Have you ever loved someone, but didn't know how to talk to them? That's what this poem is about.

Chapter 1 - "Shy"

1 - "Shy"

"Shy"

This was totally me last year.

I hide from you

What else can I do?

I don't think you'd understand

Yet, who really can?

Even though I love you

There's not much I can do for you.

Wishing I could say something for once

But I just stand here, feeling like a dunce

I want you to know me

But what will you then think of me?

It's down to this, now

I've got to make you see me—but how?

It's now I realize I'll do nothing

Just wait for you to do something

I feel like a coward

Speaking to you...I have no power

I have little courage to even say "hi!"

But I am not a coward; I am just shy.

How many of you have ever felt like this?
