get it now. He goes back in the entry plug and inserts it again. He starts up Unit 4. Unit 4 now swims over to the boat and jumps on top of it. He ejects the entry plug and shuts down Unit 4. He jumps out and lands on the deck. He goes over to the door behind him and enters it. He carefully sneaks up to the railing and peers over. He sees Misato tied up to a wall and a bunch of Navy guys questioning her including the captain. Navy Captain: Now for the last time. Where is the pilot. Misato: None of your damn business. Captain: Really now. Fine. Men. Get your guns ready and fire at will. All the Navy workers get their guns out. Captain: Now tell me what I want to know or else. Misato: Go to hell. Captain: Fine. Ready, aim, Justin jumps from the railing and rams the captain.All the navy workers turn their attention to him and starts firing.Justin jumps out of each shot and kicks each in the face really hard making them drop their guns.He goes over to misato and unties her.Misato:Thank you for saving me.Justin:No problem.Now let's get out of here.She nods.They both proceed to leave but the captain get's up.Captain:And where do you think your going.Justin:We're leaving.Captain:No your not.I have you now.Say goodbye.He pulls out a gun and fires but misses and justin jumps up and kicks him hard in the face knocking him down.He then grabs misato's hand and quickly leaves.They get back in the entry plug and unit 4 activates.Unit 4's wings appears and takes off.But before leaving,unit 4's shoulder blades turns around and opens.Missles fire from them and blow up the ship causing it to sink.The blades close and turns back around.Unit 4 then flies off.In the entry plug.Misato:Thank you for rescuing me.Justin:No big deal.Still mad about what i did.Misato:No.Not anymore.Justin:Good.I'm just glad your safe.Misato:Really.Justin:Yes.Misato:Good.Just wait till we get back.She winks at him and he blushes.Unit 4 continues flying.Now finally arriving back at tokyo 3,unit 4 lands and gets took back to NERV through the escape route.Unit 4 is put back in it's cage and it's wings dissappear.The entry plug ejects and both misato and justin comes out.The time that was left on unit 4's internal battery was 1:12:03.The eva get's secured and is greeted by Ritsuko.Ritsuko:Justin.You came back huh.Justin:Yes.Ritsuko:So,did you get it from misato.Justin:Unfortunately.Ritsuko:Good.Now i dont have to yell at you.Misato:After what he did for me a while ago,i'm just gonna drop it.Ritsuko looks at misato.Ritsuko:Are you serious.After what he did,i told the commander and he wasnt pleased.He wants to see you in his office justin.Justin:Alright.He leaves.Ritsuko:So,what did he exactly do that changed your mind.Misato:He saved me from these NAVY people.Ritsuko:Really.But how did you get captured.Misato starts telling her.After a few minutes,she understands.Ritsuko:That's why.They wanted to kill him just because he wanted to come back.Misato:Yes.Ritsuko:Unbelievable.Well,it's a good thing he came back then huh.Misato:I'll say.In the commander's office.Justin:Commander sir.I came as requested.Gendo:Very good.I heard that you wished to remain at the first branch.Is that so.Justin:Yes sir.It is.Gendo:You do know that both you and unit 4 belong here and not there anymore.Justin:Yes i do.Gendo:Good.I also have an understanding that you told one of the staff members there that we tampered with unit 4.Justin:Of course i did.You really didnt have any rights to mess with it to begin with.Gendo:I see.You may leave.Justin:Yes sir.He turns to leave but the commander says something else before he does.Gendo:Pilot powers.Justin turns around.Justin:Yes sir.Gendo:If you do anything like this again,you will be replaced as a pilot for unit 4.Am i clear.Justin:Yes sir.Gendo:Then leave.Justin turns around and leaves.Gendo:Hmm.What are those people at the first branch thinking.This isnt what i've planned.Outside the office,justin walks the hallway of NERV thinking.Justin(thinks to himself):Damn.Ikari must suspect something now.After what i did,he must suspect by now.Of course,he wont be around long enough to say anything if he does now.He,he,he.He continues down the hall.He goes to the elevator and goes down to the floor the exit is on.He gets out and proceeds to the exit where misato is waiting for him.Misato:Been waiting for ya.How it go in the commander's office.Justin:Fine.Just fine.He says as they both walk out.Once outside,misato realizes that her car is at the airport.Misato:shoot.My car is at the airport.Justin:Why?Misato:How else would i get there.Justin:By cab.Misato:Funny.Very funny.Justin:Seriously.Anyway,why didnt you say something before we came back.I've could of went and dropped you off at the airport with unit 4.Misato:I dont know.Justin mutters yeah right and misato heard him.She grabs him and puts him in a head lock.Misato:What was that.Justin:Nothing.She releases him.Misato:There was a reason i didnt say anything.The internal battery power was gonna run out and well i thought.Justin:It had a minute left.I think we've would of made it.Whatever.I'll go and get it.Give me the keys.Misato:Nope.Sorry.I know what you did to ritsuko's car.Justin:So.It's not like you do any better.Especially when DRIVING.Misato looks at him and grabs him with her arms.Misato:Take that back or i'm not letting go.Justin:Why.It's true.Misato squeezes tighter.Misato:Still wont take it back.Justin:Nope.She squeezes even tighter.Misato:How about

now. Justin gasps for air: All...right. I...take...it...back. She releases him. Justin quickly grabs into her purse and takes the keys and runs off. Misato: HEY. GET BACK HERE AND GIVE ME MY KEYS. Justin yells back. No. I'll be back soon. Misato lets out a sigh. She decides to go to a bar that just opened up across the street while she waits so she goes inside. A few hours later and now being night time a loud noise could be heard as a blue car comes speeding and almost toppling over. Justin exits the car. Justin: Misato. He looks around but doesn't see her. Justin: HEY MISATO. He still doesn't see her. He turns around and sees a bar across the street and he thinks to himself. Justin: I'm gonna guess and say she's at the bar. He walks across the street and goes in the bar. Inside, he sees a bunch of drunk people either drinking or starting fights. He starts looking around for Misato and doesn't see her till he hears her voice. He follows the voice till he finds the door to the back room open and two guys having Misato undressed while she's drunk. Guy 1: You be a good girl and let us please you. Guy 2: Yah. Yah. Please you. Misato (drunk): Sure. I like being pleased. The first guy comes closer to her and takes his pants and underwear off. He turns Misato around and is about to enter her when Justin bursts into the room realizing that he might have done something very stupid. Guy 1 notices him. Guy 1: Who the hell are you kid. And more importantly, why are you here. You aren't allowed in here kid so go home. Justin: Not without her. He points to Misato. Guy 1: huh. Her. Your kidding right. She's with us now kid so go home and eat or something. I'm busy right now. Justin then lunges at the guy and punches him in the face. Knocking him on the ground. The other guy comes at him and tries to punch but misses and Justin trips him and kicks him hard sending him across the room. Both guys get up and pull their guns out. They fire but miss and before they could shoot again, he kicks them in the face and grabs them and tosses them out. Justin yells at them: DONT YOU DARE GO AFTER HER AGAIN. He stops and turns to Misato. He goes over to her. Misato (Still drunk): Hey. What happened to those guys. Why you scare them off. Justin: Are you stupid. They were gonna rape you. I saved you. Misato: So. They were gonna please me. Justin: CANT YOU THINK OF ANYTHING BUT SEX. GET YOUR CLOTHES ON AND LET'S GO. Misato starts crying. Misato: I'm...sorry. I didn't realize what they were doing. They said they were gonna please me so. Justin: So what. You just don't go with strangers. Sheesh. Look at you. You're drunk. You almost got raped if I didn't show up. Misato starts crying. Misato: I'm sorry. I really am. Justin: Whatever. Come on. He helps Misato up and she grabs her clothes and they both leave. They get back to her car and Justin helps dress Misato. She gets in the passenger side while Justin gets in the driver's side. Misato looks over at Justin and can tell he's mad. Misato: Justin. I'm...I'm really sorry. Justin: You better be. She stops talking and looks like she's gonna cry but Justin bends over and kisses her softly on the lips. Justin: There, Now let's go before Shinji worries. He pauses. SHINJI. Misato. You did tell Shinji didn't you. Misato (Still drunk): I think sooo. Justin: Perfect. He then lets out a sigh and starts the car back up. He backs the car up and leaves for her apartment. Minutes later they arrive at the apartment. Justin helps Misato up the stairs and into the apartment. He then helps her to bed and takes her clothes off and puts her night clothes on. He gently lays her on the bed and leaves while closing the door on his way out. Justin: At least she fell asleep. He then goes to the futon and lies down going to sleep. He hears the door to Misato's room open and hears foot steps come out. Misato approaches the futon and looks down. Misato (a little drunk still) Softly: Thank you for saving me again. She gently kisses him on the forehead and goes back to her room. To be continued.

28 - Jet Alone

It is now the next morning and Justin can smell coffee and toast. He wakes up and looks around to the kitchen and sees Shinji eating toast and having coffee. He gets up and goes over to the table. Justin: Morning Shinji. Shinji: Morning Justin. Justin sits in a chair on the right of Shinji. Shinji: You want breakfast. I can make some if you want. Justin: No thanks. Shinji: Ok. Hey. Where were you and Misato yesterday. Justin: I was at the first branch of NERV and Misato came to pick me up. It's a long story and I don't want to bore you with the details. Shinji: Oh, alright. He takes a bite out of his toast. They hear the door from Misato's room open and see a sleepy yet hangover Misato come out scratching her belly and yawning. Shinji: Uh, good morning. Misato (yawns) Good morning you two. She goes and takes a seat across from Shinji while opening her beer from the fridge. After drinking some down, she lets out her famous beer yell. Shinji just looks at her. Shinji: What's wrong with coffee. Misato: You have a problem with tradition. Don't you know that a traditional Japanese breakfast is made with steamed rice, miso-soup and a little sake. Shinji: Your tradition maybe. Misato: Excuse me. Shinji: And incidentally, whose turn was it to cook today anyway. Misato looks away. Shinji: Now I know why your lonely Misato. You gonna be an old maid. Misato looks back at him with her eye twitching. Misato: Are you saying I'm lazy. Shinji: And sloppy too. Misato: Oh leave me alone. I'm sure Justin doesn't think that. She turns to Justin who was just sitting there staring. Misato: Right. Justin: Actually, I agree. Misato: What. Justin: After yesterday with you being drunk and all, I can't really doubt what Shinji is saying isn't gonna be true. Misato: Oh fine. Shinji: I'm done. At the commander's office in NERV. Gendo (On the phone): I would appear to owe you yet again. Mysterious voice: You won't pay me back anyway, will you. As for the materials they requested under the authority of the information publicity control, I provided them with false information. The administration's preparation of the legal act will be blocked any day now. What about that anyway. Should I do something about it in case something happens. Gendo: There will be no need for it. The material from you does not suggest any problems. Mysterious voice: All right. I'll continue the plan then. Shinji has now gotten up from the table and is now washing the dishes. Shinji: So, you aren't really coming to our school today are you. Misato takes the piece of toast in her mouth out and speaks. Misato: Of course I am. It's your guy's parent teacher meeting. Shinji: But you seem so busy with work and everything. Misato: It's no problem really. You guys are part of my job anyway. Shinji and Justin: Part of YOUR job huh. Misato: Oh, well. Justin: So, we are just your job and nothing more huh. Misato turns away. Justin gets up and goes to get dressed. Moments later, he comes back dressed. Justin: Alright. I'm ready to go. Shinji: I'm almost ready too. We just need to wait for Kensuke and Toji. Shinji turns to Misato. Shinji: Um, Misato. When Kensuke and Toji come, don't go out looking like that. Misato: Looking like what. He means the way she's dressed. She's in her night clothes which are loose and her bra is showing with a bit of cleavage and her pants are partly down. Justin comes into the kitchen. Justin: He means don't look like your gonna strip your clothes off. Misato: Oh, you mean like this. She starts taking her clothes off slowly. Justin is blushing. Justin: Yes. Like that. Misato: Sure. I'll save it for when you get home. She winks at him. They then hear a knock on the door. Shinji: It must be them. He goes to the door and opens it. Both Toji and Kensuke are there. Toji and Kensuke: Morning Ikari. Shinji: Morning. Kensuke: Where's Powers. Shinji: He's coming. Justin comes out of the kitchen and to the door. Justin: Morning guys. Toji: Sure. Morning. Shinji and Justin: We're leaving. Misato from the kitchen: Have a nice day. Kensuke: Man. Misato is so cool. Toji: And hot. Shinji: Let's just go. All four leave. In the kitchen, Misato is in a towel as she just got done with a quick shower. Misato looks down through her towel and smiles as it shows some of her features. Misato (to herself): I'll bet Justin would really blush if he saw the show from below me. Shinji probably would faint too. Heh. But it's good to see Shinji expressing himself freely and seeing Justin happy especially what happened on Saturday is good. But he probably doesn't forgive me for getting drunk like I did and almost getting raped. He's probably still upset that I never told Shinji. Oh well. She comes back out of her thoughts and grabs a beer from the fridge. She opens it and drinks some down. She then grabs the phone on the side of the fridge. She dials a number and hears a voice. Misato on the phone: Hello. Yes. They both just left. Keep your eyes on both of them. She hangs the phone up and goes to the futon and turns on the TV. She hears the fridge open and PEN PEN Comes waddling out to Misato. PEN PEN: Sqwak. Misato looks down and sees the penguin. Misato: Oh pen pen. Didn't anyone feed you. He lets out another sqwak. Misato: Guess not. I'll feed you. She gets up and goes into the kitchen. At the school a few hours later. Shinji and Justin are both looking out the window and hear a screech and see a blue car rushing into the parking lot. All the boys from all classes rush to the window. The car door opens and Misato comes out. She's in a yellow dress with a white shirt on and takes her sunglasses off. She starts walking with her purse in her hand. Students: Who's that. Students: Don't know but whoever she lives with, is lucky. Toji and Kensuke are by the window looking out and staring at Misato. Toji: Boy. Misato sure is beautiful. Shinji and Justin: We don't think so. Kensuke: She is so awesome. I'm glad I have my camera with me. He's also filming her. Justin: Don't know why you think she's THAT awesome. Shinji: Yeah. Honestly. She isn't that good looking. Toji: You don't get it. Neither one of you. Kensuke: Yeah. Toji: She's not awesome at just looking good looking but also for being NERV's Tactic manager. Kensuke: It's a good thing you two are baby's at this. Toji: Yeah. You're no competition to us. You two can keep the earth safe while we keep Misato safe. Right Kensuke. Kensuke: Right. They both slap both boys' backs. Girl students: What a bunch of idiots. Can't believe we have class with guys who go overboard at any women they see. Toji: I wish Misato was my girlfriend. Justin: I don't think you should. Toji: And why is that. Justin: (thinks to himself) She's a drunk slob who's lazy and only thinks about sex. That's why. Kensuke: Well, no matter. He pushes his glasses up. Kensuke: You guys aren't having a good chance anyway. Shinji mutters whatever. Now at NERV in units 1 and 4. Both units have reached the critical temperature and now move on to the second stage. Both boys wonder what Eva really is and why they are so important while in the entry plugs. Now both boys are on the elevator with Ritsuko, Misato and two of NERV's staff. Ritsuko: How are unit 0's chest components. Makoto: Completely destroyed. We have to make new ones again. But with our budgets, we might not be able to. Ritsuko: Of course. I hope our job gets easier when unit 2 comes. Justin: Unit 2? Ritsuko stares at him. Ritsuko: Yes. Unit 2 along with its pilot. Justin: Why the hell do we need another unit and pilot. You have Shinji and unit 1. Ayanami and unit 0. And finally. Me and unit 4. We really don't need another one. Ritsuko: I know it sounds dumb. But can't be too careful now. Makoto: Yeeeahh. Interesting conversation. Anyway, it could go another way with unit 2 coming. Disposing of those angels we killed is killing our budget. Misato: Of course. Humanity do have their hopes on us. Ritsuko: That may be true, but they need money as much as we do. Misato: Of course. The commander is off on another of his meetings again. Ritsuko: Yes. He should be on route right about now. Maya: At least it's quiet without him. On the jet. A man walks in the room where Gendo is and walks by him. Man: May I sit here. Gendo: Go ahead. The man sits down. Man: The draft amendment to the budget for the collecting samples has gone through. Also, the committee seems to be more careful with their budget. Gendo is looking out the window. Gendo: Of course they are. But they won't be so careful with their budget when it's not the only thing at stake. They will pay a lot of money just to stay alive especially when their lives are at risk. Also, the angels have returned as well. Man: Of course. The committee thought there weren't anymore angels, but now they might want to reconsider some things. Gendo: Since the angels have come, we have but little choice to beat them. Man: I understand that. No one wants another second impact. And speaking of angels, everyone except the U.S has agreed for the budget to construct unit 6. It's only a matter of time before the U.S agrees too. They seem allergic to employment. Gendo: And what of your country. Man: We will participate in the construction of unit

8. However, a pilot has not been found yet. Back at NERV on the transits. Shinji: So, your saying what we learned about second impact isn't right. Ritsuko: That's what I'm exactly saying. In the history books, it says second impact was caused by a meteorite that melted Antarctica. However, the truth was just covered up for the real cause. What truly caused second impact was the first humanoid creature known as the first angel. When mankind found this creature, they tried to contain what they found but failed and Adam as he is now called, shrank to an embryonic state and caused second impact. That is the truth behind second impact. Shinji: Then... the things we do now are for. Ritsuko: Right. The things we do are to stop a probable third impact. That's why NERV and the Evangelions exist. To stop that from happening. Justin: What if we fail. Ritsuko turns around. Ritsuko: If we fail, third impact happens. And life will cease no more. She then turns to Misato. Ritsuko: By the way, the event will occur tomorrow. You too. Justin: Misato: Right. Justin: WHAT! I'm not going. Ritsuko: You have to. Justin: Like hell I will. I have no reason. Ritsuko: Yes you do. They are showing off their robot called JET ALONE. We wish to show them unit 4. Especially since it got upgraded. Justin: Well, you can forget it. I'm not going. Take unit 1 and Shinji instead. Ritsuko: He doesn't want to go. Justin: So, your letting him not go but I have to go. Screw that. I'm not going and that's final. Ritsuko: Really now. She steps closer to Justin. She puts her chest up against his face making him blush. Justin: Alright. Alright. I'll go. She steps back but kisses him softly on the lips before stepping back. The next day, Shinji is up eating his usual toast and having his coffee. He also fed PEN PEN who is happily eating. They hear a door open and both Misato and Justin comes out all dressed up. Justin: I feel stupid in this. Are you sure I have to wear this. He's in a black suit with a red tie. Misato: Yes. Now quit complaining. We're going to old Tokyo on business Shinji. We'll be back later tonight so order something out. Bye. The door opens to outside and they both leave. They go meet Ritsuko at the airport and get on the transporter with unit 4. It takes off. A few hours later, they arrive at old Tokyo. Misato: This used to be the capital known as Tokyo. What a shame what happened. Ritsuko: Yes. This is the place. Justin looks out the window. Justin: So, this used to be Tokyo huh. Looks like a dump to me. Misato hits him on the head. Justin: OW! Why you hit me. Misato: Because what you said about Tokyo. Justin: Jeez. Sorry. I didn't even want to come. Misato: Your here now. Anyway, the JSSDF isn't getting involved with this are they. Ritsuko: Them? No. They're not allowed to interfere. Misato: I see. Guess that's why they do what they wish. Justin: I'm going to activate unit 4 now. He gets out of his seat between Ritsuko and Misato. But he gets stopped by Misato's foot. Misato: Sorry. You can't activate it yet. Justin: Fine. The carrier lands and they head inside to the table reserved for them with the sign that says NERV party. Chair: Ladies and gentlemen. Thank you for attending this unveiling by Nippon Heavy Industry Solidarity. You will witness the demonstration from the control room. Any questions before we move on. Ritsuko: Yes. Chair: Ah. The famous Dr. Akagi. We are honored to have you here today. Ritsuko: Thank you. I have a question. Chair: Sure. Ritsuko: According to the explanation, the unit is equipped with a nuclear reactor. Chair: Yes. That allows the unit to run on power for at least 150 days. Ritsuko: But looking at safety features, you risk too much using something like that in a land-based weapon. Chair: It's more useful than a weapon which lasts less than 5 minutes without its power cord. Ritsuko: But there would be a problem with remote-control in an emergency situation. Chair: Our system is more humane- it doesn't cause mental illness in pilots simply from stress. Misato: Stop. You are acting like little kids. Justin softly: You should know. Ritsuko: Your human interface also has problems. Chair: It's safer than your system. You let a berserk weapon like the Evangelion go wild in a city without control. It's like women. They are unpredictable like the Evangelion. Ritsuko: Our technology can control it. Chair: Are you saying that you can tame these beasts you made. Ritsuko: Of course. Chair: You can't be serious. Ritsuko: I most certainly am. Chair: It's because you trust unreliable minds, Nerv allowed that loss of control to happen. And from what I heard, it happened at least twice. As a result, the United Nations was forced to supplement your already huge budget. Do you know that there are more than 20 thousand starving people in some countries including America. At this Justin's ears perk up. Chair: The cause of that incident is still under investigation-you're lucky you're protected by a super-legal act. Ritsuko: The Eva's can only beat the angels. Chair: Not for much longer. We will find a way to break the AT field another way I assure you. NERV's spot in the sun will disappear. Now in a locker room, Misato is kicking the locker. Misato: Damn it. Damn it. DAMN IT. They are just getting revenge from those who failed to get NERV's acquisitions. This is really pissing me off too. Ritsuko: Oh calm down. He's acting like a child wanting attention. He's not worthy of paying attention too. Misato: Yeah. But how he find out about the AT field. Ritsuko: It's not secret anymore. It's gonna leak out. Misato: Intelligence must be dragging it's @$$.

Ritsuko: Speaking of which. Where did Justin go. Misato looks around and doesn't see him. Misato: I don't know. Meanwhile, Justin goes up to the chairman from earlier. Justin: Are you the chair person that was speaking. Chair: Why yes. Say, aren't you the 4th child and pilot for that beast. Justin: Yes. Chair: Sorry to hear you have to pilot something that can't be controlled. Justin: It can be. Unit 4 has been brought here to prove it. Chair: Really. Allright. We'll see afterwards. He leaves. Moments later everyone is at the Special window to view as so are Misato and Ritsuko. Chair: We're about to start the demonstration of the JA. There's nothing to worry about. No danger what so ever. Please watch through the window in front. Staff: Ready to begin. Chair: Start the test. A big building in front pulls apart and reveals the robot known as JET ALONE. Justin: So, that's the robot. Hmm. Let's just see if they can control it. Misato sees Justin looking out the window. Misato: Yes. Let's see if there robot can be controlled. Staff: Release all engine units. Pressure is regular. Circulation in the cooling system, no problem. Control rods, full release. We see the control rods come out of the robot's head. Staff: Engine going through critical point. Power, no problem. Chair: Start the walk cycle. Staff: Walk cycle beginning. Moving ahead slowly. Raise right foot ahead. The robot raises it's right foot ahead. Staff: Roger. Walk. Move ahead slowly. Raise right foot ahead. Balance is nominal. Engine is nominal. Time for the next stage. Raise left foot ahead. The robot moves forward with it's left foot. Justin: Hmm. It seems to be walking. That should make them proud. Then a noise is heard. Chair: What's wrong. Staff: Strange! The reactor pressure is building. The temperature of the first level cooling liquid is also rising. Chair: Open the release valve! Pump in the neutron-deceleration liquid! Staff: Negative! The pumps aren't responding. Chair: Oh, no! Shut off the power. Emergency stop. Staff: Transmission of the halt signal confirmed. It's rejected. It's out of control. Chair: What the hell. The robot comes closer and everyone in the observation room screams and runs. The robot steps on the building and continues going. Rubble has fallen from the roof. Justin: Cough...cough. I knew their robot couldn't be controlled. And now it's running a muck. Misato: The robot is misbehaved as the idiot who built it. Staff: Compression value is irregular. Control rods are non-operational. There is a danger of meltdown. Chair: No. This can't happen. JA has a fault tolerant system programmed for these situations. This can't happen. Misato walks up to the chair person. Misato: Now. There's a possibility of a meltdown near a populated area. Chair: We can't do anything but wait for it to stop. Misato: And that's very likely how. Staff: 0.00002%. It would be a miracle. Misato: There has to be something better than waiting for a miracle. She pauses for a moment. Misato: We'll use unit 4 to stop it. Chair: You mean that robot that you can't control. Misato: We may not be able to control it but the pilot can. Justin walks up next to Misato. Justin: I can control unit 4. You on the other hand can't control your robot. So, I'm gonna stop it. I'm going to get suited up. He leaves. Misato: You'll see that unit 4 is better behaved than your robot. Moments later, Justin is in his plug suit. He heads for unit 4. He has the entry plug eject and gets inside. He has unit 4 start up and heads off. Unit 4 now runs after the robot with 9:30:00 left on his internal battery. He finally catches up to JA after a few minutes. The robot is walking pretty fast making it hard for unit 4 to grab it. After a few tries, he finally grabs it with it's left hand. He pulls back but the robot keeps going. Staff: Power reactor, 0.2 to the critical point. Control rods are still not operational. Meltdown will be caused in 10,9,8,7,. Misato: COME ON JUSTIN. Unit 4 is still grabbed on to the robot. Justin: Your pretty tough. But I'm gonna end it now. Unit 4 picks up the robot and has it's wings out. It then flies upward. Staff: 6,5,4,3,2,1 AND 0. Meltdown now commencing. As unit 4 flies upward steam comes out of the robot. Then a big explosion is seen. Misato: NOOO. JUSTIN!! The explosion doesn't destroy anything because it was in the air. After the explosion stops, unit 4 is seen ok which makes Misato happy. Unit 4 then goes back down and puts its wings away. Unit 4 heads back. Staff: Jet alone is now gone. Chair: Damn. Well, at least we're safe. Now back in Tokyo 3, in Misato's apartment. Misato celebrates the victory by how else, getting drunk. Misato (drunk): Good... good job today. Justin: Sure. Misato: Really. You saved a lot of people. But you scared me by pulling another stunt off again. Justin: Sorry. Didn't think there was away but that. Misato: I... i guess. Co.. could you help me to bed now. Justin: Already. Misato: Yes. Justin: Oh, alright. He goes and helps Misato to her room. He opens her door but Misato falls asleep and falls on Justin making him fall in an embarrassing spot. He is now lying under the drunk Misato beneath her breasts which makes him blush. Justin: Jeez. This is gonna be a long night. Shinji peeks in and just shakes his head before going to his room. In the commander's office. Ritsuko: Unit 4 doesn't seem to be contaminated with radiation. Gendo: Good. We need unit 4 as well as unit 1. This worked out perfectly. Well, almost. Ritsuko: Yes. Except for Justin's stunt which he pulled again, this went well. To be continued.

29 - Meet Asuka Langely Soryu

Now the next morning, Justin is asleep under the passed out Misato from last night. Misato has turned over during the night and now has her back towards Justin's face. The door to her room opens and Shinji peeks in, he thought it was a good idea to go and wake them up at first but decides not to because of how Misato is when she's woken up, especially after being drunk. So, he decides to leave and goes eat breakfast. A few minutes later and Justin wakes up, he realizes he's still under Misato but can't move because of how heavy she is. Justin (thinks to himself): How the hell am I gonna get out. I can't wake her up or who knows what she'll do. But he hears a noise and Misato turns over and is now facing him causing him to blush. He decides that he has to wake her up because he now has to use the bathroom and he can also see into her bra. Justin quietly: I hope she doesn't hit me. He then gets ready to yell. Justin takes a big breath and. MISATO. WAKE UP. THERE'S NO MORE BEER. His yell fills the apartment and as well as instantly waking Misato up which doesn't seem to be a good idea anymore. Misato slowly opens her eyes and sees Justin under her. Misato: Uh, what time is it. And what are you doing under me Justin. She wonders that but comes up with an answer which she thinks will be funny. Misato: You know. You don't have to answer. I understand. She winks at him causing him to blush. Misato: You wanted me so you got me drunk and brought me in here and did me. Justin's face gets red but not from embarrassment but from anger. Justin: WHAT. Misato: You heard me. I knew you had something for me but I didn't expect you to actually screw me. Justin: I DID NOT. YOU GOT DRUNK AND ASKED ME TO CARRY YOU TO YOUR ROOM. YOU FELL ASLEEP AND MADE ME FALL WITH YOU WHEN YOU FELL. I ENDED UP UNDER YOU AND THAT'S WHERE I SLEPT. Misato bursts out into laughter. Misato: I know. I was just kidding. I knew that I got drunk. Justin looks even more mad now. Justin: So, you were just teasing me then. Misato: Yep. She messes with his hair. Justin: Well, isn't that dandy. Now will you get off. I need to use the bathroom. He tries moving Misato off but can't. Misato looks into his eyes and holds down his hands. Misato: I don't think so. Justin: What? Why. Misato: Because. I still need to thank you for saving me twice the other day. Justin: Oh, that. Well, you don't need to. Misato: But I do. Besides, I know about what you and Ritsuko did at her house. Justin blushes. Justin: How... how did you... you know about that. Misato: I have my ways. Justin: Yeah. I bet you do. Anyway, isn't today the day we get Unit 2 and the pilot. Misato (seductively): I think that can wait. She moves her face closer to his making him uncomfortable. Justin: Will you quit. I need to seriously use the bathroom. Misato: Well, you can always use me. Justin really blushes. Justin: Jeez. I was right. All you think about is sex. I should've let you get raped in the bar. That would've taught you. Misato backs her face up. Misato: Maybe you're right. She looks like she's gonna cry. Misato: You should've left me there. I'm nothing but a drunken slut who thinks about sex. If it weren't for you, I would've been raped. I'm glad you saved me, but you still should've left me. Tears come down her cheeks. Justin raises his hand and gently rubs it down her cheek while wiping the tears off. Justin softly: Yeah. I should've. But I didn't. Did I. Besides, that's pretty much history now anyway. You may be a drunken slut who thinks about sex. But you're still a good person regardless of that. I'm sure Shinji would agree too. You do a good job as a commanding officer, you shouldn't let this get to you. You shouldn't let what I or anyone else say get to you either. Justin somehow sits up and puts his arms around her hugging her which calms her down. Misato: You're right. Thank you. Justin: It's no problem. I just hope Shinji didn't see me in here. That will lead to questions not needed to be asked. Misato gets off of him and stands up. Justin gets up and also stands. Misato puts her arm around him and pulls him close. She then gives him a kiss on the cheek. Justin blushes. Justin: Uh, thanks. Misato: No problem. Now. Don't you have to use the bathroom. Justin completely forgot. Justin: Damn. You're right. Excuse me. She lets go and he quickly rushes out and goes to the bathroom. Misato leaves her room and goes to the fridge and grabs a beer before sitting down at the table. She opens it up and drinks some down. Shinji is blushing red because part of her black bra she's wearing is exposing her breasts a bit. Misato notices this so decides to tease him about it. Misato: So, Shinji. What are you staring at so much. Shinji: Um, nothing. Misato: Don't lie. Shinji: I'm not lying. Misato: You have to be. I've seen you staring at my breasts. So, tell me the truth. Shinji turns really red. Shinji: Well, it's um kinda hard not to notice. Considering the way your dress. Misato: What's wrong with how I'm dressed. Shinji: Nothing. Justin comes out of the bathroom and goes into the kitchen and the two people notice and forget their conversation. Justin just looks at them like he knows what was going on. But he ignores it and sits down in a chair across from Shinji. Justin: So, Misato. When will unit 2 arrive. Misato: It should arrive by the end of the day. But we need to go and make sure it gets transported here safely. Especially considering the chance of an angel attacking. Justin: Ok. Shinji: Who's the pilot anyway. Misato: Hmm. Oh, I have a folder on who it is in my room. I'll go get it. She gets up from the table and goes into her room. Moments later, she comes back with a folder in her hand. She puts the folder down on the table and goes back to her seat and drinks the rest of her beer down. Both boys go and open the folder. In the front are a picture of a girl with red hair in a yellow dress. And on the side is her name, age, and everything else about her. Her name is Asuka Langley Sohryu. She is 14 years old. She is the designated pilot of Evangelion unit 2. She's 3/4 German and 1/4 Japanese. Justin: So, the pilot is a girl. He says as he looks up. Misato: Yep. Shinji: Did it have to be a girl. Misato: You guys aren't complaining are you. Both boys: No. Misato: She was chosen by the Marduk Institute. Justin: Are all the pilots chosen by this institute. Misato: Well, Rei, Shinji and Asuka were. But I don't know if you were. Justin: Yeah. I don't think I was. I think I was chosen by the first branch. But I'm not certain. Misato: Well, it doesn't matter anyway. We need to get going. Justin. You need to get dressed. So do I. Justin leaves the kitchen so does Misato and they both get dressed. Soon enough, they both come out all dressed up. Misato in her black dress and red jacket. Justin in his school uniform which is a white shirt and green pants. Justin: I hate wearing this stupid school uniform. It's so retarded. Misato: Well, that's how Japan schools work. SHINJI. We need to leave now. Shinji: Yes ma'am. They all head out the door and to her car, on the way Justin starts protesting that Misato shouldn't drive. Justin: You really shouldn't drive. Misato looks back at him. Misato: There's nothing wrong with my driving. Besides, we're taking a special Nerv helicopter to the ship. Justin: Oh, alright. As long as you don't drive. Misato looks back at him again with a smile or a least half a smile anyway before she turns back. After a few moments of silence, they make it outside where the said helicopter is waiting. They all climb in with Justin sitting in the front while telling Misato she's not driving. After everyone is in, the helicopter takes off. At NERV HQ in his office, a certain commander is on the phone. Gendo: Yes, I've already made arrangements with the committee about that problem. The cargo left port yesterday, and is now making its way here. Back on the helicopter. Misato is in the back seat with Shinji kicking the front seat Justin is in with her foot. Justin turns around. Justin: What are you doing? Misato: Annoying you for what you said. Justin: Oh, big deal. I was kidding anyway. Misato: Were you really. Justin: Yes. Misato: Ok. I'll stop then. Justin: So, do we need unit 1 or 4 as backup or something. Misato: No. Unit 2 is on board, so there is no need for one of them. Justin: I'll bet. Misato: Look. Unit 4 is great and all, and you're a good pilot. But we don't need unit 4 everytime. Justin: Is that a fact. Unit 4 could be helpful you know. It can, after all, fight in the water with the C type equipment it has on. And the wings it has. Misato: I suppose. But Ritsuko and all the techs want to study it. Speaking of the wings, Ritsuko said that they are gonna uninstall them. Justin: WHAT! WHY. Misato: Because they believe they aren't necessary. Justin: Like hell they aren't. In case you haven't noticed, the wings have helped since unit 4 got upgraded. They should stay on. Misato: Well, they aren't gonna. Despite how helpful they've been. Justin: They've haven't even been tested in battle against an angel yet. How the hell do they know if they are gonna be helpful. Misato: Trust me. It'll be best. But the equipment it has and the rockets and the internal battery are gonna stay on. So that's good. Justin (sad): But I liked the wings. It made it different. Misato: I understand. You and unit 4 are attached aren't you. Justin: Of course. You and your unit has to be close to be good partners. You got to help each other out. Misato: That's a very good point. But can't do anything about it now. Justin: That's what you think. He then turns around before Misato answer's. Misato says something out of the blue a few moments later. Misato: How about we invite your friends on this trip. Justin: Whatever. Shinji: Sure. Misato: Great. It's settled. Pilot: Pilot: Yes ma'am. Misato: Could you make a few short stops before going to the ship. Pilot: Sure thing ma'am. Justin: If your gonna make some stops, then can i just stay behind. Misato: No. Your a pilot. You need to introduce yourself to the new pilot. Same with you Shinji. Justin: Fine. The helicopter continues. The first stop was Kensuke's, then Toji's. Misato had to now move to the front seat and sit on Justin to make room. Soon, the helicopter is now over the ocean and Kensuke is looking at all the boats through his video camera. Kensuke: I still can't believe i'm on a MIG 55D transport helicopter!! I never thought i get to fly on one. It's pretty good having two pilots as friends huh. He looks at Shinji. Shinji: Eh. It wasn't my idea but i'm glad you came anyway. Kensuke: Thanks. Misato: I thought it was getting stuffy being in the mountains day after day, so i wanted you two to come on this date with me. Toji's face lights up after hearing that. Toji: Really. You mean this is a date Misato. I bought this hat i have just for you. I'll never take it off. He refers to the hat he has on. Under Misato's body a sound is heard but barely. Justin: You wish. (to himself) I wish this cow would get off me. Or at least let me breath. God this is uncomfortable. Kensuke: So, where are we exactly going anyway. Misato: We're gonna take a cruise on that cute little boat down there. And she winks. Kensuke looks out of the window with his camera. Kensuke: Wow! 5 carriers and 4 battleships. What a cool fleet. Toji looks out the window now. Toji: That's your cute little boat. Misato: It looks cute from here anyway. But i'm surprised it still floats since it's old. Kensuke: It isn't so bad. The " over the rainbow " Is a vintage since second impact. It's still good. On the ship below. Captain: Damn. Did they actually bring that dumb cable for that toy of there's. It useless. Give me a break. The helicopter then comes to land while a girl in a yellow dress looks from the side deck. The helicopter lands and the doors open. Kensuke is the first to come out since he's so excited then Toji then Shinji then Misato who finally got off of Justin and finally Justin. Kensuke runs off looking at everything on the ship while Toji's hat gets blown off and he starts chasing it. Shinji stretches while walking with Misato behind him and Justin who's sore. Justin: (quietly) Hasn't she heard of a bath. Sheesh. Her butt smells like a baboon's. Misato quickly turns her head around after hearing that then turns back around. Toji: Hey. Wait. Someone stop my hat. Damn it. Stop. He's still chasing his hat until it stops on a girl's shoe. His face is happy but turns to anger when that girl's foot steps on it. Misato and everyone else stops in front of the girl. Asuka: Hello, Misato. How are you? Misato: I'm fine. You've grown some since i saw you, haven't you. Asuka: Yes. And that's not all. My figure has filled out nicely too. Misato: Let me introduce you. This is the pilot of Evangelion unit 2. Also the second child. Asuka langesly sorry. Then the wind blows and her dress is up showing her well view. Toji is the first one who looks and is also the first to get slapped. Then Kensuke, Shinji and Justin who somehow got slapped since he wasn't really that closed. After, they all got a slap mark on their cheeks. Toji: What ya hit me for. Asuka: It's payment for the view. Quite a bargain huh. Toji: Well, that's all right. Here's your change. He then unbuckles his pants and pulls them down along with his underwear. Asuka: What the hell were you doing. She then slaps him again and he now has another slap mark on his other cheek. She walks past him and stops a few feet from Shinji. Asuka: So, who's the famous third and fourth child's i've heard so much about. She turns to Kensuke. Asuka: He isn't one of them is he. Misato: No. It him right in front of me. And the 4th is right behind. She stops as she turns around to find Justin not there anymore. Misato starts getting angry but cools down and turns back around. Misato: Well, here's the third child anyway. Shinji Ikari. The third child and pilot of Evangelion unit 1. Asuka she looks at him for a few moments. Asuka: Not much to look at. They then all head inside to where the captain is. The captain looks at Misato's identity card for Nerv and speaks. Captain: So, what i thought as you being the leader of this boy scout trip was wrong. Misato: Thank you for helping captain. Captain: No, no. It's my pleasure. I always wanted to babysit more kids. Misato: We appreciate your assistance with the marine transport of unit 2. Here are the specifications for the emergency power socket. She hands the papers over. The captain looks at them briefly and sets them down. Captain: Bah. I never allow a request to activate that robot while at sea. Misato: Just think of it as being ready for an emergency. Captain: It's against such emergencies that the Pacific fleet is supposed to guard! When the hell did we become a delivery service. First officer: I believe it was just after a certain organization was built. Captain: Guarding this child's toy is a grand assignment for the entire Pacific fleet! Misato: Considering Eva's importance, it still seems lacking. Will you please sign these forms. Captain: Not yet. Misato's eye starts twitching. Captain: At the request of the 3rd branch at Germany, both Eva and pilot are under the command of this fleet. I won't allow you to just do as you please! Misato: Then when will you relinquish command? First officer: After unloading the cargo at Shin-Yokosuka. Captain: Until then, the ocean is our jurisdiction. You shall follow our orders. Misato: I understand. In an emergency, however, Nerv's authority overrides yours. Toji: She's so cool. Shinji: She sounds like Ritsuko. Then a man comes into the bridge. Kaji: You're as gallant as always. Asuka right away turns around. Asuka: KAJI! Captain: Mr. Kaji. I insist that you don't invite yourself onto the bridge! Kaji: Sorry. But I found a kid who was gonna jump off the ship into the water so I brought him with. Captain: What kid? Kaji steps aside and there Justin stands. Kaji: This kid. Captain: Hmm. I never saw him. He turns around to Misato who is angry. Captain: Is this kid yours, captain Katsuragi. Misato: YES. Justin who's still standing, starts backing up. But unfortunately, Misato sees him trying too and walks up to him with her usual 'I'm gonna kill you' look on her face. She then turns around. Misato: Please excuse us. Everyone leaves. Captain: Those kids are our future to live. Bah. It's nonsense. First officer: Times changed. I heard the Assembly has put their hopes on that robot. Captain: On that toy. Bah. If they have the money to pay for that, they should be paying us more. Now in a very tight elevator where everyone is cramped up in and some people in embarrassing situations like Shinji pressed up against Misato's breast and Justin again, squashed behind Misato's butt. Misato: What are you doing here! Kaji: Is that anyway to say thanks for finding and saving that boy. Misato just turns her head. Kaji: Well, in any case. I'm accompanying her. I'm on business from Germany. Misato: I'll bet. I'm pretty damn careless. Asuka and Misato: Hey watch it. Kaji and Toji: We can't help it. Soon the elevator arrives at their destination and everyone gets out. Now, they are in a dining room. Kaji is sitting across from Misato and everyone else is in whatever chairs they wanted. Kaji: Are you seeing anyone. Misato: That's none of your business. Kaji: That hurt. He then turns to Shinji. Kaji: I understand your living with Katsuragi. Shinji: Yeah, but not just me. Justin too. Kaji: Oh, you mean that boy. So, tell me. Is she wild in bed still. At that everyone falls out of their chairs except Misato who's now pissed. Misato: WHAT ARE YOU IMPLYING! Kaji: You don't know do you. Shinji: Um no. But Justin should. He then looks at Justin who's playing with his cup. Kaji: So, Mr. Powers. Justin looks up. Justin: Yeah. Kaji: Do you sleep with Misato. Justin turns red and falls out of his chair. He then slowly gets up while Misato falls out her chair. Justin: Um, nnnoooo. Kaji: Hmm. I see. (To himself) He does. He just can't hide it well. I won't push him or Ikari. He comes out of his thoughts. Kaji: I just remembered something. I have to make a delivery. I'll see you guys later. He then gets up and heads out while everyone else resumes their position. Meanwhile, below the sea. Something awakes. The 6th Angel is coming. And it's looking for something. Next time. Unit 2 activate. To be continued.

Now after that little embarrassment from kaji, everyone heads up to the deck while misato talks to justin. Misato: Where did you exactly go. Justin: I, er, didnt want to meet the pilot, so i took off. He finishes with a smile hoping she bought it. The way she's staring at him, means she didnt. Misato: Oh, is that why. Funny. I thought kaji said he found you before you jumped off the boat. Justin gulps. Justin: I, er, well. I can explain. Misato: Dont bother. Toji: Yeah. Interesting conversation your having. Anyway, that captain buggs me. Misato: He's just proud. And full of himself too. Shinji: So, that kaji. He's really something eh. Misato: Yeah right. He's still nothing but a jackass. Now out on the deck. Kaji and Asuka are talking. Kaji: Shinji ikari is something huh. Asuka: No way. He's pretty dull. Kaji: I suppose. But what about mr powers. Asuka: He's the same. Kaji: Not really. He's the 4th child. He won his first eva battle without any training. Shinji did pretty well after words too. Asuka: So, that power's kid is the 4th child huh. He doesnt seem like much. But it still impresses me. Kaji: I guess. Anyway, i must be leaving. See you later. Kaji then leaves Asuka to her thoughts. After, she leaves as well. Everyone reaches the deck only to see Asuka standing there. She just stares at them. Asuka: Hey. Third and fourth child. You're coming with me. Justin: Like hell i will. Asuka: Oh, being a wimp now huh. That battle was a lie wasnt it. Justin just stares. Asuka: Whatever. Third child. Your coming with me then. She grabs shinji and pulls him somewhere. Everyone else goes to the control room. Asuka has now brought shinji to where unit 2 is. He looks under the sheet and see's unit 2 red. Shinji: It's red. Interesting color. Asuka: That's not all that's different about unit 2. She pulls shinji under the sheet and let's go and goes on top of unit 2. Asuka: Unit 2's color isnt all that's different. Unit 0 is the prototype while unit 1 is the testype. Shinji: Unit 4 is also a testype too. Asuka: Unit 4? Shinji: Yah. It came over with justin before the third angel attacked. Asuka: Yeah, yeah. Whatever. Anyway, They're all test models in development. The fact that unit 1 could synch with you so easily is proof of that. But that power's kid and unit 4 i cant explain. Unit 2 is still not the same. My unit 2 is the first real evangelion built for combat. It's the final model. Then the boat shakes. Shinji: What was that. Asuka: It's an under water shockwave. It sounded close too. Both kids rush out to see. Asuka points out with her finger at something that's moving. Asuka: What's that? The object rips through ships like they were nothing. Shinji: It cant be. An angel. Asuka: You mean the real angel. Shinji: This is bad. I've got to find misato. Asuka: This is my chance. Come on. Shinji: What. Asuka: Shut up and come with me. She grabs his arm and pulls him towards unit 2. Announcement: All ships, check distances between other ships, and avoid motion. In the control room. First officer: Report! Navy guy 1: (???) , sinking. Titus Andronicus, still cant confirm the target sir. Captain: Damn. What is going on. Misato appears in the control room. Misato: Hello. Would you like to order data and countermeasures against this enemy from our battle menu. Captain: In battle. Authorized personnel only! Misato: From what i can tell, it's an angel attack. But the question is. Why is it here. Is it after unit 2? Captain: All ships fire. The remaining battle ships fire missles from there guns and speed off towards the angel but misses due to the angels incredible speed and it's AT field. Toji is behind misato now. Toji: Only an eva can beat it. Captain and first officer: What? We now go see a panel on the deck opening and a blue Forge 38 appears with the pilot and kaji. In the plane. Kaji: Missles are useless. They cant penetrate it's AT field. Pilot: You say something. Kaji: Hmm. No. Let's go. The plane then takes off and heads back for tokyo 3. Meanwhile, the angel goes through another battle ship destroying it. Now having unit 2 open it's entry plug. Asuka changes into her entry plug which is red while telling shinji not to peep. After, she hands him a spare. Shinji: What do we need these for asuka? Asuka: Are you dense. We're gonna beat that angel with unit 2 of course. Now hurry up and put it on. Shinji does what he's told and he's now in the spare plug suit which gives him a figure of a woman. Asuka: Now third child. Get in, sit down and don't bug me. Shinji: Does Misato know. Asuka: No. But she'll know when I beat it. Both kids get in the entry plug and it gets inserted. Asuka says a bunch of stuff in German to start Unit 2 up but something happens when something in German appears everywhere. Shinji: An error. Asuka: It's thought noise. I told you not to bug me. Shinji: Eh. Asuka: Your thinking in Japanese right. If you must think, do it in German. Shinji: Ok. Um, Strudel, Bratwurst. Asuka: Dummkopf. Never mind. Switch language for Japanese. Everything returns to normal now. Asuka: Evangelion Unit 2. Move out. Unit 2 starts moving under the sheet meanwhile back in the command room. Voice: Evangelion Unit 2 is starting. Captain: What? Stop the activation NOW. Misato: Go Asuka. Captain: No. Unit 2 and its pilot are under our watch. It won't get sent out. Especially if it still has the B-type equipment on. Misato: It still has the B-type equipment on? Captain: Yes. That's why we can't activate it. Back to Unit 2. Unit 2 has now ripped through the sheet and is standing up. In the plug. Shinji: If we fall in. We're done for. Asuka: Don't worry. We won't. The Angel has just finished another three ships off when it sensed Unit 2 has activated. It quickly went for it and forgot what it was looking for. Shinji: Over to your right. The Angel is coming. Unit 2's head looks to the right. Asuka: So, that's it huh. Shinji: We don't have any guns. Asuka: The Progressive Knife will be just fine. Unit 2's shoulder blade opens and produces the knife. Unit 2 grabs it and it instantly transformed into the knife. The Angel meanwhile, continues charging at the ship where Unit 2 is. Shinji: It's huge. Asuka: You know what they say. The bigger it is, the more pain it receives. Back in the command room. First Officer: Unit 2's internal battery is at 0:58:88. Misato: Shoot! Asuka: In Unit 2's entry plug a voice is heard which both kids know. Misato: Asuka. Hurry up. Your internal battery is almost up. Asuka: Don't worry. I'll kill it. The Angel now jumps from the water towards Unit 2 and Unit 2 stabs the knife into the beast which it actually somehow pierced its core causing it to instantly explode. Asuka: Told you third child. I'm the best. Unit 2's activation has now reached its maximum and ceased activation. In the control room everyone cheers for the defeat of the Angel. Misato: Told you. Captain: Whatever. We will continue as planned still. Even if we have less battle ships than planned. Meanwhile outside, on top of the ship, Justin looks down at Unit 2 and thinks. Justin: This is how it's not supposed to be. The Angel didn't put up a fight. Unless, no. It can't be that. The Angel they beaten, could it be. The wrong one? To be continued.

At a secret location, the members of seele have gathered for a meeting.

SEELE 02: Do you think the navy and captain katuragi have any idea that the angel they beaten isn't the one predicted by the dead sea scrolls. SEELE 04: Of course not. They don't even know. SEELE 03: Correct. We shall send the actual 6th angel to them. Evangelion unit 02 must be out of power. Which shall make things much easier for our goal to be accomplished. SEELE Chairman: Our goal won't be accomplished. The first angel Adam, has already been delivered to Nerv by mister kaji. So, there is no point of sending the actual 6th angel. SEELE 02: But. What if the 4th child or known as that angel boy, realizes the angel they beaten isn't the one predicted. This could cause problems for us. Maybe we should still send it. SEELE 03: SEELE 02 has a point. We should still send the 6th angel to do battle with the angel boy. Thus will reveal him as who he really is, and he will have no choice but to accomplish the same goal as the previous angels which is to come into contact with Adam. SEELE 05: But Adam is with ikari now. The only other angel he could come into contact with is Lilith. SEELE Chairman: Yes. But we shall wait till all angels are beaten including him till we start third impact. It is predicted in the dead sea scrolls. SEELE 02: If it's predicted in the scrolls, then shouldn't the actual 6th angel get beaten so we can accomplish our goal. SEELE Chairman: True. The only two angels we have are the 6th and 17th. Fine. Launch the 6th angel as soon as possible. Our goal shall be accomplished no matter what. And with that, SEELE disappears. Back on the ship. Everyone except the captain and navy crew have come out to congratulate Asuka of course, for destroying the fake 6th angel which no one knows is fake. Misato: Good job Asuka. Asuka: Of course. I'm the best. Misato: And good job to you too shinji. Shinji: Um, sure. Asuka turns her head around to look at shinji annoyed because he got thanked for doing nothing. Toji: Yeah great job. Toji also points his finger at shinji. Toji: Nice figure too. He starts laughing while shinji blushes. Kensuke: Yeah that was cool. Even if the devil here was the one who beat it. Asuka quickly stomps up to kensuke and looks him in the eyes before slapping him across the face. Asuka: Don't you ever call the great asuka that again. She then stomps back. Announcer: Attention. An unknown object is rapidly heading for us. I repeat. An unknown object is rapidly approaching. Asuka: What? It can't be an angel. I just beaten it. Justin then appears out of nowhere. Justin: Apparently not. Everyone just stares and wonders how he got there without being seen or heard. Misato is the first to speak up. Misato: Justin? Where the hell did you go. Justin: Hmm. Me. Nowhere. Misato: Bull. Tell me. Justin: Allright. But i need to talk to ya in private though. Misato nods and the both of them head off somewhere private to talk. Justin: Okay. Here's the thing. The angel Asuka beat wasn't the actual one. Misato now looks confused. Misato: Wasn't... the actual one. Justin: Yes. The one beaten was fake. It was probably sent by SEELE. SEELE probably has the actual one. Misato: That could make sense. I mean it didn't put up a fight. But that would mean, the unknown object is. Justin: Correct. That object is the real 6th angel. But seeing how unit 02 ran out of power, there might not be a way to beat it. I mean regular weapons won't penetrate it's AT field. I knew we should of brought unit 04 with. But no. You didn't want too. He stares at misato angry. Misato only stares back with the same face but much harder. Misato: We didn't know. You are the one who knows when they attack. Justin: Ya. But i didn't expect this to happen. He sighs. There's no choice now. I'll battle it seeing it's the only way. Misato: What! you don't mean. Justin cuts her off before she finished. Justin: Yes. I must reveal myself as an angel. There is no other way thanks to you. Misato: What the hell does that mean. Justin: Nothing. Announcer: Attention. All hands prepare for battle on what remains of our fleet. I repeat. Prepare for battle. The voice obviously belonged to the captain. Or from what misato just pointed out anyway. In the bridge the captain and his first officer are looking for the object that coming. The captain is looking through his binoculars. Captain: Oh shoot. I see the object. It looks like that fish monster that attacked a little while ago. I thought unit 02 finished it off. Bah. I knew I shouldn't have allowed that. I'll finish it off myself. First officer: Excuse me. Did you just say it's that fish monster again sir. Captain: Yes. Unit 02 couldn't beat it. Look like they can't depend on a child's toy to save people. He then puts down the binoculars. Captain: All hands prepare for battle. Fire every missile we have. We must destroy the target this time. Back on the deck where Misato and Justin are, missiles fire from the boat towards the angel. Justin notices and turns to Misato. Justin: Misato! Get to the bridge and stop the captain. It's a waste of time to fire weapons that are useless. You must but before he finished his sentence, the angel surprise attacks the ship and nearly knock everyone off except for Justin who got knocked off into the water. Misato: JUSTIN! Watch out. Justin looks up and then quickly turns around to see the angel coming at him. Justin: Oh shoot. I guess it's now or never. Justin rises from the water and transforms into his angel side. His angel side looks almost exactly like Sachiel but with wings. And can talk. As soon as he transformed, the angel leaps out of the water and grabs him with its mouth before diving back in. From the boat Misato watched in terror. Not only from Justin changing but from the angel eating him. Before she could yell, the missiles that were fired, land in the water in an explosion. It's obvious they came little too late. After Misato saw that, she remembered what Justin told her to do. And so, she goes off to the captain's bridge to tell him to stop. On her way, she tells the kids to go inside in which Asuka protests. (Imagine that huh.) She then goes on about how she'll beat it with unit 02 this time and blah, blah, blah. Misato reminds her that unit 02 has no power left in which the red head agrees and so, everyone heads inside. Meanwhile, underwater in the angel's mouth. Justin is struggling to open the angel's mouth which seems impossible. So, he gives up and turns his attention to its core which is behind him. Justin (to himself): Hmm. If I can't get out. I'll destroy it from the inside. And its core is just what I need. So, Justin charges up his spear attack similar to what Sachiel used but instead of it being on his arm, he just shoots it like an arrow. He shoots his spear attack and suffice to say, barely damaged it. But that doesn't mean the angel didn't notice. As soon as that attack hit it, even if it didn't damage it much, the angel was less than pleased. So, it opened its mouth and spat Justin out. Once Justin was spat out, he tried to get back to the surface but couldn't because he couldn't swim in his state. The angel took advantage of this moment and went on the offensive. It charged at Justin who barely turned around to see the angel attack. Before he knew what was going on, he landed back on the ship and out of the water. The angel however, didn't seem interested in attacking its own kind so instead of attacking, it simply swam up to the boat and spoke to Justin who can understand it because he's an angel. Gaghiel: Why do you help these lilims. You are an angel like me. You should be doing what you are here for. Justin: That may be. But I'm not fully an angel yet. Unlike you, or any other angel for that matter. I must be revealed as soon as the 17th angel is gone. That is when I will strike. But for now. I shall remain as an Eva pilot for unit 04. Gaghiel: But you are using a weapon that was made from Adam. That is like attacking your own kind. Justin: That would be the case if it was true. But it's not. Unit 04 wasn't built like units 00 and 02 were. It wasn't built from Lilith either like unit 01 was. Unit 04 was built without the use of neither angels. Gaghiel: But still. You are an angel. And you must do what you were put on this planet for. And that is your destiny. Just like it's mine and every other angel. Justin: It's like I told you. I will only attack after the 17th angel is gone. And don't think I don't know. You and the 17th angel belong to Seele don't you. That's why they sent you. They knew we get suspicious about that foney angel. So, they decided to send you. The actual 6th angel. So, tell me. Justin folds his angel arms across his chest. Are you gonna do what Seele told you to do or are YOU gonna do what is your destiny. OR better yet. Do exactly what was predicted in the Dead Sea Scrolls. Gaghiel: Of course I will do what is my destiny. No lilim can control me or decide what I do. I do what I want. And what I want. Is to perform my destiny. Justin just shakes his head. Gaghiel: What. You should be helping me. Justin: Humph. It would seem your destiny isn't gonna happen. Gaghiel: And what do you mean by that. Justin: I mean. Adam isn't here. Adam has already been delivered to Nerv HQ. Gaghiel: I realize that. I'm not after adam. Justin: Well then. Just what are you after. Gaghiel: I'm after unit 02. Justin: Unit..02. Gaghiel: Of course. If an angel comes into contact with Adam, all of humanity will perish while we angels become one with adam and join together forming a better angel than you lilims could imagine. Justin: But that still doesn't explain why you're going after unit 02. Gaghiel: It doesn't have to. I'm just to obliterate unit 02. All angels will be joined while these lilims die. As soon as Adam is in contact with one of our brothers, we shall be superior. Justin: Yeah. Too bad that's not gonna happen. Gaghiel: Oh it will rally. It will. Now. Are you gonna help me or be with these lilims. Justin:..... Gaghiel: Well? Justin just shoots a spear from his hand into gaghiel. Soon gaghiel comes back up above the water. Gaghiel: I see. You don't want to join. Fine. All angels including you, will be joined. Regardless if you helped or not. With that, gaghiel disappears below the ocean. Justin just stares down. In the captain's bridge, Misato is arguing with the captain. Misato: CAPTAIN. You must stop. It's no use using conventional weapons against it. Captain: So what. I gave you a chance to kill it last time. And you didn't. We lost nearly all our fleets because of it. Now we shall do it my way. Misato: But captain. Please give us one more chance. Just one more. The captain just looks away before looking back. Captain: Alright. But you have exactly 90 minutes to destroy it. If it's not destroyed when time is up, we do it my way regardless of what you think. Understand. Misato: Thank you sir. She then turns to the kids. Misato: Alright listen up. Here's the battle plans. Now back on the deck. Justin: Hmm. It would seem we need to fight. That's fine. It's my duty. He then turns his head over to unit 02 who lies powerless. A grin comes on his face. He floats over to unit 02 and disappears inside. A few minutes later and unit 02 activates. On the bridge. First officer: What? Unit 02 has activated. Everyone quickly turns their heads. Misato runs over. Misato: What. But the power. Wasn't it depleted. First officer: Yes. But more importantly. How did it activate with no pilot. Misato: WHAT! You mean no one is inside. Asuka overhears this and rushes over. Asuka: WHAT! WHO THE HELL WOULD THINK OF USING UNIT 02 WITHOUT MY PERMISSION. The first officer continues looking through his binoculars. First officer: We don't know what's going on. But since it activated, maybe it can beat that monster. Asuka turns her head. Asuka: WHAT! You mean you're just gonna let this happen. First officer: I'm sorry miss soryu. But there's nothing we can do. Asuka: FINE! But whoever is in it. Better not get beaten. Back on the deck. Unit 02 slowly rises to its feet. Gaghiel comes out of the water and looks. Gaghiel: Hmm. So this is your ability. It seems useful. But you still don't stand a chance against me. Gaghiel then attacks the ship causing it to shift making unit 02 lose its balance a bit. After, unit 02 just stares before lunging at the angel. Gaghiel dives underwater before unit 02 got it. Since unit 02 has the B-type equipment on, Justin can't really do anything. Or can he. Justin: Damn. I forgot unit 02 has the B-type equipment on. But that shall prove not a problem. Soon, unit 02's eyes glow and can start moving in the water again. Which is good since gaghiel is heading towards him. Unit 02 turns its head to see the angel coming right at him and stops the angel with its hand, causing an AT field to form blocking the angel. The angel quickly tries to get through but doesn't succeed. It then tries to swim around but can't because of the AT field. Gaghiel: Hmm. You are doing pretty well considering you're one of god's messenger's fighting another. But you. Gaghiel is cut off as the AT field disappears and unit 02 charges at it grabbing its mouth with both hands. It pries its mouth open and shoots needles out of its left shoulder blade at the core which causes it to crack even more. The angel tries to close its mouth but can't. It can only float as it watches unit 02 launch needles after needles to its core. Gaghiel: Unit 02. If it shoots any more needles, I'm done. I have to do something. But as the angel thought that, the core cracks completely and the angel explodes. Unit 02 now quickly swims back up and lands on the ship's deck. Unit 02 powers down and Justin comes back out and quickly changes back. In the bridge everyone is celebrating the angel's defeat. Except the captain and first officer. Misato: Looks like we beat it. Captain. Captain: Yes. It would seem you have. Fine. We will continue our delivery as scheduled. Misato happily leaves the bridge and goes to the deck where Justin is. Leaving the other kids confused except Kensuke who's still enjoying this. And Asuka who's still pissed. Moments later misato finds justin sitting on the edge of the ships deck and joins him. Misato: You did a good thing. Justin: What. You mean beating the angel or possessing unit 02. Misato laughs a bit at that but turns serious. Misato: I mean by beating the angel. Justin: Oh, well i had to do what needed to be done. Misato: Even if it meant you exposed yourself. Justin looks away before answering. Justin: Yes. Misato: I also saw that you and the angel were speaking. Justin turns around surprised at that. Justin: You... you mean you understood. Misato laughs again. Misato: No i didnt understand. I just said i SAW you talking. I didnt say i understood. Justin: Oh good. Because we talked about things you dont need to know. Well, things you need to find out yourself anyway. Misato: Of course. I dont expect you to tell me everything you know. Some things you just need to find out things for yourself. But you still did a good thing. Justin: Yah i suppose. But i've got explaining to do later. The ship continues to tokyo 3. Meanwhile, another meeting held by seele is held again. SEELE 05: It would seem the boy found out more then we intended. SEELE 02: Of course. But we found some things out as well. SEELE Chairman: Yes. It would seem ikari has adam. But we shall amuse him for now. Now at Nerv HQ in the commander's office. Kaji: Well, that was a rather fun trip. He says as he puts the briefcase he had on the desk and opens it. Kaji: I wonder. Is this all caused because of what's inside. Gendo just smirks. Kaji: Well, it's frozen anyway. But it's still alive. So, this must be needed for instrumetality. Gendo: That is correct. This is the first being. This is Adam. To be continued.

32 - Angels split personality

Now the ship that was carrying unit 02 and its pilot finally arrive in Tokyo 3. The ship anchors in the harbor and begins lowering unit 02 off while every one gets off. Kensuke is looking at unit 02 with his camera while Toji gives Asuka a look when she passes by. It would seem Asuka has forgotten about what happened as she is occupied with looking around. Shinji is next to come off and Toji starts laughing at him because he still has the red plug suit on which gives him a girly figure and Kensuke soon turns around to film him while making fun of him. Justin is next to come off but instead of using the ramp like every one else, he simply jumps from the boat on to the harbor who also meets Misato who somehow got off without being noticed. She notices Justin and smiles so he goes over. Justin: Who are you waiting for. If you are even waiting for someone. Misato: I'm waiting for Ritsuko to arrive. Justin is taken back by her words. Justin: Your... your not gonna tell her what happened are you? Misato places her hand on his shoulder. Misato: Not about you transforming and everything. If she found out, you get kicked off the pilots roster and would be experimented on. Or worst. Justin: So, your not gonna say anything then. Misato smiles. Misato: Of course not. It's out secret and I won't betray your trust. Justin: Sure you won't he says sarcastically. Misato gently punches him in the shoulder which makes him smile. Soon, a green jeep arrives with Ritsuko in it. Both Misato and Justin get in with Justin getting the back seat. The jeep then starts moving with Ritsuko driving. Ritsuko turns to her friend. Ritsuko: So, how was it. Did you need to use unit 02 at all. Misato: It was fine. And yes, we did have to use unit 02 twice. Ritsuko just looks at Misato. Ritsuko: What do you mean TWICE. What exactly happened. Misato: Simple. A fake angel attacked and we thought it was the real one so we had unit 02 engage it but turned out it was indeed fake as it didn't really put up a fight. It was when the real one showed up unit 02 ran out of power. Ritsuko: Wait. If unit 02 ran out of power, how did it get used a second time. Misato remains silent as she doesn't want to expose Justin's secret. Ritsuko: Well? Misato: I can't tell you anymore than that. I'm sorry. Ritsuko: What. Why? Misato: Because of certain things. Ritsuko: Hmm. Fine. The real 6th angel got beat though right captain. Misato: Of course. Why would it not of been. Ritsuko: Just wondering. The jeep continues but stops as a certain red head pilot jumps in front of it. Asuka: Where's Kaji? Misato: Probably at headquarters by now. What a chicken. Asuka: Oh. Well, he promised me he take me on a tour of Tokyo 3. Now what am I gonna do. She starts pouting. Misato: I don't know. But you might as well come with us so we can enroll you in school. So get in. Asuka: WHAT! Misato: You heard me. Asuka: Hmph. Fine. She gets in the back with Justin who isn't too happy. Asuka: Listen here fourth. Don't touch me, don't speak to me and don't come near me got it. Justin mumbles psychotic dog under his breath. And unfortunately, Asuka heard him. Asuka: What was that fourth. Justin: Nothing. Asuka just stares but turns her head around after being bored. The jeep then picks up Shinji and his friends next. Toji and Kensuke share the back seat with Justin and Asuka. Or the devil as they like to call her. While Shinji has to sit in Misato's lap on account of being no more room. The jeep continues while unit 02 gets picked up by a carrier and is brought to Nerv. Hours later, Justin, Shinji and Misato are brought back to their place while Toji and Kensuke get dropped off by the school. Asuka however, has to go to Nerv. Now having arrived at Nerv, Ritsuko leads her into Commander Ikari's office. Now both stopped outside the commander's office. Ritsuko turns to Asuka. Ritsuko: Alright. Here's what gonna happen. Commander Ikari is gonna brief you on your duties here along with you being an Eva pilot. After, we will go see a section 2 agent to find out where your gonna live. Is that understood. Asuka: Yes ma'am. Ritsuko: Good. Now. Commander Ikari is waiting for you. Asuka nods and opens the door and goes inside. She is greeted by two men. One at a desk and another standing by said desk. Commander Ikari: Are you the second child. Asuka: Yes sir. I'm Asuka langley soryu. Commander ikari: Good. The man to my left is sub-commander Fuyutski. When I am gone, he will take over as commander and you will have to obey him. Is that clear. Asuka: Yes sir. Commander ikari: Good. Now about your duties. Your duties will include being here when an angel attacks, coming in for harmonic tests, synch ratio tests and other tests. Your duty will also include sacrificing your own life to kill an angel if needed. Understand. Asuka: Yes sir. Commander ikari: Good. Now, I would like to speak with you on another matter pilot. This matter contains about what happened over seas. Now, would you care to explain. Asuka: Yes. Apparently a fake angel came and attacked us making us believe it was the real one. So, we activated unit 02 and destroyed it. It wasn't till after unit 02 ran out of power, did the real one show up. Commander ikari: And how was it beaten. Asuka: That part I don't know sir. I don't know how it was beaten. Commander ikari: I see. Very well. You are dismissed. Asuka: Yes sir. Asuka turns around and leaves the room. Fuyutski: Do you believe Seele was behind all of this. Gendo: Of course not. They are, after all, just old men. They couldn't have done this. Fuyutski: But how was a fake angel sent there then. Gendo: You have a point. They might have been the ones. But it matters not, it didn't affect the scenario. Soon, everything they do won't matter. And a smile creeps on his face again. Outside the office, Ritsuko leads Asuka through Nerv showing her everything including the changing room. After, they see a section 2 agent to find out where Asuka is gonna live. Section 2 agent: I'm sorry. But there is no more rooms available. Ritsuko: What! What do you mean there are no more rooms. Section 2 agent: I'm sorry ma'am. But more people have decided to move down here and so we had to give them rooms. Ritsuko: What. Hmph. Fine. I guess it makes sense. (sighs) Turns her head towards Asuka. Come on Asuka. You'll have to live with Misato. Asuka: What! But aren't those two moron Eva pilots living with her. Why do I have to. Ritsuko: Because we can't find you a place. And besides, having Eva pilots living together will help. Asuka: Schiest. Fine. Ritsuko: Good. But you must first go to school. I already took care of it so you start tomorrow. Asuka: Alright. So, where does Misato live anyway. Ritsuko: I'll have to call her to let her know first. She gets her cell phone out and dials Misato's phone. At her apartment, Misato's phone goes off and Ritsuko is surprised at who answers it. Shinji: Hello. On her cell phone. Ritsuko: Oh, hello Shinji. Where's Misato? Shinji: She's passed out. Ritsuko: What. But it's not even 5 yet. Shinji: Yeah I know. When we got back, she immediately got beer from the fridge and started drinking. When she ran out, she got her special booze out and drank it all in one sitting. Then she passed out from it. Ritsuko: Oh, I see. Well, I'll talk to her tomorrow then. Bye. She hangs up the phone while Shinji does the same. Ritsuko puts her phone back in her lab coat pocket and sighs. Ritsuko: Well, looks like you won't be going to Misato's tonight. Asuka: Hmph. Good. So, where am I gonna stay then. Ritsuko: You'll have to stay in our spare room in my office. Asuka: WHAT! You have a spare room and didn't tell me before. Ritsuko: Well, you see Asuka. That room is only used in emergencies and well seeing this is one, you'll have to sleep there tonight. Asuka: Verdammit. Alright. Show me where it is. Ritsuko goes and shows Asuka the room. After sometime, they arrive at Ritsuko's office and opens the secret door behind her desk. Inside, there's a bathroom with shower and a bed with blankets and a pillow. Ritsuko: Here you go. You'll stay here for the night. Asuka: It's not bad. But what about my clothes. I need clean clothes damn it. Ritsuko: I'll bring your stuff in the morning along with a map to the school. But for now, you'll have to stay in here. Asuka: WHAT!. Ritsuko: You heard me. You can't wonder around. I'm sorry. But that's how it is. Goodnight. And with that, Ritsuko leaves shutting the door behind her. Asuka on the other hand kicks the door hard. The next day at the school, Toji, Kensuke, Shinji and Justin are all talking. Toji: Glad we don't have to see the devil again. Kensuke: Yeah. But too bad for those two. Kensuke is pointing his finger at Shinji and Justin. Toji: Yeah. They have to work with her. Then they hear the door open to their room and Toji looks to see who it is and is shocked. Toji: LLLLLLOOOKKK! Immediately the three boys look and are shocked as well. Asuka now enters the room and begins writing her name on the chalkboard with chalk and turns around after she's done facing the class. Asuka: Hi. I'm Asuka Langley Soryu. Nice to meet you. Toji, Kensuke, Shinji and Justin are all still shocked. Now after school, Toji and kensuke wave bye to shinji and justin while they begin walking home. Justin: I can't believe that dog is in our class. Shinji: I guess. But she's not that bad. Justin looks at shinji confused. But before he can speak, Asuka catches up. Asuka: There you two idiots are. Both boys turn around. Shinji: Hi Asuka. Justin: Hi doggy. Asuka slaps Justin. Justin: OW! Why the hell did you do that for. Asuka: Because I wanted too. Anyway, I saw the way you guys looked when I came in. Pretty surprised huh. Shinji: Um, yeah. Justin: Sure. Asuka: You're just a baby. Justin: Yeah. Just like your a dog. Asuka: What was that. Justin: You heard me. But before Asuka could do anything, shinji comes between them. Shinji: You guys need to stop. Asuka just walks back to her spot while Justin sticks his tongue out. Asuka: Anyway, she's here isn't she. Shinji: Who. Asuka: Are you stupid. The first child of course. Shinji: Oh, Ayanami. He points over to a bench where Rei is reading a book. Asuka walks over to her. Rei continues to read. Asuka steps forward again but Rei still reads. Asuka: Hello. Rei looks up from her book and sees Asuka. Asuka: Your Rei Ayanami. The pilot of the prototype. Rei just looks. Asuka: I'm Asuka. Asuka is really sorry. The pilot of Eva 02. Let's be friends. Rei: Why. Asuka: Why. Because we should. Rei: Only if I'm ordered too. Asuka: Freakazoid. At Nerv HQ, Ritsuko is busy typing on her computer in her office when Kaji sneaks up on her by wrapping his arms around her waist. Ritsuko: Oh, Kaji. Kaji: You've lost weight. Ritsuko: Oh, really. Kaji: A woman with a mole on her cheek like a tear is destined for heartache and sorrow. Ritsuko: You so sure are you. Well, if you gonna put the moves on me, you need to do it when no one is looking. Ritsuko points at the glass in front of them and sees Misato's face pressed against it. She then moves and leaves. Kaji releases his grip and moves in front of her. Ritsuko: It's been a while Kaji. Kaji: It's been awhile alright. Ritsuko: You know. You're not as noble as you used to be. The doors open and Misato walks in saying he's never been noble in his life. Misato stops. Misato: You're done handing unit 02 over right. Why are you still here. Kaji: I've got orders to stay for a while longer. That way we can all hangout together. Misato: Don't flatter yourself. Then the alarms go off. Misato: What. Enemy attack. In the control room. Shigeru: We got a report about an underwater being heading towards us. We're now sending data. The screen in front shows the wavelength and pattern. Makoto: The wavelength pattern is blue. It's confirmed as an angel. Fuyutsuki: Right. Battle stations. Get Katsuragi up here now. As soon as he said that, Misato burst into the room. Misato: Is it an angel. Fuyutsuki turns around. Fuyutsuki: Perfect timing captain. Get the pilots and prepare for battle. Misato: Understood. She then leaves. A while later, units 01, 02 and 04 are being carried on transporters with the pilots while Misato is on a ground carrier. Misato: The intercept system of Tokyo 3 was heavily damaged during the last battle. Only 26% was restored. Operable equipment at the actual battle is 0. And so, we must get to the shore before the target gets on land and battle it as it rises out. Unit's 01 and 02 will attack one after the other repeatedly while unit 04 remains as back up. She has the inside of all three Eva's commlinks open and is speaking to the pilots. From Eva 04. Justin: Why do I have to be back up. Misato: Because. Only two Eva's are needed. Justin: If that's true, then why am I here in the first place. Misato: Well, er. Oh never mind. We're nearing the drop zone. Get ready for combat. All three pilots: Yes ma'am. From Eva 02. Asuka: This sucks. It's my first battle in Japan and I can't do it by myself. Why did I have to have you two morons come. From Eva 01. Shinji: That's the operation. You know. From Eva 04. Justin: Yah. Quit complaining you wimp. From Eva 02. Asuka: Well, just stay out of my way. She then closes the commlinks to the two Eva's. In Eva 04, Justin starts swearing and mumbles dog. Soon enough, the three transporters release the Eva's and they land on the ground safely right next to the water's edge. Their Umbilical cables get plugged in and are now ready. Soon, the angel emerges from the water and stands up. In the ground transporter. Misato: Begin attack. Asuka: Shinji. Cover me. Shinji: Cover you. Asuka: Yeah. Ladies first. Shinji: Damn it. Don't tell me what to do you dumb rookie. Unit 01 starts firing with its rifle while unit 02 charges at the angel with its spear. Unit 02 jumps in the air with the angel looking up as well. Asuka: Now die damn you. Unit 02 lands and cuts right down the middle of the angel cutting it in two. Asuka: There. Told you there was no need for you. Shinji: Wow. Then something unexpected happens. The angel's face slides off and a new one takes its place. Unit 02 turns to see. Asuka: What? The angel loses its skin and becomes two angels. The two angels go back to back both facing units 01 and 02. Misato: That's bullsh*t. Both angels then attack both units. Misato: Unit 04. Go and assist units 01 and 02 NOW. Justin: Right. Unit 04 then runs towards the angels. Sometime after the battle, everyone is in the briefing room. Maya: At 10:58:15 a.m. today. Unit 01 was attacked by the first angel part known as alpha and sank 2 kilometers from Surugawen bay. Unit 02 was also attacked at 10:58:20 a.m. by the second angel part known as beta. And got stuck in a deep hole made by said angel. Now just two minutes after 10:58 a.m., unit 04 went offensive and attacked angel A known as alpha and succeeded in defeating it. It was then that angel B known as beta surprised attacked unit 04 and it got stuck in a hole on the shore. Unit 04 got back up after and charged at the angel but got the same fate from before. I believe the chairman can sum it up best. Ritsuko: This is pathetic except for unit 04 who succeeded in destroying the first half of the angel. Asuka now stands up from her seat. Asuka: This is all your fault. First you ruined my debut battle, then that loser fourth child managed to beat one of the angel parts. But more importantly, beat me. Now Shinji stands up. Shinji: Me. You're the one who charged in like an idiot. You disregarded the operation. Plus, Justin managed to beat the angel. The first part anyway. Asuka: Idiot. You look like a drowned rat. And the fourth looked like some kid buried him in the sand. Maya: Nerv gave up the plan after unit 04 constantly got beaten at 11:03 A.M. Unit 04 did however, manage to damage the second angel some. But an order was still given to the UN. Fuyutsuki: This is embarrassing. Maya: After the N2 mine exploded, only 28% of the angel was damaged. Fuyutsuki: Well, at least it took more damage. Asuka: So, is it dead. Fuyutsuki: No. Not quite. It's barely alive. With all the damage it took from the N2 mine and the damage unit 04 managed to do to it, it's regenerating its body now. It will attack again in 6 days. Kaji: Well, at least we have time to regroup. And what could possibly be better than that. Fuyutsuki: Listen. Do you know what your job is. Asuka: To pilot EVA. Fuyutsuki: No. It's to beat the angels. We don't exist for embarrassments like the ones today. You two should be more like pilot powers who manage to fight. So, therefore, you two will live together for now on and learn to work together. Asuka and Shinji: Why should we. Fuyutsuki: Enough! He then leaves. Asuka and Shinji both go sit down. Asuka: Why do grown-ups get so pissed. Kaji: Credibility. It's an adult thing. Shinji: Where's Misato? Kaji turns his head to Shinji. Kaji: Oh she's taking care of everything. It's the responsibility for the person in charge of operations. Shinji: Oh. Hey. Have you seen Justin then. Kaji: Well, I've heard he's with Misato. In Misato's office. Misato is sitting in her desk with big stacks of papers. Ritsuko is standing in front of her so is Justin. Ritsuko: Would you look here. You've got papers for protesting, reports for damage and a bill from the UN. Also, some complaints from the public. And while I'm at it, Asuka is gonna be living with you for now on as well. Misato: What. Why. With the boys, we barely got any room. Ritsuko: I realize that Mrs. Drunk. But it's more efficient that pilots stay together. Misato: Fine. Hey. What do you mean Mrs. Drunk huh. Ritsuko: Oh, nothing. Misato: Hmm. Anyway, I already know what all these papers say, don't fight here right. Ritsuko: That's a good guess. The sub-commander wasn't exactly happy except with the fact that Justin managed to defeat the first angel half. But otherwise, he's pretty pissed. Misato: I know. After I beat this angel, we won't fight here anymore. I will beat this angel. Justin: I don't know about that. This angel can split in two. And seems dangerous. I don't think it can be beat with one EVA anyway. Misato: Maybe that's right. Your EVA only defeated the first half. We may have to come up with a plan. Justin: Well, good luck with that. And just so you know, you're lucky the commander wasn't here. If he saw what happened, you'd get fired without a second thought. With that, Justin turns to leave before Misato calling out to him again. Misato: Where are you going. Justin: Where do you think. I'm going to unit 04 and finishing off those angels. Misato: Jeez. Why didn't I think of that. That's perfect. Finish the angels off before they regenerate. That's good thinking. But can you handle it by yourself. Justin: Of course. While they regenerate, they can't attack right. Since that's the case, I'll finish them off with one blow. Ritsuko: But our calculations indicate that the angels' AT field is still up. You can't break through. Justin: Sure I can. Everything breaks with something right. Ritsuko: But your Eva took damage and needs to be repaired. How will you fight with a damaged Eva. Justin shakes his head. Justin: Weren't you listening to what I said. It's regenerating. It's AT field is weak while it's healing. Plus, it can't do anything. So a damaged Eva can beat it. Regardless. Ritsuko: Sorry. But I won't let you. Your Eva will be repaired. You can attack when the 6 days are up. Justin: What. But if we don't do something, it could end up stronger. Ritsuko: Sorry. But that's an Order. Justin: Hmph. Fine. He walks up to Misato's desk. Justin: So, any idea's. Misato: Not one. Ritsuko: I've got one. She pulls out a disk from her pocket and hands it to Misato who takes it. Misato looks down at the disk in her hand before looking up again. Misato: So, you decided to help me dear friend. Ritsuko: Nope sorry. I'm not the one helping. It's Mr. Kaji's idea. Misato: Kaji? Hmmm. Justin: Well, as interesting as this is, I'm gonna leave. Ritsuko turns around. Ritsuko: You're not going to the Eva cage are you. Justin: Me. No. Ritsuko: Hope not. You've been ordered not to by me. Justin: I know. He then leaves. He catches up with Shinji just as he was gonna leave. So, he calls out to him. Justin: Hey. Shinji. Shinji turns around after hearing that and smiles. Justin quickly catches up with him and both boys walk out. Shinji: Um, good job with beating the angel. Justin: Huh, oh sure. It was no big deal. Shinji: Yes. But still. It actually splitting in two like that, that's incredible. I just hope no more can do that. Both boys share a laugh at that. Justin: Yes. That would be bad. (to himself) Unfortunately for you Lilims, I possess that power. But I can't use it till the time is right. Now out of his thoughts. At least Asuka won't be living with us. Shinji: Yeah I suppose. But she's not so bad. Justin just gives him a look. Soon, they arrive back at the apartment with a surprise waiting. As they head down the corridor, they see some boxes outside and both boys look at each other before opening the door to their apartment. And inside they find Asuka in a blue tank top in blue jean shorts drinking pop. Asuka turns around and sees both boys standing there with their mouths open. Asuka walks over to them. Asuka: Why are you two still here. Shinji: Still here. Justin: What does that mean you but before he finished, Asuka slaps him and he hits the ground. He immediately gets back up. Justin: Why the hell you do that for. Asuka: For what you were gonna say dumppkoff. Justin: You don't know what I was gonna say witch. Anyway, why the hell are YOU here. Asuka: Simple. I'm here to replace you two morons. Shinji and Justin: What? Asuka: That's right. Misato's gonna live with me instead of you two jerks which is more logical. But I honestly want to live with Kaji. Both boys just give a look. Justin: Shinji. You might want to check your room because I see your stuff in a box over there. He points with his finger. Shinji looks and freaks out while running towards his room. He opens it and is shocked to see a bunch of boxes in it. Asuka appears behind him. Asuka: What the hell are you doing to MY room. Shinji looks behind him. Shinji: What do you mean YOUR room. Asuka: You heard me. Speaking of which, why are Japanese rooms so small anyway. I couldn't even fit half my stuff in. She begins sliding the door open and shut. She then continues talking. What's with no locks on this damn door. Who ever heard of a door without a lock. Unbelievable. Misato soon appears behind her. Misato: The Japanese way is to consider others before yourself. From down the hall she heard Justin say ya right and you're not considerate yourself. Asuka turns around shocked. Misato: How's it going. You guys are gonna love living together. She heard Justin say frack no. Justin runs up to her from down the hall. Justin: Why the hell is she gonna live with us. I thought you just say Japanese people consider others before themselves. If that's true, you most certainly didn't consider us. Misato just pats his head with her hand. Misato: True. But this way is more efficient. Justin wishes efficient my @$$$. Unfortunately, Misato heard him but isn't gonna do anything. Misato: You three are gonna learn to get along. Asuka: What! Shinji: Why? Justin: I'm moving out. Misato: Now then. We will begin your training now. Misato's cell phone then rings and she gets it out of her jacket and answers it. Misato: Hello. On the other end. Ritsuko: Katsuragi. Get down here. The angel finished regenerating already. Misato: WHAT! But what about our plan. I thought it wasn't suppose to attack for 6 days. Ritsuko: I thought so too. But it's finished. It's merged back together and heading towards us. You've got to get here. Misato: Right. She hangs up and puts the phone away. She then turns to the kids. Misato: Listen up. The angel has already finished healing. It was faster than we thought. We must get you to Nerv fast. But before we do, I got something to say. You guys must work together to beat this angel. In other words, synchronize with each other. Understand. Asuka: What the hell. No way am I synchronizing with these idiots. I can beat it this time for sure. Justin: Sure you can. Just like last time. She's right. Our only option is to synchronize. Or at least attack at the same time. Asuka: Hmph. Fine. You do got a point fourth. But that's the only point you have. Got it. Justin: Whatever. Misato: See. Your getting along already. Shinji: I hate to interrupt, but there's an emergency if you forgot. Misato: Right. Let's go. All three children nod and head out. At Nerv command center. Shigeru: The target broke through the defense at Gora. Makoto: The target is gonna go through the mountain to reach us. We see the 7th angel going around the mountain with aircrafts circling around it in case it attacks. Ritsuko: Is Captain Katsuragi here yet? Just when she said that, the doors open and Misato comes rushing in. Misato: I'm sorry we're late. The children are already in there Eva's. Launch them now with out there external batteries attached to make the battle easier. Maya: Right. Now launching Eva unit's 01, 02 and 04. All three Eva's get launched and fly in the air where the angel has made it into the city. The angel see's them and shoots a laser blast at them knocking them into the ground. The three unit's get up. All three unit's charge at the angel but it shoots another laser blast knocking unit 02 back while unit's 01 and 02 charge in attacking the core making it split in half. The two angels fire laser blasts at them but both Eva's dodge them gracefully while back flipping avoiding each attack. Both Eva's land near unit 02 when it get's up again. The two angels float up and flies towards their enemy and missed because a shield rised up from below and stop them. The shield is now protecting the three Eva's so they can form a plan. From unit 02. Asuka: You idiots are screwing up. We need a plan. From unit 04. Justin: We. You got hit. It's your fault. But we do need something. From unit 01. Shinji: When I count to three, two of you charge in and attack each core while I jump up and draw my progressive knife. When I do, draw yours. Understand. Justin: Yes. Asuka: Who the hell made you boss. Why should we listen to you Baka. Justin: Shutup Asuka. It's a good plan. And the only one we have. Let's do it. Shinji: Right. But then the angels rip apart the shield and attack the Eva's. Shinji: Go. Unit's 02 and 04 rush and tackle the angels while unit 01 jumps up in the air. Unit's 02 and 04 kick the angels core's with there foot knocking them back while unit 01 draws it's progressive knife out. The two unit's do the same and all three slam there knives into the once again whole angel's core thus destroying it. In the command room everyone starts celebrating. Misato: They did it. Then the monitors clear and they see unit's 02 and 04 fighting while unit 01 stands back. Misato: What the hell are they doing. Shinji stop them. From Eva 01. Shinji: I cant. It started right after the angel got killed. Justin called Asuka a dog and she wasn't happy. So, they started fighting. In the command room. Fuyutski stands in Gendo's place. Fuyutski: Those two children are being annoying. I didnt expect this from the fourth child. Gendo wont like this. To be continued.

33 - The fourth child's story

It is now the next day after the battle with the 7th angel and the Eva's have been retrieved. Misato was happy about the defeat of the angel but upset because two of her charges fought each other with their Eva's which is considered a crime according to Nerv's rule book. And right after the angel was killed too. The two pilots are being held in a cell with each being chained to the wall to stop them from killing each other. The door opens and Misato steps in. Looking seriously at both of them. Misato: What did you two think you were doing yesterday. Both don't answer. Misato: Answer the question! Asuka: Well, it wasn't MY fault. The idiot over there started it. Justin: Oh, so I called you a dog. Big deal. Asuka: It's a big deal if you say it to someone as great as me. Justin: You mean as great as a pebble. Asuka is now getting pissed. Asuka: You're such a freak. Justin: Takes one to know one. The two then start arguing until Misato decides to speak again. Misato: Enough! The two pilots quiet down. Misato: You were to beat the angel. Nothing else. But because of what you two did, the sub-commander isn't happy. You don't use the Eva for your own personal use. That's not what they are for. And because of you two, I got deranked. I'm now a lieutenant. You two need to seriously think about what you've done. You've cost me my rank. Justin: You would've lost it anyway. Misato turns towards Justin and walks towards him. Misato: What was that? Justin: You heard me. The way you drink, the way you show up late. I'm surprised they let you keep your rank for this long. Misato gets really angry and slaps him across the face. Misato: Listen. And listen good. I've got only one more chance to go back to my regular rank. If either of you mess this up for me. Not only are you getting punished but you're not gonna be allowed to pilot anymore. Asuka: What! Misato: You heard me. Asuka: That's not fracking fair. You guys don't even have anymore pilots do you. And I don't mean Wondergirl or the scared twit. Misato: That may be. But we still have them. Justin: Fine with me. I'm sick of living in Japan anyway. I'll just go back to America where I belong. It's better than dealing with you people. Misato: All right. Fine. If that's what you want. Then go ahead. But remember. Unit 04 stays. Justin: No, it fracking doesn't. It comes back with me. We're going to the first branch. Misato: No, it doesn't. It's our property. Not the United States. Just like you. Justin then turns his head. Justin: So, that's what we are. Just tools or property that you own. You just treat us like we're some kind of doll that will obey your every command. That's pitiful. Really. You don't treat people like they're something you can throw away. That's not human. Misato: No. But that's how we survive. We need to use people just to survive. Justin: AND THAT MAKES IT OKAY. WHAT THE HELL IS WRONG WITH YOU. YOU DON'T TREAT PEOPLE LIKE THAT. EVEN IF YOU NEED TO SURVIVE. THAT'S NOT HOW YOU SURVIVE YOU TWIT. Misato: AND YOU KNOW ABOUT SURVIVING. Justin: Of course. I don't use people like you idiots do. And I should know about being used too. I was used in the first branch when they were testing the prototype unit 04. They had no concern about me. Only about unit 04 activating properly. Not my life. They didn't care whether I survived or not. The only reason they had me was so I would be the pilot. Unit 04 would not have worked otherwise. I still remember about how I almost died because unit 04 went out of control much like it did here.

(Flashback)

At the Nerv first branch base. Unit 04 was undergoing an activation test.

Announcer: The pilot has arrived. Repeat. The pilot has arrived. The announcement went throughout the whole place. In the control room, scientists were at their controls with the commander standing there.

Commander Jones: Has the pilot been inserted in the Eva yet? Scientist 1: Not yet. He's getting in now. The pilot gets in the tubular plug and sits down in the chair in front of some controls. Dr. Pete: The pilot is now in the plug. Now inserting. The entry plug inserts into the neck of the eva and gets locked in place. Dr. Pete: Entry plug in place. Commander Jones: Good. Begin the activation test. He heard yes sir from everyone. Miss. Rose: We are now connecting the power supply. Power supply connected. Starting activation system. Dr. Pete: Voltage is increasing to the critical point. 0.4, 0.1, rising. Commander Jones: Start the second activation phase. Miss. Rose: Yes sir. Pilot is connected. Dr. Myers: Start system phase 2. On the screen in front, it shows unit 04's neurons. Dr. Pete: Synapses inserted. Junction started. Miss. Rose: Pulses transmitted. Dr. Pete: All circuits operational. Miss. Rose: The initial contact is fine. Dr. Pete: Power has been transmitted up to the brachial muscle in both arms. No problems detected with the nerve links. Miss. Rose: Everything checked out fine. Up to 2544 on list satisfaction. Commander Jones: Arrange for third connection. Miss. Rose: Up to 2550 satisfied. Until absolute borderline, 0.9, 0.8, 0.7, 0.6, 0.3, 0.1. What the! Dr. Pete: The pulses are beginning to flow backwards. Problems encountered on third stage. The pilot is being rejected on the nerve center elements. Commander Jones: Stop the contacts. Break the circuits up to the 5th. Miss. Rose: Right. She presses the switch to break the circuits but doesn't succeed. Miss. Rose: Negative. The signal is not being accepted. Unit 04 is going out of control. In the test room, Unit 04 starts going nuts and tries to break free of its restraints. Commander Jones: Stop the experiment. Shut off the power. Dr. Myers: You heard him. Miss. Rose: Right. She tries shutting off the power but fails. Miss. Rose: No good. Unit 04 won't shut off its power. Dr. Pete: 30 seconds until complete standstill. In the test room, unit 04 breaks free of its restraints and starts pounding the wall until it breaks through. Commander Jones: What's the status of the pilot? Miss. Rose: We don't know. Unit 04 shut off the link into the plug. We're not sure if the pilot is alive. Commander Jones: I understand. We shall assume the pilot is dead. Everyone clear on that. All people: Yes sir. Commander Jones: Dr. Myers. The researcher next to him turns his head. Dr. Myers: Yes sir. Commander Jones: Take care of this. Dr. Myers: Yes sir. The commander then leaves. Dr. Myers turns his attention back to what's happening. Dr. Myers: Release Bokilete. Miss. Rose: Yes sir. Green fluid fills the room with unit 04 and starts taking effect. Unit 04 starts punching again until the bokilete stops its rampage. Everyone in the control room sighs. Dr. Myers: Allright. Let's wait until tomorrow to eject the entry plug. It'll be safer. Miss. Rose: But what about the pilot. Dr. Myers: The commander said he's dead. Besides, he's only one of many useless tools. We can replace him. He's of no use to us anymore. Dr. Myers then leaves the room. Dr. Pete: He's right. Unit 04 acted up because of the pilot. We will try with a new one. Dr. Pete gets up and leaves with everyone else. Miss. Rose however remains behind.

(End flashback)

Justin: So you see. I was just a useless tool to them. They just used me and other kids to see if we could activate unit 04. That's all we were to them. Useless items. Just like I am here. Now you see don't you. My life was not of importance. I was hoping it was different here. But I was wrong too. Justin looks to see if Misato was listening and he finds her with tears in her eyes. Justin: Misato. Are you ok? Misato looks at him and wipes the tears from her face with her sleeve before smiling back. Misato: Yes. And your right. I shouldn't treat you guys like that. Sorry. She moves in to hug Justin. Justin: It's ok. But you can stop. I can't breathe. She lets go. Misato: Sorry. Justin: Is Asuka allright. Misato looks behind her and finds her asleep before turning back. Misato: Yeah she's allright. Let's get you guys out huh. Justin smiles at that so does Misato while Asuka sleeps. To be continued.

34 - A hot struggle

It is now the next day and both pilots were released from their prison early. Asuka is shopping downtown with Kaji. Asuka: I'm so glad I'm going shopping with you Kaji. Kaji just looks ahead and both continue walking with Asuka hanging around Kaji's arm. Soon, they are in a swimsuit part of a store they went in. Kaji: Hey! Isn't this the swimsuit section. Asuka comes out from behind a line of different swimsuits. Asuka: Uh, huh. What do you think of this one? She holds up a fairly skimpy swimsuit which is red with white stripes. Kaji: Um, aren't you a little young to wear something like that. Asuka: Come on Kaji. It's what all the girls wear. After that, they leave and go to an outside coffee shop and sit. Kaji: Oh, is that right. Asuka is sitting across the table from Kaji. Asuka: Yep. It's gonna be great. Kaji: So, where are you exactly going. Asuka: O-ki-na-wa! We're going scuba diving. Kaji: Scuba diving huh. It's been years since the last time I went diving. Asuka: Where did you go for your school trip. Kaji: We never had one. Asuka: Why is that? Kaji: A little thing called second impact. Asuka: Oh. Kaji: Well, I think I should get you home so you can pack. Asuka: Right. Both people get up and head for Kaji's car and get in. Kaji starts the car up and takes Asuka back to the apartment. An hour later, they arrive at the apartment and Kaji drops Asuka off who blows him a kiss before heading inside. Inside the apartment, Asuka puts her stuff down before getting a surprise. In the bathroom, a certain penguin is bathing peacefully in the tub until a certain red head's voice disturbs it. In the kitchen. Asuka: What! Did you just say I can't go. Misato: That's right. She takes a sip from a stronger beer brand can. Asuka: What idiot decided this. Misato puts the can down. Misato: This one. PenPen walks out of the bathroom and quickly heads inside his fridge because he knows a battle is gonna happen. Asuka: So, we're on standby right. Misato: Right. Asuka: That's stupid. Misato: It's in case an angel attacks while you're gone so that's why you can't go. Asuka: But still. A good defense is a good offense. Why do we have to wait till they attack. Why can't we go find them and kill them. Misato: If we could, we would. Besides, that's under investigation by Ritsuko and Justin. We'll know if we can do that soon. Asuka: Hmph. She turns to Shinji who's drinking tea out of a cup. Asuka: Damn it Shinji. Quit hiding behind that cup and talk to these women. Be a man. Shinji puts his cup down. Shinji: I actually knew we couldn't go so. Asuka: So, you gave up then. Shinji: Right. Asuka sighs. Asuka: There's nothing worse than a male who's housebroken. Shinji: Don't talk about me like that. Misato: Enough! Both kids stop and turn their attention to their guardian. Misato: I know you wish to go but this can give you an opportunity to catch up with your studies. As soon as she said that, the door to the apartment opens and Justin walks in almost walking into the kitchen until he heard Misato talk about school work, so he decides to watch from out of sight. Misato holds up three disks which are report cards that have Asuka's, Shinji's and Justin's grades. Misato: Oh, look here. It would seem I have your report cards. Both children gulp. Misato: Did you two actually think I wouldn't know of your test scores. I'll have you know all of your grades get sent to my terminal. So, I can know your grades without waiting for your report cards. And I also know about your test scores. And I must say. I'm very disappointed in both of you. Asuka: What do you mean the BOTH of us. What about the 4th child. Misato: What about him? According to his report card, he's been doing very well considering it's a Japanese school. Asuka: Japanese school? Hmph. Didn't you know. The 4th child dropped out of school. Misato: What! That can't be true. If it was, I wouldn't have his report card with. Asuka: Of course. But it's true alright. The report card you have, is fake. From what I've heard, he dropped out some time ago. Before I even came. He just appeared in class so no one would suspect anything. He's fooled everyone. Including YOU. Misato looks at Justin's report card and notices something odd about it. She puts her finger on it and touches it. She notices it's sticky and crushes it and turns out to be gum in shape of a report card. Misato throws the gum and is now very pissed. Justin who's watching from the hallway, decides to leave. Justin: shoot. That big mouth ape told her. I'm gonna get it if i stay here. I better leave. Justin get's up and starts walking down the hall to the door but unfortunately bumps into a drawer with a vase of flowers on it on his way and the vase falls off making a big crashing noise. In the kitchen, all three people hear the crash and get up to check it out. When they peek into the hallway, they see Justin who's trying to sneak to the door now that he's got everyone's attention. Asuka get's a smile on her face because she know's Justin is gonna get it so she goes back into the kitchen while pulling Shinji. Misato however, just stares before speaking. Misato: So, how was school? Justin turns around and looks at Misato who's very unhappy. Justin gulps Because he knows he's caught. Misato: Well? He doesn't answer. Misato then decides to walk up to him so she does. She's now in front of him staring at him mad. Misato: Are you gonna speak or just stand there all day. I DO want an explanation for why you dropped out of school. Again, he just stands there. Misato however isn't gonna give up. Misato: ALLRIGHT. YOUR GONNA QUIT BEING SO DAMN SILENT AND EXPLAIN TO ME WHAT YOU WERE THINKING WHEN YOU DROPPED OUT. NOW! Justin decides to look up and still see's Misato's face red with anger. So, he decides to speak. Justin: You want to know so damn badly why i dropped out. I'll tell you. It's for Japanese people you ding dong. I'm not exactly Japanese nor can i speak it. I won't go to a school that's for Japanese kids. Got it. Misato: Oh, no, no, no. You're gonna go either willing or non willing. It's your choice. But remember this. She bends down to be eye level with Justin. Misato: I'm your guardian. And i decide what you do. Some things you can choose to do or not. But things like school and piloting Eva. Those are choices i will make. Understand. Justin: No. Misato: What did you say. Justin: I said no. I will not do what you wish for me to do. You're not even fit to be a guardian. In fact, you're a poor excuse for one. Justin then turns around and heads for the door before Misato grabs him tightly by the shoulders and turns him around to face her. Misato: You're not gonna leave. Justin: And you're gonna do what? Lock me in a cell. Pff. Dream on. In case your drunk brain forgot, i'm half angel. Even as a half angel, i still have power you could never have or dream about. I am superior to you lilims. All us angels are. So, you can't do nothing. Unless, you wish to be killed. Misato get's up and looks away. Justin just smirks. Justin: I see your choice is made. Now maybe you'll think about what you say to an angel next time. He then turns around and leaves the apartment through the door. Misato just stands there speechless. The next day, all the classmates of Shinji and Asuka has left on the plane to their school trip. At Nerv. Operator: Paste the data of Mt. Asamayama from Baltasar to Melchiar. Maya is sitting at her station reading her book while Makoto reads a comic and Shigeru practices playing a pretend guitar. Just above them Ritsuko and Misato are talking. Ritsuko: A school trip during a time like this. Seems a little useless. Misato: Well, i think it's to let them have fun while they can. You aren't a kid forever you know. And in a time like this. She sighs. You never know when you could die. Ritsuko looks down on her clipboard she has with. Ritsuko: That is true. Misato: Anyway, where's the 4th child? I've haven't seen him since yesterday. Ritsuko: Justin? He came in early today. Misato looks shocked. Misato: Early? Why wasn't i told of this. Ritsuko: Because, i have an assignment for him to do and i didn't want you to know. Misato: So, you had him come in without my knowledge then? Ritsuko: Correct. Misato sighs again. Misato: So, what kind of assignment did you give him. Ritsuko looks down on her clipboard before speaking again. Ritsuko: I had him go to Mt. Asamayama with unit 04. Misato: Why? You don't think an angel is there do you. Ritsuko: It's a possibility. The data we received from the research center there shows that an unknown object is within the volcano. And could be an unhatched angel. Misato: An unhatched angel? Well, how's unit 04 gonna go in. It's currently in the A type equipment. Ritsuko takes off her glasses. Ritsuko: You told him i wanted to learn about unit 04 right. Misato: Right. Ritsuko: That's what i did. While i did have to remove the wings, i added a new program into the system that'll allow unit 04 to change into a certain type equipment. Misato: What type? Ritsuko: Many. It can change into the standard A type equipment, the B type equipment which gives it a little more defense but unable to combat underwater, the C type equipment which allows you to fight underwater but unable to fight on land, the D type equipment which allows you to dive into extremely hot temperatures like a volcano, the E type equipment which gives you a temporary attack and speed boost and the F type equipment which gives it wings to fly. So, you see. Unit 04 is now ready for all combat situations. Misato: Wow! But could it work on the other Eva's? Ritsuko: Unfortunately, no. Unit 04 seems to be the only one that accepted the program. Trying it on the other evangelions would probably be a bad idea. There's no telling what could happen. Misato: I see. Ritsuko: Oh and another thing. The evangelion's color also changes when it uses a specific equipment. Misato: What do you mean? Ritsuko: I mean when unit 04 uses the D type equipment, it'll turn red with orange much like unit 02. It'll change colors to match the equipment except for the standard one that is. Misato: I see. That's good. At Mt. Asamayama volcano, unit 04 has now arrived at the volcano's edge. Justin: So, this is where that unknown object is huh. Look's hot. But then again, it is a volcano. Well, time to get going. Justin reaches for a secret button behind the seat and presses it. A screen in front tells him the D type equipment is on and then disappears. Justin: Good. I'm all set. Unit 04 is now red with orange much like unit 02. Unit 04 crouches down before diving into the volcano head first. In the lava, the temperature isn't effecting unit 04 at all thanks to the D type equipment. Unit 04 continues to swim downward. In the entry plug. Justin: Wow. I can't see anything. The heat outside must be effecting my sight. From the research center. Tech 1: Pilot powers. Can you read me? From unit 04: Yes. Tech 1: Good. You are currently at 500 ft. The target is estimated to be at 4500 ft which is near the bottom. Can you handle it. Unit 04: Yes ma'am. In the volcano, unit 04 continues its trip down until it stops. Justin: What the hell? That's an but before he could finish the unknown thing that caught the pilot's attention attacks knocking unit 04 towards the volcano wall. A commlink opens in the entry plug from the research center. Tech 1: Pilot powers. What is happening? Justin: I don't know. Something is attacking. I thought you said the unknown object is at 4500 ft. Because from where I am, it's only been 1500 ft. Tech 1: No. My data shows the target is at 4500 ft. You must be but before she finished, the unit is attacked. Last thing she heard was the scream of the pilot. The screen in front shows unit 04 deactivated. Tech 1: What? No. I have to contact Nerv about this. She grabs the phone and calls Nerv. At Nerv, the phone rings and Ritsuko answers it. Ritsuko: Hello? Tech 1: Dr. Akagi? This is one of the techs from the research center. Ritsuko: Oh, hi. Did you find anything out? Tech 1: Sort of but you need to get here quickly. Ritsuko: Why? What happened. Tech 1: To put it simple, unit 04 was attacked by something and lost contact with the pilot. Ritsuko: What do you mean lost contact with the pilot. Tech 1: It's like I said. Unit 04 was attacked by something unknown and we lost communication. Ritsuko: I see. Very well. I will send Captain Katsuragi and one of our tech's there to investigate. Tech 1: But ma'am. What about the pilot. Ritsuko: No need to worry. Unit 04 will keep him alive as long as it's attached still. Tech 1: Allright. She hangs up so does the doctor. Ritsuko looks over to her friend who's looking at her seriously. Misato: What happened. I heard you say something about the pilot. What exactly happened? Ritsuko: I really don't know but from what I heard, something unknown attacked unit 04 out of the blue. Misato: Was it the same unknown object you spoke of. Ritsuko: We don't know. For all we know, there could be two unknown objects in there. Misato: Well, are we gonna send help to retrieve him or what. Ritsuko: No. For now, I'm sending you and a tech to investigate what happened. Once we know, we can form a plan for beating whatever it was and rescue the pilot. As of this point, the pilot's life is of none importance. The one priority is to find out what happened before taking any action. Do you understand. Misato just looks down a bit angry about what she said but also knows it's true. She then looks back up. Misato: Allright. I'm going to the research center now. You don't need to send one of our techs with, I'm sure one at the research center can help. She then leaves. Ritsuko just sits there wondering. In the Nerv pool. Shinji is at one of the table's working on an assignment on his laptop until Asuka comes up with that one swimsuit she bought. Asuka: What are you working on now Mr perfect. Shinji: Just studying. Asuka: You really are obedient aren't you. Shinji: Well, I should. He then looks up and nearly faints because of the swimsuit Asuka has on. Asuka: Well, if I can't go diving at Okinawa, I'll do it here. Shinji: O...okay. She then bends down to look and just smiles and begins typing until. Asuka: Finished. Shinji: How did you manage to work a hard problem like that out and end up failing. Asuka: It's because I don't know what the questions say. Shinji: You mean you can't read the questions in Japanese. Asuka: No. I didn't learn all my kanji yet. But I never had to study this in college. Shinji: You went to college already? Asuka: Yep. I graduated last year. So, what does this question say. Shinji: It's a question about thermo-expansion. Asuka: Are you serious. Hmph. It's easy. Look. If I warm up my breasts with my hands, will they grow or shrink. Shinji turns around blushing. Shinji: I don't know. I don't think about those kinds of things. Asuka: You are boring. She turns around and heads for the end of the pool and Shinji turns back around. He then notices Rei drying off. Asuka: Hey Shinji. Look. Look. Shinji turns around and sees Asuka in scuba gear on the edge of the pool. Asuka: Backroll entry. She dives in and Shinji just sighs. At the Mt. Asamayama research center. Tech 1: The limit has been passed enough. It won't go any farther. Misato: 500 more. Tech 1: But. Misato: I said 500 more. Tech 1: Yes ma'am. The probe continues it's decent into the volcano. Tech 2: Depth is 1200. Anti-pressure armor is cracked. It won't stand any more. Tech 1: Captain. Misato: If it breaks, we'll buy a new one. 200 more. The probe continues down despite how much pressure it's has. Tech 3: We detect something on the monitor. Misato: Bring it up. Tech 3: Right. The tech types on the keyboard making the monitor appear in front of everyone showing the inside of the volcano. It also shows what that unknown object that attacked unit 04. Misato: Analysis it NOW! Tech 1: Yes. The tech types on the keyboard until a ping is heard. Tech 1: Analysis complete. The unknown object is now being identified. Identification complete. Misato looks on the smaller screen in front of the tech. Misato: I see. The screen says: WAVELENGTH PATTERN-Blue. Misato: It's an angel alright. Tech 3: The probe was attacked. The probe is gone. Misato: That's alright. We now know what attacked unit 04. Listen up. This research center is now under the jurisdiction of Nerv. The info contained here will be kept here. It shall not leave. Also, any unauthorized phone calls made to the outside world, is strictly not allowed. Understand. All the tech's nod. Misato: Good. At a secret location, a meeting is being held by Seele. SEELE 02: What do you mean unit 04 was attacked? Gendo: It's correct. Unit 04 was indeed attacked by an unknown enemy in the volcano according to Dr. Akagi. SEELE 04: But how is that possible. Unit 04 is one of the best Evangelion's. It's one of the strongest. How could it lose. SEELE 01: Yes Ikari. Explain how this happen. Gendo: It's like I said. We only found out by the data we got. But you don't need to worry. We will not be defending for long. We will go offensive soon enough. SEELE 02: But you better still watch what you say to us and what you do. Understand. Gendo: Of course. SEELE 05: Good. But the rest of our meeting is of no concern to you. You may leave. Gendo: Understood. Gendo leaves the meeting. SEELE 03: How is this possible. That angel boy shouldn't have been beaten so easily. If he manage to fight those other angels, there should be no reason why he couldn't win this fight. SEELE 03: Correct. But it was unexpected, like most disaster's are. This will most likely disrupt our plans. SEELE 01: Yes. It most likely will. But that does not mean we can't alter it a bit. SEELE Chairman: Of course. For our goal to be accomplished, we shall have to make adjustments to make it obtainable. But what Ikari said about unit 04, his loyalty is becoming questionable. In the Nerv briefing room. A giant picture of the angel is shown in front of everyone. Shinji: This is the angel right. Ritsuko: Yes. But because of it hatching out of it's chrysalis or egg, it manage to get hold of Eva 04 and defeated it quickly. And thus proves it must of became stronger before unit 04 even went in. Asuka: So, how are we to beat it if it defeated unit 04 so easily? Ritsuko: Simple. You battle it like any other angel but be extra careful. It's strength is strong. Understand. Shinji, Asuka and Rei: Yes. Ritsuko: Good. Now who's gonna go in and rescue unit 04 and defeat the angel. Shinji (whispers): It'll be me again. Asuka: I want too. Shinji turns his head towards Asuka. Ritsuko: Really? Asuka: Yes. Since unit 04 failed, I shall succeed where that loser didn't. Ritsuko: Should of known. Alright. Unit 02 will be using the D type equipment much like unit 04 did but with some differences. Asuka: Right. Ritsuko: Unit 01 will be at the sight in case something goes wrong. Shinji: Right. Rei: What about me. Maya: The D type equipment won't work on unit 00 because of it being the prototype. Ritsuko: Yes. So, unit 00 will be on standby here. Rei: Understood. Asuka turns to Rei and starts making fun of her because she cant go. Inside the Mt. Asamayama volcano at the bottom. Unit 04 suddenly reactivates. In the entry plug. Justin: Ugh. What happened. Ugh. Where am i. Unit 04 moves it's head to look around. Justin: Oh, that's right. I went in the volcano to find out what that unknown object was. It was an angel. But it was a strong angel none the less. But wow, it can really fight. I didnt stand a chance. I wonder if it's still around. Unit 04 continues to look around but dont see any sign of the angel. Justin: It's gone? But where it gone is the question. Suddenly, a screen appears in front saying enemy attack. Warning. Enemy attack. Justin: Oh frack. The angel rams unit 04 knocking it further down. Justin: Damn it. I cant get up or i be kicking that thing's @$@ now. I took a lot of damage before, so i cant get up. What the hell am i gonna do. The angel descends upwards then rushes back down headbutting unit 04 in the back. Justin: Damn it. The angel then streches it's arm and grabs unit 04 by the neck and the angel pulls it up towards it before biting it. Justin: DAMN IT. GET OFF. The angel let's go of it's prey and drops it towards the bottom. Unit 04 barely lifts it's head up to see the angel rushing towards it. Justin: shoot. I'm deffensless. The angel rams into unit 04's head thus knocking it and the pilot out again. To be continued.

35 - Justin's secret Exposed Part1

Now continueing from the last chapter.Asuka:Hmm.This doesnt look any different then my regular plugsuit.Is it suppose to be different.

Ritsuko:Yes.Press the switch on your right wrist.Asuka:Huh?Ok.She presse's the switch and her whole Plugsuit expands making her look like a fat person.

Asuka:What the hell happened.I look like a fat person.Ritsuko:It's to protect you from the intense heat in the volcano.Now,follow me.Unit 02 should be ready.

She follow's Ritsuko into the chamber where Unit 02 is and isnt happy to see what happened.Asuka:W...W...What the hell happened to my Unit 02?Unit 02 is in a heat ressistant suit wich is similar in how Asuka look's but white and with the letter D type on the chest.

Ritsuko:Unit 02 is now fitted with the special D type equipment to withstand the intense heat from the volcano just as I told before.Asuka:No way in hell I'm going out with Unit 02 looking like that.

Isnt that what you have Shinji or that loser 4th child for.Kaji:Oh,I'm dissapointed.Asuka looks up after hearing that voice and see's Kaji on the upper story.Asuka:No.I cant go out like this with Kaji watching.She then goes and hide's behind a wall.

Then,Maya's voice is heard over the intercome.Maya:Are we having problems?Ritsuko:Sort of.Shinji and Rei comes in in their plugsuits.Shinji:I'll do but he's cut off when Rei speaks.Rei:I will go in unit 02.When Asuka heard this,she get's pissed and comes out from behind the wall.

Asuka:No way wondertwit.Only way your going in my Unit 02 is over my dead body.She then turns around and look's at unit 02.Asuka:Sorry.They made me do it.

Meanwhile,at the bottom of the volcano.Unit 04 still remain's unactive and the angel continue's swimming around it.However,inside the entry plug,the pilot wake's up with white,glowing eye's. Soon after,Unit 04 awaken's as well with the same glowing white eye's.The angel doesnt fail to notice and immedeaditly attacks.It lunges at the unit's neck with it's arm but unit 04 grab's it just as it's about to grab it's neck with it's arm.

But right at that point,the angel stops and starts speaking similar to what Gaghiel did.Sandalphon:Why are you helping these lilims.Angel.

From unit 04's entry plug:It's the same as what I told the 6th angel.I will not reveal myself yet.I must keep who I really am a secret for the time being.And to do that,I must kill you.Sandalphon:Really now.That's sad.Why dont you stop piloting this thing and help me reach Adam.It is the goal for all angels.Ralile:I realize this.But I have my reason's for keeping my angel side secret.Now,move,or I'm killing you.You awoke my angel side, and combined with Unit 04's power,I will easily overwhelm you.Sandalphon:Fine.If that's how you feel,I'll kill you.You traitor.Sandalphon then get's free and start's attacking unit 04 with it's claw's but Unit 04 easily block's them until the angel give's up and swim away but not too soon coming back at full speed in an attempt to ram it.Unit 04 manage's to evade it but the angel clawed the side as it went past it.

Justin:OW.Damn.Because of that claw attack although inaffective,it was still enough to cause me to lose my angel power and revert back.Still doesnt mean I cant but he was cut off by another claw attack from the angel.This time,it's attack seriously injured unit 04 and caused it to malfunction,making it shut down completely. Justin: shoot. Unit 04 powered down. And I can't seem to start it back up. Look's like my only option that still works is the self-destruct mechanism. But considering I'm in Magma, it might be a bad idea unless I get my angel side to lend me an AT Field powerful enough to protect me. The risk is high but I got no choice. He presses the self-destruct button and the Eva explodes in an explosion so big, it shook the volcano. Unfortunately for the angel, it didn't have an AT field and was also close enough to the explosion. As a result, it broke away. Dieing.

Back on top. Everyone has assembled around the volcano for the operation. Operator: Eva units 1 and 2 have arrived. Two carrier's overhead release's the Eva's and both land shaking the volcano. Misato: Unit 2 is to await near the edge of the volcano while unit 1 is backup. Understand. She's obviously talking to the two pilot's who answer understood. Get the laser shot and crane prepared. Makoto: Roger. He then runs off while another tech from the Mt. Asamayama research lab comes running towards Misato. It's a guy. Tech: Captain Katsuragi. Misato turns around after hearing her name being called and sees a tech from the research lab. Misato: What. Tech: We have some info regarding Unit 04. Misato: Unit 04? Tech: Yes. We lost the signal. Misato: I know that. Tech: You don't understand. This signal disappeared after an explosion happening inside the volcano. Misato: Are you saying the unit self-destructed? Tech: It's possible. But not confirmed yet. Misato: Understood. But, if you find anything out. Report to me at once. Tech: Right. The tech then leaves, leaving Misato in her thoughts. Misato (Thinking to herself): There's no way. He wouldn't be THAT stupid. Would he? Of course not. It's just stupid to do something like that in a volcano. But still. Misato is soon woken from her thoughts with Asuka's voice from unit 02. Asuka: Is Kaji here? Misato: No. He has no business here. Asuka: Noooo. I wanted him to see me Succeed.

Somewhere on a cable car heading up the Mountain. A woman with a cat and a man are sitting across from each other. Women: A17 was issued. Our assets are frozen. Kaji: I realize that. Women: But why didn't you stop him? Kaji: There's no reason to. The order is official. Women: But if Nerv fails, we're all gonna die. Kaji: Don't worry. Even they aren't this arrogant.

Back on the Volcano. Shinji in unit 01 notices an air force plane's flying overhead. Shinji: What's that. Ritsuko's voice is then heard. Ritsuko: The UN. They're here for certain reasons. Maya then chimes in. Maya: At least till this is done. Asuka from Unit 02 then chimes in. Asuka: They're here to help. Ritsuko: No. They're here in case. Maya: We fail. Asuka: What do you mean fail? Ritsuko: They will drop an N2 bomb to kill the angel and us if we can't destroy the angel ourselves. Shinji: Who orders something like that. Ritsuko: Your father. Shinji: Bastard. Operator: Laser operation complete. Shigeru: Everything checks out fine. Maya: Type D equipment ok. Makoto: Unit 02 is now in position. Misato: Roger. Unit 02. Get ready to but she's cut off by a rumbling of the volcano which shakes everything up. Then, the lava spews upward with a figure inside it. This confuses everyone. The figure then floats out and lands on the opposite side of where Unit 02 is standing with an AT field up.

Misato notice's and think's it's the angel unaware of who it really is. Misato: Cancel the operation. Look's like the angel decided to come to us. Eva unit 1. Get ready for battle.
Shinji: Roger. Asuka: What about me. Misato: Sorry Asuka. But you dont have too much movement because of the suit. Asuka: Damn it. The angel figure then starts moving towards them. Unit 01 is just about to move when Misato realizes who it is thanks to it being closer. Misato: Justin? The angel nod's. To be continued.

Now continuing from the last chapter. The angel figure continues walking towards Misato while Asuka decide's to kill it.

Even realizing her Eva doesnt have too much movement doesnt stop her from moving. Unit 02 suddenly jumps up in the air and try's bodyslamming the angel but is repelled by it's AT field and thrown back. Misato: Asuka. What the hell are you doing.

Obviously, ignoring her word's, she get's back up again and try's charging the angel but because of the D type equipment, it's nearly impossible. The angel use's it's laser blast attack and knock's Unit 02 backwards almost falling in the volcano but

Unit 01 arrived and grabbed Unit 02 before it did. Now, the angel figure continues walking towards Misato but not before it reverts back to a certain pilot. Unfortunately, all the people who are there happen to witness this and this could cause problems.

The first person to notice is Ritsuko. And she's lessed then pleased. In fact, she stomp's over to where misato is. Ritsuko: Misato!

Hearing her name, she turn's around and see's the doctor quite angry. Obviously knowing why, she carefully responds. Misato: Yeah. Ritsuko: Did you know Justin was an angel?

Answer me honestly. Although, considering it's you, that probably isnt possible. Misato: Well, to be honest. I didnt know. When he came up, I was sort of expecting the angel we saw in the briefing room. Ritsuko: What does that have to do with what I'm talking about now. I asked if you knew he was an angel. If you dont tell me, I'll have to report this to the Commander. And once he finds out, he wont be very pleased. Now, for the last but she's cut off by Justin who came over while they were chatting. Justin: I'm sorry doctor.

I told Misato my secret and also told her not to tell. It's my fault. Not to mention, certain events happened in the volcano against the 8th angel which caused me to change. I'm awfully sorry. Ritsuko just stares at his face and see's he is sorry. So, she softens up on her anger. Ritsuko: Alright. Here's the deal. As long as the 8th angel was defeated, I wont report this inccident to the Commander. But, next time this happens. This will be reported and you will be suspended from all Eva activity's as well as being classified as an angel. I hope it wont come to that so be sure to keep your self in check. Understand. Justin nods. Ritsuko: Good. Now, for you Misato. Ritsuko turns to her friend and speaks. Ritsuko: Keeping something like this a secret from Nerv isnt wise Misato. So, I have no choice but to put you in jail for it. I'm sorry. Misato lower's her head realizing it's true but Justin decide's to speak up. Justin: Dont do that. It wasnt her fault like I said. If it's anyone's fault, it's mine. See, when I was battleing the angel in Unit 04, the angel did a powerful attack with one of it's claws as it rushed by and somehow shut down Unit 04 completely. Leaving me no choice but he is cut of by Misato this time.

Misato: What exactly happened to Unit 04? Ritsuko look's at Misato then back to Justin wondering the same thing. Justin then look's nervously at the ground instead of the two women standing in front of him. However, this wont last long as Misato is getting impatient. Misato: Well? Justin look's up and gulps before decideing to answer. Justin: Well, as I was saying before you cut me off, Unit 04 completely shut down and left me defenseless. And my only option was the self-destruct mechanism, so before I initiated it, I but he quickly covered his mouth up, not realizing that he was exposing himself. Although he already did. He continues speaking. Justin: I... Err... was... hmm... wishing that I would survive the explosion when I initiated the self-destruct button and I somehow did as you can plainly see. So, as you might have figured out by now, Eva Unit 04 no longer exists. I self-destructed it to kill the angel and it did. That's what happened. Although, that might be true. Both women don't seem to buy it. Ritsuko: Bullshit. That is about as believable as aliens existing on other planets. Justin raises his right eyebrow at that and decides to make a remark about it. Justin: I see. You believe in giant monsters known as Angels but don't believe in aliens. Huh. That's funny. Of course, making that comment earns him a slap on the head from Ritsuko. Ritsuko: Nevermind. Let's just go. But not before she starts leaving does Justin and Misato look at each other obviously knowing what the other is thinking. Well, one anyway. And so, with a blink of the eye's. A white flash is seen briefly. Then, Misato walks over to Justin and bends down to be eye level with him. Misato: What did you do? Justin just smirks before answering. Justin: Simple. I used a move called memory eraser. It wiped the memories of everyone who saw me in angel form. Thus, forgetting all about that. And, making a certain doctor forget all about your secret keeping and not throwing you in jail. It comes in handy wouldn't you say. Misato smiles as she nods her head. She then bends back up. Misato: Well, this wasn't exactly what I had in mind but oh well. What do you say Me, you, Asuka and Shinji go to a hot spring resort near here. Justin nods happily. Misato: Good. I'll go get Shinji and Asuka. Wait here ok. Justin: Ok. Misato then leaves, leaving Justin to his thoughts. Justin (thinking to himself): Damn. Commander Ikari isn't gonna like this. Neither will the committee. But more specifically, the commander. Self-destructing Eva unit 04 wasn't wise because it's apparently of great worth just like unit 01. Chances are, he'll strip me of my pilot status but considering I used unit 04's self-destruct mechanism to destroy the angel, it might be possible he won't but that seems really unlikely. Not that it matters much anyway. There's not too much time left before I get started. He is then startled out of his thoughts by a certain red head's voice who's apparently been swearing over something. Justin: Asuka's pissed. But then again. Why wouldn't she be.

At a secret place, a meeting is being held by Seele.

SEELE 03: Unit 04? Did it self-destruct.

SEELE 04: Yes. It would seem so. But now our goal can't be accomplished.

SEELE 02: I wouldn't be so sure. Remember, that unit was a prototype. The Americans are working on the construction of the actual unit. Our goal can still be accomplished. And we still have unit 01. If all else fails.

SEELE 03: Right. But what happens if the boy finds out what we're planning? He's part angel, he could easily annihilate us.

SEELE 02: True. But rest assured. That won't happen. We have a plan.

SEELE Chairman: Correct. Our plan will succeed. As long as Ikari doesn't interfere that is. And as long as the angel's get beaten, everything is going according to plan. The promised day will soon be here.

Now at a hot spring resort. Misato and Asuka quickly rush in the building to the hot spring while Shinji and Justin sit outside.

The two boys sit in silence until Justin decides to break it. Justin: So, why was she so pissed off earlier. Shinji: Something about not proving how great she is and how a loser like you defeated an angel even though you were unconscious. Justin just smirks before speaking again. Justin: Of course. She hates it when she doesn't win. Anyway, he says while getting up. I'm going to the hot spring to relax.

You coming? Shinji: Yes. I'll be right there. Justin: Sure. Justin then heads inside. Seconds later, a carrier truck drives up and the driver comes out holding a package and sees Shinji. Carrier: Excuse me. Is this where some people from Nerv are. Shinji stands up and answers.

Shinji: Yes. Carrier: Here. This is for you. He hands over the package and goes back on his truck and leaves. Shinji stares at the package curiously.

Shinji: Wonder what this is. He then sees it's from Kaji and opens it up. As soon as he did, PenPen popped out and was searching frantically for water.

Shinji: The hot springs are that way he says while pointing behind him. As soon as PenPen left, he decided to go in as well.

Inside, Shinji makes it to the boys' dressing room and sees no one in there so he gets undressed and grabs a towel on his way out. Meanwhile, Justin was wandering the halls towards the hot spring and unfortunately wasn't watching where he was going so he ended up on the women's side instead of the guys'.

As soon as he left the building and got in the hot spring, he realized he made a mistake because he saw both Asuka and Misato naked in the spring and naturally, Asuka got upset about it.

Asuka: What the hell are you doing here fourth. Don't you know this is for women only. The guys are on the other side of this fence Dumpkoff. So get out. Justin: Why?

Asuka: Were you listening to me you idiot. I said get out. Justin just snorts before saying something back. Justin: Hmph. Why the hell should I leave. Better yet. Why should I listen to you.

Asuka obviously gets even more pissed off. Asuka: Get out fourth or I'll break your neck. Justin: I like to see you try miss she-devil. Asuka: What was that. But before she could say anything else, Misato interferes.

Seeing her naked body, Justin starts blushing but then notices a scar on her chest. Asuka notices this and would say something like pervert but also notices the scar. Misato notices them staring at it and decides to sit back down in the spring to explain it. Misato: This. It's something I got from second impact. Nothing to worry about. Both children dismiss it and starts bickering again which causes Misato to sigh in disbelief.

Meanwhile, Shinji apparently got lost and found himself somewhere deep in the hallways of the building with nothing but a towel covering his private part up. Looking around, he sighs before talking to himself. Shinji: How'd I get lost?
