<!-- hello! welcome to your new layout. i'll be here to help you customize everything in case you have trouble navigating the coding.-->

<!-- below me is the coding for the three stationary boxes on the right side of the screen. each of them has enough space for a sentence or two. the "about me" box can be used to introduce your name and a few other things about yourself. the links can be used to link people to a sales thread or family thread or something like that. the reminders box can be used for just about anything! just remember to keep the content in these boxes short.-->
