If Only to Dream 7/22/08

Spring forth from the bowels of life shall I never to have known true pain an insomniac deprived of breath a thought, to the mind, a stain

The light from within blinds me so our sun forever put to shame as love and life dance in vain for true evil it shall try to tame

Though woe is who shall see it through to carry on this reckless task of purging worlds of all they know to cleanse their devious, darkest past

And if I still shall carry on do hope I shall not die though life to all may always be a well thought out insomniacs lie
