1 - Untitled

The blood stains my hands
As I run to lick my wound
The mortal pain is killing
As I die under sullen moon
No foreign creature did this
No creatures of the myth
It was my mortal enemy
No claws did I die with
I look upon my killer,
Her ravenous look does scare
I am afright of her hungry eyes
My darkened heart is bare
The tangled mass of hair
Hides all but her eye
Her greenish chocolate jewels
Watch me as I die
Though through it, I can't see
I know behind the nest
Of hair, a smile hides
She has put me to the test
I have failed miserably

And I fight to keep my life

Though I'm unsure if it gets better

I cannot stop this knife

The pain inside is dying

As I slowly numb the pain

It is my fallen angel

Who cries the crimson rain

Though I know I'll see him soon

For I shall soon fall too

I know being apart

Will greatly damage you

I fly towards heaven

So try to hold on

I'm dying my angel

So try to be strong

I look back

As my spirit soars

And see the rowers of death

I hold the oars.
