Kai Hiwatari looked over his shoulder as a loud 'THUD' was heard behind him. He saw two forms laying on the ground, both with two toned hair similar to his own and the one the longer hair was glaring daggers at the other, who seemed to be unconscious. 'Not again...' he thought, walking over to the younger teens. "What did he do this time, Tai?" he asked the only conscious one.

“He pulled me around the city to look for you and he ran into a street sign and when he fell, he kinda pulled me with him.” was the quiet reply as the girl pulled herself into a sitting position and pulled her wrist free from her unconscious twin's hand.

“Well, let's get him to my friend's dojo. He can sleep there...maybe.” Kai picked up the unconscious Hiwatari and grabbed his sister's hand.

'This is going to be one strange day...' Kai thought as he walked towards the Kinomiya Dojo.

Little did he know that it was just going to get stranger...
