Chapter 1 - Part I

1 - Part I

Three little creatures,
Two are foxes, the other is a hound.
All know each other and are friends
But it is Spring and love is around.

The foxes are forbidden to love
And so the female goes to the hound.
A friendly game, I would have thought,
But the hound had a thought aroused.

The hound became clingy or protective.
The she-fox still loved the other.
The hound planned things far into the future,
The she-fox wanted the hound as a friend, not a lover.

What is a troubled fox to do?
Forbidden to love her fox and
Too afraid of a friend no longer there,
She must rid herself of the hound and make amends.

The hound loves the fox.
The fox does not feel the same.
The two foxes love each other,
But is forbidden because of where they came.
