It was a poor attempt to be smart... I won't try that again. I think it mostly turned into rambling.

1 - Untitled

Age is not a sign a sign of wisdom.

Though it may seem that he, who is oldest is wisest.

Wisdom and intelligence are both matters of perception,

For in someone's eyes the wisest, and most intelligent man alive

Can seem to that someone as the most witless and infantile man alive.

Therefor there is no true measure of intelligence only

Perception.
