Chapter 1 - Senses Tingling	2
Chapter 2 - Second part	3

1 - Senses Tingling

If you glimpse their eyes,

Dare you stare?

If you hear their voice,

Dare you speak?

If you feel their breath,

Dare you breathe in?

If you smell your own,

Dare you breathe out?

If you sense that they're there,

Without a shadow of a doubt,

What happens if they aren't?

2 - Second part

Don't break the spell,

It will tear you apart.

Your face will tell,

On your splitting heart.

Day by day you will be torn,

With lines of blood.

Pulled by misery and scorn.

And the pain will flood,

Dulling your senses again.
