1 - Nature's change

Streaks of sunshine collide with the elegant tree branches which show no reaction nor a word of appreciation.

Their emotions are not expressed by words but movements as the wind makes itself known to the forest, flowing freely through the greenery.

The trees sway and bounce, and fallen leaves perform the dance of nature.

The season changes and the forest follows.

Remnants of the season's past paint a mural of tranquility in the canopies.

The first spheres of blissful white fall to the awaiting plants, cooling them down to a silent sleep of the season.

The leaves no longer dance, they descend swiftly to the icy bottom.

Nature dwells now in a state of suspended animation, but awaits the return of the aliveness and freedom there once was...
