Wanna your drawing gets good? I can give you the tips. But i'm not sure this tips can help you or not.

The first step, you got to do is choose a character that you want to draw. I recommend draw character such as Doreamon, Kero, Pokemon, and any character from the cute animals. You guys may say, why I must draw cute animal instead of people in anime/comic? That's because cute animals can help you draw very easy.

You also can create your own cute animals and show to your friends.

The second step, if you really good on cute animal, why don't you try advance character such as Sonic, Digimon, or Disney character. This one can help you draw almost like human. Practice up, until you you satisfy your picture.

The third step. I think you love this. Now you are really expert on drawing! This stage you can start draw the popular anime/comic such as Naruto, Inuyasha, Fullmetal Alchemist, Bleach and others. You can also draw character from game. This stage really the people like most.

The final step is you can create your own character. Actually this one can put on the third stage but depend on you if you want to follow the step or not. You can create you own character by your knowledge at previous stage. Mostly on third stage and others you can refer from magazines.

That's all for the tips. I hope this tips can help you a lot. Any recommendation just send to me. I will update for advance drawing tips soon.
