Chapter 1 - Felis Domesticus

2

1 - Felis Domesticus

Sprinting through the shadowy night,
We see by a mysterious light.
Curious, sneaky, and very thin,
We fall to the ground, landing on our paws again.
With our claws and needle-sharp teeth,
We stalk our prey in alleys and streets.
On silent paws we prowl around,
When we attack, there will be no sound.
You may think we're simply small and tame,
But we are hunters all the same.
