Chapter 1 - Labyrinth

2

1 - Labyrinth

I run through my mind
Trying to find answers,
Secrets to myself.
Without knowing how,
Still I know
That locked away
Somewhere in this maze
Is the key to myself:
That piece of me
That completes my essence.
But I become lost
In this labyrinth.
Unable to find my way back,
I continue to wander.
Occasionally,
I will stumble across a room
Perhaps one holding
A dark fear
That has been hidden away.
Or maybe a room
Containing that detested
Emotion.
Upon arriving
At the end of my life,
Finally, a door
Is revealed to me
I can sense that behind it
Lies the answer
To the question
With which my search began
I open it,
Holding my breath
As I wait
For this great mystery
To be unraveled.
The door slowly creaks open,
And I rush inside,
But I see nothing
But a mirror.
