A poem describing how thieves attacked us in our house. It was terrific unfacinating and horrific.

In this poem the poet Henry Asaba writes it in simple form for all to comprehend.

"Night visitors"[br]

[br]

It was the ideo of July night,[br]

When they marched in like knights[br]

They possessed elements of destruction,[br]

And uttered all the instruction,[br]

Dictators were they with any human allusion,[br]

Inflicting in our hearts fright,[br]

Finally, It was time for a fight!![br]

[br]

We bid the fright with praises,[br]

But insufficient were all the graces,[br]

Darkness was getting gone,[br]

Light was getting borne,[br]

Fear in hearts and places,[br]

Alas! Gone were they without traces,[br]

Every relative in the perimeter the deed was done.[br]
