1 - chapter 1

Hermione? Are you awake? she asked feebly. It was three o'clock in the morning and tomorrow, actually more like today, she left for school with her sister, Hermione? she whispered again, Huh? Wot's goin' on? Hermione woke with a lazy whimper, Heather? Shouldn't you be in bed? she asked a bit drunken like, I couldn't sleep, I'm nervous - about tomorrow, well, today Hermione sheepishly smiled at her, I remember my first day. That's the day I met Harry, and Ron, but Ron wasn't too fond of me, she chuckled, I think that's because I pointed out the dirt on his nose and made fun of his spell. Her voice went back to being soft and calming, Heather, you shouldn't be scared, Hogwarts is great fun. I just hope you are sorted into a friendly house. Like Ravenclaw or Gryffindor, just not Slytherin. Would you like me to sit with you on the train? Or better, you can sit with me! Harry and Ron would be delighted, they've never met you! Heather pushed her long dirty blonde hair away from her face. Her blue eyes glistened with excitement, and nervousness, Okay& I'll think about it more until it's time to go, then I'll give you my answer& okay? she finally said, Sounds good to me. said Hermione with a beaming grin.

As Heather walked back to her room a spark of awareness hit her hard. She was actually going to Hogwarts to learn all the things Hermione had learned. This was not a dream. Yet it felt so surreal.
