1 - my friend horus-how we met

Okay so this is how i met horus my friend,but this is no ordinary friend,anyway my life is far from ordinary.

yesterday i took my bird,buddy out side(in his cage of course)we sat down in front of my house i was whistling to him,he started to whistle too,but my whistling was louder,then i saw a bird on a telephone line i said"look buddy a fellow bird!",later that day a hornet went into buddy's cage,it came out and was heading toward me!I ran to the backyard by the telephone line the bird was still there,but i noticed it was not a fellow bird,it was a bird of prey!it was a kestial.it stared at me and flew to a different part of the telephone line like it wanted me to follow it but i couldn't,so i ran inside and told my brother about the whole thing!then my dad,then grandma and grandpa.later i went outside again I went to the backyard.the bird wasn't there,i whistled and in an instant the bird came back to the telephone line!so i named him horus.

Thats how I met horus.
