kagura's feather flew over head "oh great naraku is still sending others to do his work" shippo mumbled but then kagome gasped as a figure landed a few steps away kagura landed behind it holding an infant "kagura really naraku will kill you if you try to betray him and you know it stop thinking like that be ready to get me out of here when my job is done" the figure said walking forward her eyes were mossy shades like her hair ears and tail she was a tridemon her claws flexed and she grinned. inuyasha drew his sword "try it see what happens puppy" the figure said "moss you always tease and take time naraku said to fix that not improve on it" kagura said rolling her eyes she got behind the tridemon as inuyasha used his wind scar "look the wind scar avoided her" sango said lifting her weapon slightly miroku stood with his wind tunnel on the ready as kagome drew an arrow "no poison bugs stand back" miroku said everyone got behind him then he opened his wind tunnel a strange purple air came from around the tridemon "miroku close it she doesn't need the bugs she must be able to generate the poison herself" sango said miroku closed his wind tunnel kagura laughed "nothing works on her what will you guys do now she can counter everything" the infant said "hakudoshi i'll train you when you're big enough" moss said smiling her grin was that of evil "hmm i don't want to face inuyasha first hakudoshi put barriers on everyone but hmm i want to face the monk first" the tridemon said then barriers appeared around everyone but miroku "what's going on" shippo whined moss laughed "oh i'm going to take you all down so much so you see each other die and won't be able to do anything about it" she said walking towards miroku who raised his staff "oh little monk's going to put up a fight how entertaining" moss said racing towards him miroku was hardly able to block her claws getting them stuck in his staff "oh trying that one are we" moss said her expression was false curiosity "what can you do with your claws stuck" miroku said kagura laughed "even kagura figured it out" moss said her hand glowed green and poison dripped from the staff it then broke in half "hakudoshi the monk isn't a worthy person for me to fight i'll finish him the slayer is next i'll hurt her in front of the monk's body lying on the ground" moss said punching miroku then he looked like he had been thrown a war and hit the ground sango's barrier vanished and she slowly walked towards the tridemon she raised her weapon and threw it. moss raised her hand catching it throwing it to the side and advanced on sango. sango drew her sword only to have it discarded by moss then end up like miroku "hakudoshi i want someone who puts up a fight oh miko pity she could have been someone she's next" moss said kagome's barrier vanished "don't you dare touch kagome" inuyasha shouted moss giggled and generated a whip bringing kagome down then inuyasha's barrier went down and he raced at her. in no time moss was holding a blade to inuyasha's neck on the ground "moss dear time to go home you did well next time i'll let you have more fun" naraku said coming up behind them moss nodded standing up naraku took her hand generating a barrier he took off the infant nodded at kagura "sorry guys moss wasn't originally going to go this far" kagura said helping sango then kagome up as miroku was already standing "why be nice" inuyasha spat sitting up "idiot do you think she likes naraku no she doesn't and since she cares for me neither do i" the infant spat "hakudoshi play nice can't get rid of naraku if you're being mean like that" kagura said smiling at him he nodded then she faced them "but he was telling the truth i'd rather die than continue under him but then he would have kanna and hakudoshi" kagura said everyone knew kanna she was 2 years old and kagura was defensive of her along with the infant.0
