A Maraquan Refugee's Life

"Ok kids, Chi...Hyro...Time for bed!" as momo looks at the kids.."AWWW...Do we have to? Its only 6:30pm NST!!!" as chi and hyro said together.."yes now can you go upstairs and drift off? so that way you can stay up tomorrow night.." as yasu chimed in.."ok" the two of them said as they gloomly swam upstairs to go to their bedroom. "AND NO FIGHTING THIS TIME!!" momo added before they reached the top..."OK!!!" they both said. "ok well now that the kids are now upstairs in bed im going to go to the shopping square to get food for the family.." she says as she sighs because she doesnt like to shop very much. looking back at yasu she says.."why are you looking at me like that?"as she starts to blush because he was staring at her so passionately..he says.."you know..my feelings have never changed since the first time I saw you."as he walked toward momo he gently grabs her by the waist and kisses her. as he lets go he says.."i hope you get my favorite..those faerie cakes i love so much." as momo smiles she says.."as long as we have the money for it i would be glad to get them for you" as she smiles she turns around and grabs her bag.."now make sure the you keep an eye on the kids...they like to go into our bedroom and watch tv...k?" as momo looks to yasu.."ok" he replied.
