1 - Spirit Wolf Interduction and Chapter 1 Spirit Wolf

Interduction

In the great wolf pack in the United States of America during D-Day in 1944 there was a powerful and heroic wolf warrior called Spirit Wolf. He was cold hearted and only cared about himself so pretty much he was careless that was until there was a upbeat snarl coming to the Great Northern Wolf Pack

Chapter One Spirit Wolf

Spirit Wolf was sitting on his usual old White Oak tree branch in the Great Althorn Forest watching the rest of the wolves play and howl "Watch all those immature wolves playing and howling jointly together, HAH they should be getting ready for the winter and for the Shekay Wolves come back I reminder that smell from any where. Grrr&. Alpha Kodi! I'll-I'll kill you" Spirit Wolf growled intensely. I hope everyone is ready for the impact that is coming this way

As Spirit Wolf was in a deep thought until he heard a humongous roar coming for the dangerous Bear Mountain, and all the other wolves started going crazy of the huge sound of the none other than a Grizzly bear.

2 - Big Bear

"Grizzlies run for your life!!!" cried Grendland.

"Greytooth save us" Alpha Female Ice Wind, Ice Bite's mom.

Every wolf was going frantic over the huge growl getting louder and louder. We're going to die goodbye everyone it was pleasant knowing you Avalanche wined. Spirit Wolf, help us please!! Ice Bite screaming trying to get Spirit Wolf to come. After he heard Ice Bite scream Spirit Wolf jumped right off the old White Oak tree and preceded through the leafless forest. When the grizzly bear heard Spirit Wolf prowling through the Dark Forest he got on his hind legs ready to fight.

When Spirit Wolf got there and saw the huge grizzly bear on hind legs and he stopped in his tracks right on a dime. When the grizzly bear flung his enormous razor-sharp paw at Spirit Wolf, Ice Bite thought it was going to miss, but it didn't it knock Spirit Wolf directly and he soared to a nearest evergreen tree with a gigantic wound on his left eye. Ice Bite felt her heart yank out when she saw the gigantic wound on Spirit Wolf's left eye that was bleeding furiously. Spirit Wolf in huge rage bit the bear on his thigh and gripped it hard making the bear fall to nothing more than his death.

Ice Bite flashed straight to Spirit Wolf to see if he was ok. He was so she followed him to make sure.

They made it to his White Oak tree for him to get some sleep. "I shall see you tomorrow, Ice Bite" "Why dose he have to be so proper" Ice thought in her mind as Spirit Wolf leaped up in his White Oak tree. Ice Bite only made a little nod and she darted back to her den because of the countless amounts of miles away from Spirit Wolf's White Oak tree. "Should I tell him I love him" Ice Bite thought as she made it to her den and thought about her affection on Spirit Wolf.

3 - Tail of memories

Spirit thought about many things in his old White Oak tree. He thought about the wound on his left eye, the way Ice Bite looked as she saw the scar on his face, and about his parents got murdered by mankind then growled at the instigating sting from the wound on his left eye.

Spirit Wolf fell fast asleep in no time. He dreamt about how he got his very first scars he was a year old, in the wolf dome at the entrance of Bear Mountain, he was battling the fearsome Shekay Wolf Pack leader, Alpha Kodi, for the fight for the death. Alpha Kodi was in for his 15th win and Spirit Wolf well his first.

Alpha Kodi was like a speeding silver bullet to Spirit Wolf and end up slashing Spirit's abdomen, legs, right eye, tail, and back. Minutes later Spirit Wolf fainted from lack of blood and almost passed away if it were not for Ice Bite aid. And after that day Ice Bite had been Spirit Wolf's only friend. Spirit Wolf finally went back to full health and waited for Alpha Kodi's to return.

4 - One and only Ice Bite

While Spirit Wolf was still in deep slumber in his old White Oak tree, Ice Bite snuck in the White Oak tree and scam "HEY SPIRINT S UP!!!" "AAAAA!!!" Spirit Wolf cried and fell right out of the tree scared to death. Until Spirit looked up at Ice Bite who was amused to the fall and stared laughing her lungs out and he loudly growled at her. Ice stopped laughing to see to gigantic mark on his left eye and her heart sank. Spirit Wolf noticed Ice had been quiet for a few minutes and requested if see was ok. She only nodded and then jumped out of the old White Oak tree. But sadly she only landed on Spirit Wolf that made them both plunged to the wet emerald green grass. Ouch Ice Bite can you please get off me Spirit Wolf sternly said trying to breath. Ice Bite got off of Spirit Wolf and he mumbled under his breath as he got up. "Hey aren t you going that endurance test that Alpha Greytooth prepared for all the wolves in the pack" Ice asked. "I don t know why he had to make that we can protect ourselves" Spirit Wolf said puffing his chest out.

"I don t know if I can Sprint" Ice Bite miserably said as she looked down at her paws as Spirit Wolf stared over to Ice Bite and noticed a slight blush on her cheeks. "Ice Bite, are you running a fever I can take you to a doctor Avalanche if so" Spirit Wolf requested to her worriedly.

Ice Bite gradually shook her head and lied down next to Spirit Wolf who was joyful at the time. Spirit Wolf smiled a bit a laid next to her and cuddled with her. Alarmed she moved her head away from him and started to sob. Spirit Wolf alarmed and asked "Are you ok Ice?"

"Yea excellent, Sprint" She said about to sob. Spirit Wolf was miserable to see his only friend was about to cry.

"Ice Bite is there something you have to say to me? If so tell me now I m lessening." Spirit Wolf sighed and sat up.

"U-U-Umm n-n-nothings wrong!" Ice Bite bashfully answered as she got up too. Spirit Wolf confused about was wrong with Ice Bite and how she was talking, but he only shook his head and walked toward the Great Northern Pack. Ice Bite only groaned as she fallowed him away as possible.
